Romance in the News

Donald Bruce Murphy arrived in Birmingham over the weekend bringing with him a velvet-lined box containing a very special gift. We saw it Saturday on Linda Elizabeth Stevenson's third finger, left hand.

Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Murphy of Chappaqua, N. Y., and Linda's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John K. Stevenson of Glenvarly Road, Birmingham. The young couple is planning a summer wedding.

A member of Tau Beta and a Junior League provisional, Linda is a graduate of Hathaway Brown School, Shaker

LINDA STEVENSON AND DONALD MURPHY

Heights, O., and Briarcliff College, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y. She is the granddaughter of the late Lt. Gen. and Mrs. William S. Knudsen and R. M. Stevenson of Grosse Pointe and the late Mrs. Stevenson.

Don, a graduate of Yale University, is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. William P. Gatehouse, formerly of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. James J. Murphy of Mitchellstown, County Cork, Ireland, and the late Mr. Murphy.

Originally, news of the engagement was to have been revealed at a formal dinner party, but this was postponed due to Linda's dad's recent bout at Beaumont, from which he is currently and happily convalescing. Tradition WAS observed to this extent, however: Small white calendar booklets containing pictures of the couple, with a ring around May 5, 1963, were dispersed to any friends who happened to drop in over the week-end. They were identical to those used when Linda's parents' engagement was announced.

June Date Is Set

Another engagement informally announced over the weekend concerns Sally Ann Forster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Forster of Old Orchard Trail, Orchard Lake, and Roger Lee O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. O'Neill of Chicago.

Sally, who has been working in Chicago since the first of January (in a law firm), attended the University of Michigan and Roger is a graduate of Denison University, where his fraternity was Sigma Chi.

The wedding will take place June 22 in St. Hugo of the Hills Church, with a reception following in the home of the bride-elect's parents. Following their wedding trip, the newlyweds will make their home in Chicago.

Guests From W. Berlin

At the risk of "plagiarism" here's Sub Scene's own "Have You Met . . ." It concerns Prof. Immanuel Broser and his wife, Dr. Ruth Broser Broser, here temporarily from their home in West Berlin. Both are employed there at the Max Planck Institute, their trip to the United States occasioned by a research project for the professor in the Physics Dept. at G. M.'s Tech. Center.

Ruth's arrival March 17 followed her husband's and upon being reunited, they were greeted by many G. M. friends in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Bleil of Birmingham. They were entertained April 27 by the Robert Bockemuehls of Bloomfield Hills, then took off over last weekend on a jaunt to Niagara Falls.

Preceding this sightseeing "must," Ruth gave bowling a first try last week at Strike 'n' Spare, following luncheon with Mrs. Bockemuehl and Mrs. Bleil.

The Broser's two-month stay will end May 18, during which time they have lived at Cranbrook Manor. This is where Ruth has enjoyed being a housewife and converting her German cooking measurements to English. Needless to say, she brought her own cook book.

The Broser's are in the early stages of planning a new home in West Berlin and are busy inquiring about the durability of various building materials used in the homes they have been in here.

When at home in Europe, they both enjoy skiing and tennis. Here, they miss public indoor swimming pools and wooded paths for just walking—no cars allowed!
