If you have high-chair-age children you'll appreciate these wheeled chairs. You can roll your child alongside the service counters with ease... and your child can see more than knees and hubbels. You'll both be more relaxed when you reach your table.

Families especially enjoy our self service. From the wide variety of food, everyone chooses by sight exactly what he or she wants. You can reduce waiting time, avoid food and the cost of eating out. Treat your family to a meal at Greenfield's soon.
