

Wisdom urges that one should never personalize any form of evil that may be ascribed to another's words and actions. Oppose—even fight—the negative ideas one thus observes, but do so without personalizing them—because most people will not defend evil in and of itself, when evil is treated objectively. Personalizing an evil hurts one's sanity, and then yawns defeats itself, thus temporarily submerging the evil.

Travelers Create Minor Traffic Jam

If Sunday traffic seemed heavier than usual on April 21, the reason may have been home-bound families converging on Birmingham at the end of the Easter vacation.

Mrs. Robert Miller, the Robert Mooneya, George Reasors and William A. Bechmanis, each with three children, all returned from Florida that day.

Mrs. Miller with Bob, Judy and Doug, of Newland Drive West, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hoorn, in Hollywood.

THE REASORS of Sutters Land had vacationed in Daytona with Claudia, Craig and Lydia. Barbara Jack and Billy Bachman with their parents of Loch Lomond Drive had stayed at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rittinger, on Anna Maria Island.

As a souvenir of the trip, Jack brought back a baby raccoon, one of a litter born in the house next door when the mother raccoon had broken in, heated down and proceeded to have her family.

As a souvenir of HER trip, 13-year-old Kathy Mooney of Middlesboro, Ky. brought back for mounting the head of the 32-inch record grouper which she caught in the Gulf. The catch earned her a prize of $15 and her picture in the Fort Myers News Press.

KATHY WAS staying at Port Charlotte with her parents and brother and sister, Bobby and Sharon.

On their return trip, the Mooneya visited Williamsburg, Washington, D. C., and Gettysburg. They also stopped over in Cleveland for a reunion with Mrs. Mooney's parents and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brady, Mrs. Clyde Kubler and Mrs. Leonard Kratchvill, and their families.

Groups Rally at Orchard

Meadow Brook Opens Doors For Gala Ball

Junior members of the Village Woman's Club put down the handicrafts they have been making for the club's May 4 auction and donned their ball gowns for their annual spring dance Saturday. This year the ball was given at the Meadow Brook Hall estate of Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson who is president of the club.

Cocktails were served in the billiard room, dinner following in a large tent erected on the terrace off the dining room. Gaily colored balloons, decorated the ceiling. Dancing was in the grand ballroom.

This year's dance committee, headed by Mrs. Henry Hogan, Jr., included Mrs. James Hubbard, Jr., Mrs. Robert Scott, Mrs. Essil Briggs, Mrs. Burton DuChok, Mrs. Wendell Smith, Mrs. David Schutte, Mrs. Lawrence Heitsch, Mrs. Richard McClear, Mrs. Royal Wilson, Mrs. James Temple, Mrs. Brian Van Moia, Mrs. Leonard Horton and Mrs. William Hamilton.

WNFGA Gives Largest Tea Of Season

On a warm, sunny afternoon last week—one of few we've been able to chalk up so far this spring—one of the largest teas of the season took place on the spacious grounds of the Max Fruhauf home on Brookside Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Hundreds of women thronged to the affair sponsored by the Michigan Division of WNFGA to benefit the International Farm Youth Exchange.

Mrs. Donald Irwin, international chairman of the Michigan Division, was general chairman of the gala affair. Serving on her committee were Mrs. Otto Winkelmann, Mrs. Clarence Brosteau, Mrs. William McCallum, Mrs. W. L. McCane and Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp. Mrs. F. G. Garrison is current president of Michigan Division and on the 4-H Council, which promotes the IFYE project.
