

Looking Ahead

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Menzies announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Margot, to Dennis W. Shermeta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter S. Shermeta of Grand Haven, Mich. The bride-elect will be graduated in June from the University of Michigan, where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. The bridegroom-elect is now in medical school at U. of M. affiliated with Nu Sigma Nu. He is also a member of Lambda Chi Alpha. The couple will be married Aug. 2.

Westchester Goes All Out For Third Annual Show

Schedules for a "Spring Concert of Flowers," third annual Westchester Branch flower show, have been printed and are being distributed by chairmen Mrs. Albert G. Peifer and Mrs. Gordon Lovett Spomer. Mrs. Peifer's committee are Mrs. Anthony Keros, staging; Mrs. Jack Burrell, dismantling; Mrs. John Spomer, entries; Mrs. Boris Osojnak, classification; Mrs. Raymond Glauser, passing (horticulture); Mrs. Robert Batchelor, passing (artistic design); Mrs. Melvin Goodell, artistic design chairman; Mrs. Robert Williamson, photography chairman; Mrs. Jack Seelye, inspirational chairman; Mrs. Richard Mangus, conservation and education; Mrs. Richard Kellogg, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Steve Yarga, properties chairman; Mrs. Paul Meyer, judge and clerk chairman; and Mrs. Earle C. Hertz, publicity.

ENTRIES CHAIRMAN Mrs. John Spomer identified his committee with the category for which they will take entries: Artistic design, "Juniter Symphony" and "Stars and Stripes Forever," Mrs. Robert Williamson; "Oriental" and "LaMie," Mrs. Byron Terrie; "Over the Rainbow" and table arrangements "Make Mine Country Style," Mrs. R. W. Jacob; miniatures "You Were Never Lovelier" and "Petite Valse," Mrs. Richard Kellogg.

The junior class, "Heigh-Ho Come to the Fair," will be opened to school children up to and through the 12th grade, however the parent must be a member of the Westchester Branch of the WNFCA. The children will have free reign on their interpretation of this category. Interest shown in this class project will be one of the most popular divisions in the flower show.

This junior class will be arranged for by Mrs. Vincent Kapur.

NOTING THE NAME of the invitational class, "Fantasy Impromptu" the mind can do whirlwind with no holds barred. Special invitations have been issued to the following arrangers: Mrs.

J. C. Calhoun, Berkshire Branch; Mrs. Earl E. Weston, Wing Lake Shores Branch; Mrs. Fred Trickett, Osage Branch; Mrs. L. E. Carter, Stiller Lake Shores; Mrs. Arthur Stiller, Holly Branch.

The "shortlisted" division will be opened for any student judge to enter so as to win ribbons to become graduate judges. Mrs. Raymond Glauser, 618 Westbourne Drive will take registration after 6 p.m. any evening.

Boy Scout Troop No. 1015 will be in charge of the conservation display, with Mrs. Robert Batchelor conservation chairman. Also, the Westchester 4-H Club will assist in the preparation and dismantling of the show.

BECAUSE OF beautiful landscaping around Westchester School done by Anthony N. Tassick from the Parkview Nursery, he has been asked to do the educational display which will be located outdoors.

"Spring Concert of Flowers" will be held in the new Westchester Elementary School, West Maple, May 25, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

deuts from various parts of Michigan.

While in the southwest the Youngs were able to visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cobb, and their children because Cobb had recently been transferred to Scottsdale.

FRANKLIN WOODS

A long weekend was spent in Louisville, Ky., by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bequette of Pickering Road. Their trip there was primarily made to see the derby run. While in Louisville, they visited with Mrs. Bequette's brother, Paul McConnell.

WESTCHESTER

The Greater Westchester Village Association is sponsoring a "clean-up, fix-up, paint-up day" to be held Saturday. Chairman John Spomer is asking the cooperation of all property owners in the area to make a special effort on that day to spruce up their property.

Saturday is the big day at Brother Rice High School, the day of their county fair. There will be an artist's market, country store, games, white elephant and bake sales, electronic golf and other games. There will also be a display of the thespian arts of the school in the form of a talent show.

Chairman of the project is Mrs. Gerry Sullivan. Her assistant is Mrs. Betty Robinson. Mrs. William Saffio is another of the many women in the area who are giving their time and efforts to make this a gala affair.

THE COUPLES' bowling club of Westchester held a buffet supper and awarded trophies to the members after their bowling date Saturday at the Birmingham Bowl. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Philip of Hillboro were chairman of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Derton Hassel of Pebble Lane will be leaving on May 29 to head for Indianapolis where they will witness the auto races on Memorial Day. Hassel was at one time a driver of race cars. After the races they will head for the west coast.

After spending time in San Francisco, Calif., they will drive down the coast to Los Angeles where they will be met by daughter, Nancy, who will be flying out to join them when school vacation begins. They will then go down to Mexico and after seeing the sights there will head for home.

FIRST ROUND of the Westchester Women's Golf Club will be on Friday. The ladies will play at North Hills. Co-chairmen of the group will be Mr. Franklin and Mary Lou Lovland, both of Westbourne.

The Westchester Women's Club will be having a general meeting and nomination of officers for the coming year when they gather together on Tuesday at the home of Ruth Pulkerson, 3100 Middlebury, who is chairman of the nominating committee.

Assisting her are Jane Wait, Dorothy Williamson, Mrs. Loveland and Gladys Coney. Depending on the weather, the meeting will be held as a lawn party. Co-hostesses for the day will be Lois Perry, Firth Goodell and Mrs. Pulkerson.

Alpha Xi Delta

Mrs. Owen Davis, 1260 Nakomis, Lake Orion, will open her home Monday, May 20, at 8 p.m. for the Alpha Xi Delta alumnae of Birmingham. The program for the monthly dessert meeting will be the installation of officers. Mrs. Victor Pagano will act as hostess for the evening.

Little Garden Club Plans Guest Day

Members of the Birmingham Little Garden Club will meet Monday, May 20, in the home of Mrs. Felix Bruner of Epping Lane, Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. Robert Flint and Mrs. C. E. Dalton will be assistant hostesses. Guests have been invited to attend this particular meeting, at which A. H. Goldner of Golden-Walsh Landscape Designers will be the speaker.
