Food and Music Are Plentiful at Barnum Banquet

By BILL COLLINS

The Barnum International Club sponsored a banquet on Monday night, May 6. Entitled "Crazy Cuisine," the banquet was held in the Barnum cafeteria from 6 to 8 p. m.

As much food as you could eat was offered for the small price of a ticket. Most of the food was foreign in origin, and was prepared by members of the International Club.

Entertainment was also offered in the forms of various talent from the student body. On the schedule for the "floor show" were a trio of female singers, a folk-singing duo, a violinist, a lone singer, a jazz combo called "The Imperials," and a rather un-ethnic trio of folsingers known only as "Hoot Nanie and His Skillet Likers." Where else can you get such a star-gauged show for the price?

THE BARNUM track team lost its first meet of the season to Oak Park on Friday, April 26. The final score was Barnum 43, Oak Park 47. During the course of the meet Barnum sprinter Bruce Landino set a new school record for the 100-yard dash.

The Barnum choir attended a choir festival at Ferndale High School on Thursday, May 2. They went by school buses and were absent most of the day. The choir is under the direction of Mr. Simola.

Tickets went on sale on Wednesday, May 1, for the ninth grade play. To be held on May 9, the play is entitled "The Magic Touch." It is the story of a metamorphosis from tomboy to beautiful young woman. The three-act comedy is under the direction of Mr. Stason. The Barnum Orchestra supplied music for the occasion.
