

Bollinger-Page Nuptial Vows Solemnized

Franklin Community Church was the setting Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Norma Jean Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Page of Franklin Road and Palmer Crawford Bollinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer E. Bollinger of Nantucket Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride chose a Bianchi gown of bouquet taffeta featuring an empire bodice of net with Alençon lace appliques embroidered with seed pearls. The controlled bell-shaped skirt ended in a chapel train. A matching circle of taffeta and Alençon lace held her beautiful veil of imported French silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

pink roses were the bride's sister, Mrs. Grant Beard, as matron of honor, and bridesmaids Mrs.

David Coatta, the bridegroom's sister, and Percy Steele.

William Ashbaugh was the best man. Seating the guests were Edward Page, brother of the bride, and John Fall.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding, Mrs. Page selected a gown and hat of champagne beige peau de soie, pinning a green cymbidium orchid to her purse.

Mrs. Bollinger wore a yellow peau de soie tunic dress with a citrus-colored flowered hat and pinned yellow roses to her purse.

Following a reception at the Village Woman's Club, the couple left for the Pocono Mountains. Upon their return they will make their home in Lansing.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.
