Women Schedule Flower Show for Annual Meeting

NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

The Franklin branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will gather next Monday afternoon for their annual meeting.

Following a 1 p.m. luncheon at Pine Knob, members will dispose of routine business and election of officers. Elizabeth Wayne, guest speaker, will discuss "Music and Travel."

Though this would seem to be a sufficiently full agenda, the real excitement will center around final details for the group's big spring event, the May 18 flower show called "Let Yourself Go With Piggies."

As a climax for their 10th anniversary, the Franklin WNFGA has been working collectively and independently towards making the show a big 2 to 8 p.m. event at the Franklin Community Church.

MRS. N. A. THURESON, just back from a month-long holiday in chairman.

A highlight will be the spring and fall plant stall with quantities of annuals for sale.

Mrs. C. J. Nepper has had the full support of the best local "green-thumbs" to offer healthy stock for this season's village gardens.

YOU CAN BET your life that it takes something very special to induce Mrs. Thomas Dadson of 14 Mile Road to board a jet for a jaunt.

The mother-daughter weekender at Pembroke in Rhode Island was incentive enough. Mrs. Dadson spent three days in the east with her freshman daughter, Anneli, for the traditional event. The

Suellen Stone Is Honored Before Rites

By ELEANOR NELSEN

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Beaumont Stone, Jr., 6850 White Pine Drive, announce the engagement of their daughter, Suellen, to Thomas Michael Beldyca, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael John Beldyca of Hamtramck. The pair will be married at St. Owen's Church on Sunday, May 18, at 10 o'clock.

Pine Hill Church To Hold Services At Orchard Lake

Miss Stone attended the Universities of Detroit and Michigan. Her fiancé studied at South Macomb Community College.

Miss Stone has been feted at a crystal shower given by Mrs. White and her mother, Mrs. Charles F. White, of South Rindale Park. (Miss White will be a bridesmaid) and by Mrs. James T. Straskowski and Mrs. Forrest D. Crane. Mrs. Straskowski will also be a bridesmaid.

Suellen was also the guest of honor at a coffee given recently by Mrs. Edward I. Nicholas of White Pine Drive. Co-hostess was Mrs. Harold Lack. Still another gathering in her honor was a linen shower at the home of Mrs. C. M. Tillinghast of Redford Township.

young student will be heading home at the end of the month.

The Oliver Garwoods of Balsam proudly watched their second-born, Kathy, receive her nurse's cap at Harper Hospital Monday night.

ANOTHER DAUGHTER who stirred up family festivities this week was Mrs. William Oliver, the former Karen Price. Mrs. Oliver and her very young son, John Andrew, came from Schenectady, N. Y. last week to spend several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Price of Colony Hill.

Though Kathy Laux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gar Laux of Haverford, will be finished with her freshman studies at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, she's to remain in Texas till July to stay with her grandparents and visit friends.

May 23 is being under-scored by village women who love to gather over the card tables.

The annual Franklin dessert-bridge tournament will be held, starting at noon, at the Franklin Community Church. A popular Women's Society of Christian Service event, reservations should be made with Mrs. William Hyland of Telegraph Road.

PIQUED CURIOSITIES will bring Franklin Village Players, out in droves May 26 when the group will hold an "Oscar party" following a 10th anniversary dinner at Northwood Inn.

Appropriate awards for top performances throughout the past decade will be announced with the help of "Oscar," the electronic brain, under the special care and feeding of Harold Rowe.

Retiring president Richard Caskey and board members Mrs. Harlow Bates and Mrs. Calvert Thomas will take bows for the three years they have served officially.

The annual election will call for the selection of four new directors to serve in steering the group through the early stages of its second decade.

Mrs. Harold Geiger is collecting reservations for the dinner party.

This Friday night is bound to be a ditty. The Couples Club will be romping off for a treasure hunt and the Franklin PTA variety show will be having its final performance at the Franklin School.
