

Plan Spring Theme For Annual Party

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

Kern Lake Garden Club members, all residents of Bloomfield Hills Estates, are hosting a "meet your neighbor night" for the subdivision on May 17. The annual dinner party will be held at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, North Adams Road, beginning at 8 p.m. and will be a roast beef and fish buffet.

The spring theme will be carried out in wall decorations, flowered name tags and centerpieces of flowers. The Rev. Carl Sayers, rector of St. Stephens, and his wife will be the club's guests.

Planning the event are the club's ways and means chairman, Mrs. Arthur Poll of N. Westview Court, and her committee, Mrs. Arthur Olson of Kernway Drive and Mrs. Thomas Colley of Parkman Drive. Tickets may be obtained through them.

THE BRAVES and little braves of the Navajo Tribe of the Indian Guides will pack their gear on the evening of May 17 and head for the north country. Their destination will be Grayling and the Ap Sable River on which they will paddle their canoes 40 miles down stream. The group on the outing will be the men folks in the families of the Robert Kays, the A. F. Vonderharns, the James Jones, the Don Getz's, the Lawrence Smiths, the Gerald Thorleys and the Marc Hagermann. The newly appointed tribal chief of the season is Robert Kay of Shamrock Drive.

Home from a week's trip through the south, and the Leland Morgans of Chestnut Hill Drive and their children, Earl, Ken and Carol. They made stops in Huntsville, Ala., to visit their relatives, the Hugh A. Smiths. Then they visited grandparents, the James I. Baughns in Memphis. The Hermitage in Nashville was another stop before a visit with Morgan's relatives in Haensville, La.

ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON Ken Morgan celebrated his 10th birthday by inviting a group of friends to a cookout on the patio and games.

The Dan Mills of Northover Road have been journeying through the west for the past three weeks. Their first stop was St. Louis to visit former Birmingham neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rousseau. Ten days were spent in Phoenix. Also in their plans was a flight to Los Angeles to visit relatives and spend a day at Disneyland.

The Vaughn Groons of Tullamore Drive and their daughter, Kimberly Lynn, returned last weekend after a four-month stay in Florida. They made the Macador apartments in Hollywood Beach their home as they sunned, swam and went deep sea fishing. On one of their fishing trips a 17-pound kingfish was caught by Mr. Groons and taken back to the apartment for a series of delicious meals.

HOUSEGUESTS VISITING Dr. and Mrs. George Yatch of Rouge Circle Drive for a few days recently were the Clarence Randys of Chicago, former Pine Hill subdivision residents. The Yatches entertained at a party for their guests inviting Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Crisp of Juniper Court and Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Corcholis and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Embury, all of Rouge Circle.

Chuck Sold, son of the George Solds of Walnut Hill Drive, celebrated his 18th birthday at the Tiger-Yankee night ball game at Briggs Stadium on Monday. Joining him on his birthday were friends Bill Wench, Steve Huhler, Bill Wood and his dad.

MRS. GEORGE SOLD will be entertaining at a neighborhood dessert bridge on the afternoon of May 14. In the Walnut Hill

Conference-Minded Leaguers

Drive group are Mrs. William Nienhiss, Mrs. Brady Brenton, Mrs. Dan Burlingame, Mrs. Charles Van Norich, Mrs. James Thompson, Mrs. John Seals and Mrs. Robert Dixon.

Mrs. Earl Rohrbacher of Juniper Court, Mrs. H. E. Norris of Detroit and Mrs. Franklin Lewis of Mount Clemens, all southeastern district officers of the Michigan Association Hospital Auxiliary, attended the tri-state hospital convention in Chicago for three days last week.

On May 21, the district will hold their annual meeting and installation of officers at the Wayne Medical Society Building in Detroit.

Mrs. Stuart King and Mrs. Jack Neuman, president and secretary, presented trophies to the four teams. Awards went to Ida Zimmerman, Bettie Sasene, Helen Willard, Nancy Noonan, Heick Willard and Joan Calengor.

ON WEDNESDAY the Birmingham Knights of Columbus are planning a father, son and daughter night at the K of C Hall on Southfield. "Big Fish Nite" is the theme of the evening and two films on fishing will be shown, one narrated by Ted Husing and the other by Mort Neff.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Darl Andrews of Nordstrom Drive, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carole, to Charles R. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Miller of Eton, Cross Road, Bloomfield Hills. Miss Andrews is a junior at the University of Michigan and her fiancé attends Lawrence Institute of Technology. An Aug. 7 wedding is planned in St. Hugo of the Hills Church.
