Potpourri

by JULIE CANDLER Special Writer

Several visitors have wanted to take home a ravishing female, framed in gold and dripping with Victorian Age innocence, from the Next to New shop upstairs at 124 S. Woodward, Birmingham.

But codirectors Annie (Mrs. John R.) App and Marge (Mrs. John P.) Briscoe refused to part with her. This work of art is their mascot, they claim, and they love her. Their conversation piece of a mascot has an hour glass figure, with heavy emphasis on the upper 30 minutes.

ANOTHER WORK of art has just been produced by painter Carolyn (Mrs. C. A.) Hall. His name is Garrett Allan Hall, who arrived April 16. He's beautiful, his mother says.

A few days after Carolyn and Garrett returned home to 20730 Kennaway, Beverly Hills, she learned that her entry in the Open Stitchery show at Seal Beach, Calif., had shared top honors with two others.

"Stitchery is becoming recognized as quite an art form on the Coast," says Carolyn, who usually has a stitchery in some stitching stage in her studio.

The Potpourri definition of a stitchery: a painting on cloth, done with a needle plus a combination of yarn embroidery and anything that suits the stitcher's purpose.

Carolyn has already made such a name for herself in American stitchery circles that she was contacted by a California woman who's writing a book on the subject (guaranteed to keep you in stitches).

Carolyn also has a painting of a cat in a Michigan Watercolor exhibition which will soon be at the Detroit Artists' Market and then travel around the state.

WHILE WE'RE on a Beverly Hills culture kick, let's talk about composers in their thar hills.

The work of two of them was performed last week. First was Harold Lundenlager, 1608 Bickingham, whose original compositions were performed Saturday as a part of Detroit Adventure's Spring Festival of the Arts. Critics hailed the program and its three composers for showing the wealth of creative musical ability there is in Detroit (to say nothing of Beverly Hills).

Next on the agenda was Noel Goemane, 17023 Elizabeth, whose choral work, "The Canticle of the Sun," was presented Tuesday night by the Madrigal Club of Detroit.

The fine-looking young Mr. Goemane is choirmaster and organist at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church, Beverly Hills. He hails from Belgium. When he came to the USA in 1952, he taught at St. John's University, Collegeville, Minn.

The program notes from Tuesday night's presentation point out that Goemane's choral works have made his name known from coast to coast and in Europe.

WORD COMES from Margaret Cousins, the delightful writer and editor who's speaking to this year's "Ladies of the Press Breakfast" May 1 at Cobo Hall, that "one of my great problems as a writer is that I can't say no to people who ask me to travel places with them. Since I'm an architectural buff, my travels are usually to Italy."

Yer ole Potpourri pipeline is chairman of this year's breakfast and has a ball every time another funny note arrives from this charmer.

Hope all you readers out there on the Potpourri pipeline can come to the breakfast—both of you.

Statistics Show Culture Is 'In'

EDITOR'S NOTE: Those who think of this country as a cultural desert may be interested in some of the statistics pointed out in an Op-Ed (Mich.) Argus-Press editorial.

As fast as spending on spectator sports, and twice as fast as spending on all recreation. The "culture market" now runs about $2.5 billion a year; it is expected to almost triple by 1970.

the status symbol, has something to do with it.

Americans are becoming disenchanted with cars, boats, mass-produced goods. With personal creativity in the arts, they can achieve satisfaction and self-expression, as well as social status.

Culture is definitely "in" in America.

ONE OF THE causes of all this, the researchers conclude, is the greater exposure and dissemination of the arts through modern electronic means. But that old bugaboo,

"We just gave our lawn its 2nd feeding. That took care of weeds automatically!"

That's the beauty of BONUS—it saves you time and trouble—and cash! When you're doing the right thing by your lawn, do yourself a favor, too. When you're giving it the second feeding (dandelion now) take care of weeds at the same time, simply by using BONUS in place of your usual fertilizer.

If you skipped the early Spring feeding All the more reason for using BONUS now — without delay! First there are the weeds you can plainly see, like dandelions. And then there may be many others, hidden by the grass, simply waiting for warmer weather before growing aggressively. BONUS clears them out the easy way.

Dandelions vanish — grass grows greener Simply pour a bag of BONUS into your Scott's Spreader and walk it around. One day you'll suddenly realize that every dandelion has vanished — and that your grass is greener, richer, lovelier. This takes less time than doing both jobs separately — and costs you less than 1/4¢ per sq. ft. So you're ahead, any way you figure.

If you want to see the dramatic effectiveness of BONUS, leave one spreader width of your lawn untreated. Then in a month's time compare it with the rest. You'll wish it looked like the rest of your lawn.

Got a lawn problem? Take it to your Scotts Dealer. Look up his Scotts Counselor. You'll find him ready, willing and able to give you practical, helpful advice. Got a weed you can't identify? Dig it up and take it to him. And don't be backward about asking for help. So many of the nicest lawns are Scotts lawns, not only because the products are good but because they are distributed by dealers who back them with sound advice and guidance.

This week end could be a fine time to spread BONUS. Scott's THE LAWN PEOPLE. © W. SCOTT & SONS, MARSHVILLE, N.C.
