THE GARDEN CLUB was one of the exhibitors in the recent Wright Kay table decorating and flower show in Detroit. A committee composed of Mrs. Bingham, Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. Eddy, Mrs. Bickley and Mrs. Charles Meyer chose as their theme, "Easter Day" for a French picnic setting. Using a red tablecloth and white and blue china, they decorated a white leather ice bucket to resemble a drum and filled it with red carnations, white snapdragons and blue iris.

In Glendale, she saw old neighbors from Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Matchura, whom she hadn't seen in 12 years.

A few days after her return, Mrs. La Branch attended a baby shower given for her daughter, Mrs. Dale R. Moss of Pontiac. Cakes and doughnuts were Mrs. Upo Ruzhinski and Miss Jane La Branch.

MRS. ADAM BORASKI of Westmore Road returned on April 24 from a two-week vacation spent in Florida with her children, Lenice and John, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hince, of Cuyahoga Falls, O.

They visited relative, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith in St. Petersburg and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Strickland in Jacksonville. It's a fourth child and second son, John Grow, for the James Maunders of Idlewild Road. John who was born April 12 joins two sisters, Darcy and Susan, 10 and 8, and a brother, Ross, 3.

KIRKWOOD Sutters Lane was a beehive of activity last week when Mrs. Martin Healey and seven friends decided to lump together discarded clothing and items from their homes and hold a rummage sale. Converging on the Healey garage with shoes, clothing, oil paintings, watercolors, a radio, coffee table, games, an outdoor rocker swing and even an old time hand-cranked wall telephone were Mesdames Robert Mahler, Frank Grazier, Paul Walters, Jack Ward, John Katke, George Beasly and Stan Ainsley. At the end of the three-day sale on Saturday, husbands joined their busy wives and stayed on for supper at the Healeys.

Pruning Required For Shapely Tree

Most trees require periodical pruning in order to keep their shape. Dead limbs and branches also need to be removed. Small trees that can be reached by standing on the ground, or possibly on a stepladder, may be pruned safely by the home owner. Pruning of large trees is dangerous, however, and is not recommended. Call in a local tree expert.

A reliable tree expert always will have insurance that protects his employees while working on your property. Need a better car? Then trade in your old model on a new one. Find cash buyers fast with Eccentric Want Ads. Ask about our 3 insertion offer with cancellation privileges. Call MI 4-1100.

Japanese Decor Highlights Luncheon

GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

The "Perkythia Tea House" was the title and theme for the spring luncheon of the Brookside Branch W.P.C.A. which was held Thursday at the Village Women's Club. Lotis bowls on the tables and forsythia composed a portion of the Japanese decor designed by Brookside president Mrs. E. Gilmore Winn and her sister, Mrs. Philip F. Hoops.

Other arrangements were made by Mrs. Charles Galloway of North Pemberton Road and Mrs. Thomas Harris of Hickory Heights.

Mrs. Adolph Magnus, who was horticultural chairman of the day, introduced the guest speaker, Johnathan Ball of McClellan Ball Co. His subject was "Dirt Gardening." Thirty members, and guests were in attendance.

DEVON HILLS Mrs. Philip F. Hoops of Chicago has been the recent houseguest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gilmore Winn of North Pemberton Road. She returned home last weekend after a two-week visit.

The Dittrichs returned just in time to witness the snow storm last Tuesday.

And speaking of that freak snow storm, it impeded the "break off" date of the Glencoe Estates Women's Golf League. The new president, Mrs. Rolf Gullian of Blanford Road, announced that the group hopes to get their tournament under way this week. Helping Mrs. Gullian plan this year's schedule are Mrs. Fred Peterson, secretary; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Wood; starter; and Mrs. William Lichtenberg who is in charge of the handicaps.
