Charing Cross

BY BIGELOW

It's so nice to have a man around the house... (and vice versa)... particularly when you can so easily please his decorating tastes with this ruggely handsome Bigelow Charing Cross looks like and is a strong, tightly woven velvet... and its plump, 4-ply yarns add as much to its comfort and luxury as to its long, hard-wearing life. It's in cabots with other too! This knitted texture never show footmarks and its subtle tweed tones mask dirt. So for a tweed to please every eye... every purse, see Charing Cross in 14 soft to bright colorings.

LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Village Dance Club Holds Final Dance Of Current Season

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Members of the Village Dance Club in Lathrup met at the Mapewood Club House Friday for their final dance of the current season. Cocktails preceded the dinner and dancing to the Pink Cole Orchestra, with vocals by Kim Sheahan. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFaddin again handled the decorations.

There was a record turnout with almost all of the 60 members present and many guests. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Humphrey took Mrs. Humphrey's father, Paul Yarnell, and the Gerald Sandersons. The Gordon Lawtons brought the Edward Thurburs; guests of the Maurice Blans were the Robert Petersons; guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Phillips were the Martin Hartwells.

THE JOHN Kohls came as guests of the Jay Beatts; the Howard Humphreys asked the Emil Mehalis; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clarke were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Don Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luckas were hosts to the Joseph Slavovichs; the James Hellers brought the Jack Boos; the Fred Thompsons guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Dallavo and the Lee Stacey's guests were the Robert Ritchies.

At a recent business meeting of the Village Dance Club, the new officers for the coming year were elected. They are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Forrest, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. James Heller, co-chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vogel, treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cogger, membership; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Best, program chairman; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFaddin, secretary.

RED RUN Country Club was the place and Tuesday was the date of the gathering of the members of the Lathrup Women's bowling league at their banquet. Gold bowling pins were used for center pieces for each team.

Mrs. James Kovich, retiring president, awarded the prizes to the winning teams and introduced the new officers. They are Mrs. Lois Howard, president; Mrs. Oleta Murray, vice-president; Mrs. Gen Farkas, secretary; and Mrs. Laurette Roberts, treasurer.

BACK AT THEIR studies at Marian High School are 10 young ladies who spent their vacation in New York. The girls toured the museums, the United Nations, Radio City Music Hall and attended St. Patrick's on Easter Sunday.

Barb Moore, Sally Hoener, Trudy Loftis and Marcia Phillips, all of Lathrup, and Marilyn Golcar of Bloomfield Hills, drove to New York with Mrs. William Loftis and Mrs. Earle Hoener.

Mrs. Liebo, Jordan and her daughter, Lois, of Roseland flew in to join the group for Easter Sunday. Others who spent some time were Lynn O'Laughlin of Southfield, Pat Thiesen and Trish Burns of Birmingham and Eileen Kelly of Royal Oak.

CRANBROOK
The Cranbrook Village North branch WNFGA, will meet Monday at the home of Mrs. Stanley Craft on Rock Creek Drive at 12:30. Mrs. Stanley Hoff and Mrs. Michael Orsarcos will assist Mrs. Craft as co-hostesses.

As part of the business, an election of officers for the coming year will take place. The program will consist of a demonstration of the proper way to trim shrubs and how to use the proper tools by Walter Morris of the Morris Nursery, Troy.

LATHRUP
Paul Yarnell arrived at the Melvin Humphrey home on Corn Gables Thursday morning. He came to the area for the Saturday wedding of his grandson, Melvin Jr., to Janice Waidlich of Lansing. He found a busy schedule set up at his daughter's home, including the Village Dance Club's dinner dance. Yarnell returned to his home in Pueblo, Colo. early in the week.

The James T. Moore family are back home again following trips in various directions. While daughter Barb went to New York with a group of five girls and two mothers for fun and education, Moore took the three youngest children, Jolie, Michael and James to Daytona Beach, Fla. Grandma (Mrs. Genevieve) Brown returned Monday from visiting friends in Kenosha, Wis.

THE LATHRUP Women's Club will convene for their May meeting on Monday at 1 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the Lathrup Community Church. For the ladies' entertainment, the Lathrup Players will present a one-act play entitled, "No Stone Unturned."

Mrs. Vincent Zetell, who is a member of both organizations, wrote the play and will direct it. She has won recognition for it from the Community Theaters of Michigan. The cast includes Mrs. J. T. Canan, Mrs. Robert Girvan, Mrs. Glenn Farrison and Mrs. Richard Cogger.

Hostesses and chairman for the afternoon is Mrs. J. T. Canan. Lendine her assistance with
