BLOOMFIELD WEST

Dance Climaxes Season of Bowling

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Members of the Christ Child Society bowling league and their husbands are meeting for cocktails at the Frank Gagners on Kingsmill Drive, Kirkwood, Saturday before going on to the group's annual dinner dance at the Birmingham Athletic Club.

The event is the wind-up of the bowling season during which the women met every Tuesday afternoon at Bloomfield Lanes.

KIRKWOOD
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bewick of Kingsmill Drive are giving a buffet supper Friday to be followed by an evening of duplicate bridge. Their guests will include the Hal Tomers, Stan Anslays, George Reasors, Paul Walters, Frank Gagners, Robert Bahlers and John Bolaks.

Saturday was a red-letter day for Brownie Thompson when 16 Brownies and their proud mothers and grandmothers gathered at Kingsley Inn for a mother and daughter luncheon.

Co-chairmen of the event were Mrs. George Reasor and Mrs. Robert Clifford. Mrs. Roger Zatkoff and Mrs. Jack Keller are co-leaders of the troop.

MR. AND MRS. Paul McGrath of Quarton Road had 10 guests for dinner and bridge Saturday night.

Back from a 10-day vacation in Virginia are Mr. and Mrs. Alex Riker of Raven Road. They stayed at Tidlet Inn in Lexington and also visited friends in Alexandria.

Airman 1st class William R. Nolf is home from two years' military service at Kendry Air Force Base in Bermuda. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Nolf of Quarton Road.

PINE LAKE
A plant auction will be the highlight of the meeting this afternoon of the Pine Lake Lake branch WNFCA.

The club is gathering at the home of Mrs. William Graff on Middlebelt Road. Annual reports will be submitted.

WALNUT LAKE
Following dessert and coffee at the home of Mrs. Henry Sabin of Comfort Drive on May 6, members of the Walnut Lake branch WNFCA heard an interesting talk by Harry Whiting of the Northland garden center. His topic was "The Philosophy and Religion of Japanese Landscaping."

New officers for the year were also installed. President is Mrs. Henry Hall; vice president, Mrs. Leo B. Miller; recording secretary, Mrs. Richard Ford; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Schradler; and treasurer, Mrs. Paul Colbrooke.

PINE LAKE ESTATES
Mrs. James Hunter of the Birmingham branch WNFCA was guest speaker at the meeting of the Pine Lake Estates branch of the association held on May 9 at the home of Mrs. George Bennett on Fernness Lane.

Mrs. Hunter's subject was "Growing Biennials and Perennials from Seed."

Plans were also discussed for the couple's luncheon scheduled for June 15.

BROOKFIELD HIGHLANDS
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pierson of Middleton Drive were one of eight couples who journeyed "south of the border" to Windsor

Garden Club Plans Election Of Officers

The Westchester branch of WNFCA will hold its annual meeting and election of officers on May 27 at the home of Mrs. M. B. Ricketts of 3117 Pebble Lane. Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Chandler Simons, Mrs. Frank Dzuganski and Mrs. John Singok. A "patriotic" theme will be used for decorations and the table arrangement will be created by Mrs. Ricketts.

Prior to the meeting, Mrs. Boris Osojnak, president of the branch, and Osojnak, along with Dr. and Mrs. C. Howard Ross, will be dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kaptur of Summervale Lane. Dr. Ross, who will be the guest speaker at the meeting, is a member of the University of Michigan medical staff. His topic for the evening will be "Symphony of Landscapes" and will be accompanied by slides.

ANNUAL REPORTS from the various chapters will be given. The slate of officers being presented for the 1963-64 year are Mrs. Vernon Fitch, president; Mrs. R. A. Glauser, first vice-president; Mrs. Harold Torres, second vice-president; Mrs. Reginald Jacob, recording secretary; Mrs. Herbert Jones, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Stephen Varza, treasurer.

To familiarize the group with miniatures for the branch's third annual flower show, Mrs. Osojnak and Mrs. Earle C. Heft will demonstrate miniatures.

To Speak Vows

Dr. and Mrs. C. Paul Hodgkinson of Lathrup Village announce the engagement of their daughter, Grace Ann, to Richard Massey Bramblett, son of Miss Massey Bramblett and Richard L. Bramblett, both of Atlanta, Ga. The bride-elect is a graduate of The College of Wooster, in Wooster, O. and is presently completing work on a master's degree in zoology at the University of Michigan. She is a member of Phi Sigma, honorary society. He fiance is a graduate industrial engineer from Georgia Institute of Technology, where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity. Presently he is a lieutenant in the U.S. Army Reserve stationed at Fort McClellan, Ala. The couple will be married July 20.

Engagement

MR. AND MRS. George LaBranch of Walnut Lake Road are delighted with the advent of their first granddaughter, Cherie Ann, who was born May 3. She is the child of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Moss of Pontiac.

NEW ENGLAND ESTATES
Another pair of happy grandparents are the Robert Blackburs of Blackburn Drive who became grandparents for the second time when Wendy Lynn Brooks arrived April 20.

Wendy has a sister, Kimberly Sue, who is one year old. Both little girls are the children of the Blackburns' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Brooks of Pontiac.

WEST BLOOMFIELD
Still another arrival is Veva Ann Ambrose who was born April 24. She makes number 6 for the Casey K. Ambroses of Inkster Road and her brothers and sisters are Casey Joe, 6, Mark, 5, Chris, 4, Ellen, 3, and Laura, 1.
