PTA Nominates Officers for Year At Local School

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-1056

Westchester School has announced that the registration for the 1963-64 kindergarten class will take place on Monday at 8 p.m. at the school. Additional information may be obtained by calling the Birmingham Board of Education.

At the PTA meeting held April 25, a slate of nominations for officers was presented for the 1963-64 school year.

Nominated were president, Everett Harrison; mother vice-president, Mrs. Lyle Perry; father vice-president, Vernon E. Frich; ways and means, William Mollison; recording secretary, Mrs. Earl Kuhlke; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jane Hunt; teacher vice-president, lower grades, Mrs. Paul Hoodnight; teacher vice-president, upper grades, Douglas Haesler. Nominations for treasurer will be announced later.

MR. AND MRS. EARL LAPP of Pible Lane took advantage of a long Easter weekend to drive to Niagara Falls with their three children, Elizabeth, 9; Sara, 5, and Cynthia, 4, to do some sight seeing. The young fry were thrilled with the trip behind the Falls and the aerial ride over the Niagara River.

The Westchester Village Association held its annual dinner-dance on Saturday at the Town and Country Club. Music was furnished by the club orchestra. Splice Inerman of W. Brockton was chairman of the affair with Mrs. Kenneth Branch assisting. Cocktails were served at 2:30 and dinner at 8 p.m. Approximately 200 couples attended.

A 10-DAY EASTER VACATION found Mr. and Mrs. William Lyle Perry of Westbourne Drive driving with their two children, Debbie and Timmy, to Warren, O., to visit with Mrs. Perry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Brand. An extra celebration was held during the visit because it had been the first time in six years that Mrs. Perry had been able to celebrate her birthday with her parents.

FRANKLIN WOODS
After a bowling session at Strike and Spare Lanes on April 21, the Franklin Woods Women's bowling league held a meeting and an election of new officers for the next year. Past president was Dorothy Burton. The new president will be Sally Frankel. Re-elected to the office of secretary was Fran Barsky and treasurer, Beverly Weber. Ellen Nolen-dam will be recording secretary and corresponding secretary.

The women are planning a dinner party to be held on Saturday to which they are inviting their husbands.

BURKSHIRES
The Berkshire Branch WNFGA will hold its meeting on Tuesday at noon in the home of Mrs. Walter Ludwig, 8665 Lincoln Drive. The members have been asked to bring a sandwich and salad, dessert and coffee will be served by co-hostesses Mrs. B. W. Westcott, Mrs. Bruce Fetter, Mrs. J. A. Howarth, Mrs. Fred Schwartz and Mrs. Charles W. Smith.

The meeting will consist of a plant sale and white elephant market. Plants which will be given away by members and also geraniums from a local nursery. Auctioneer for the white elephant sale will be Mrs. Beverly Green. Among other things she promises several mystery packages containing worthwhile items. The meeting is open to guests.

BIRMINGHAM FARMS
The young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carlson of Woodbank, Barabara, 10, and Catherine, 7, flew west to visit with their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Johnson of Park Ridge during Easter vacation from school. The young ladies were gone for a week and then were driven home by their dad who was in the locality on business.

Driving to New York for Easter were Mr. and Mrs. Grove DuVal of 14 Mile Road with their two daughters, April, a sophomore at Albion and Marcia, a senior at Bloomfield High School. The trip was made in Marcia's behalf and ironically enough she met her high school classmates in New York while they were on the senior trip. The DuVal family enjoyed the sights and the play "Marry Mary."

MORE VACATIONERS from the area were Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Byrne of Timber Ridge Drive and their four children, Dawn, Maura, Brad and Byron. The family visited Mrs. Byrne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Byrne in Washington, D.C. and then went on to Pittsburgh to visit with Byrne's family. Not to be left out of the vacation was the Byrne family pet, a dog named "CoCo."

CRANBROOK-MAPLE
House guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Decker of S. Cranbrook Cross are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ostendorf of Park Hills, Ky. They are the parents of Mrs. Decker and are here for an extended visit. The Decker children, Bonnie and Jamie, are especially enjoying the visit with their grandparents.

Additional visitors over last weekend were Blanche Ostendorf of Cincinnati, O., an aunt of Mrs. Decker, who flew up with her niece Judy Hahnel and Miss Hahnel's fiancé, Mark Myers, both of Ft. Thomas, Ky.

Friends and admirers of the late Henry Ford urged him to run for President, but the automotive pioneer was not interested and closed the matter by sending President Calvin Coolidge a telegram, praising him for his work and expressing no desire to oppose him.

Holiday Travelers Return from Trips

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1882

Travelers home from a spring trip are the Robert Depous and their children, Tom and Patty, of E. Valley Chase Road. Their destination was Myrtle Beach, S. C. During their stay they swam, sunned and took a side trip to Polly's Island.

A stop was made in Wilmington, N. C., then on to Williamsburg. They returned via the Skelton Drive.

The Nat Reises of Windrush Drive journeyed to Columbus, Ind., on their spring vacation. While there they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cal-michael, and other relatives and friends.

THE RICHARD Spauldings and daughter Sue of Pine Hill Drive are back home with pleasant memories of their recent trip. They traveled through Kentucky and stopped at a ledge high above the Cumberland River before going on to Tennessee and picturesque Gatlinburg. During their stay, they toured the mountains and valleys.

The John Stenes of Lamp-lighter Lane entertained at a cocktail party on Saturday evening. The 50 attending the "springtime party" were area friends and neighbors.

ON MONDAY afternoon, the Meadowfield Drive home of Mrs. Alan Yates will be open to members of the Osage Garden Club for the club's annual meeting. Mrs. J. E. Lindy, the club's president for the second consecutive year, will turn the meeting over to the new slate of officers.

On the slate are president Mrs. William Jaenichen of North Adams Road; first vice president and program chairman, Mrs. Nat Rees of Windrush Road; second vice president and hospitality chairman, Mrs. Edward Hopper of Meadowdale Drive; recording secretary, Mrs. Warren Rockefeller of Chamwood Drive, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles Rowson of Lancerun Drive; treasurer, Mrs. William Niehuis of Walnut Hill Drive.

Guests at the meeting will be the club's scholarship student Harold Sedgwick of Lupter and Robert Robb, son of a club member. Mrs. George Robb, Harold will speak to the group on his studies at Michigan State while George will discuss his experiences on conservation at Higgins Lake last summer.

TOM SANSONE, 11-year-old son of the A. J. Sansone of E. Square Lake Road, is adding a blue ribbon to his growing collection.

The first prize blue ribbon was won at the Easter holiday horse show at the Bloomfield Open

Club held the first general meeting of the newly formed club at the home of its president, Mrs. Clifford Morgan of A. S. Hooper Road, on Monday afternoon. Speaking to the group on general yard care was Jonathan Hall of McClellan-Hall Co.

The May meeting is slated for the 27th when the 28 members will meet at the Peveri Road home of its vice president, Mrs. William Snyder. The guest speaker at that meeting will be Lawrence A. Smith, landscape architect.

Latex paints are popular with do-it-yourself decorators because they do not show lap marks, are odorless, dry-in an hour or less, and brushes and rollers clean in plain water. These water-thinned paints are sometimes called emulsion paints, plastic paints, rubber-fel or rubber-based paints, acrylic paints, p.v.c. or vinyl paints. But whatever they're labeled, they're all latex.
