

So many people rush through each day's hours, bent only on doing those things that promise the most for each individual. Isn't this a good example of selfishness? Isn't it some proof of what's wrong in human relationships? For, unless one makes it a pattern of living to do some things for others—be it words or deeds—one not only shames others of frailties, but also shrivels himself.

'Touch of Glamor' Theme of Meeting

Members, past presidents and guests attending the annual luncheon of the Birmingham Branch, WNFCA, enjoyed hearing Mrs. Bert H. Wicking of Grosse Pointe Park present "A Touch of Glamour", Monday at the Birmingham Community House.

The speaker is an accredited federated, and Parra and Garden judge. She not only teaches the art of flower arranging but also the art of decoupage. Next year, Mrs. Wicking will be general chairman of the Flower Show at Cobo Hall and she will work with a group to refurbish the Henry Ford Mansion at Dearborn.

CHAIRMAN FOR the day was program chairman Mrs. Charles H. Davison. Mrs. P. N. Askounes, luncheon chairman, did the arrangement for the speaker's table and Mrs. Claude A. Welles, Jr., Mrs. William Scherer, Mrs. S. J. Skakis and Mrs. Jack Warren decorated the other tables with clusters of enchantress potted geraniums, which were sold after the meeting.

Mrs. Ralph Scheel, 847 Waddington Road, Birmingham, ticket chairman, took reservations for the luncheon. On her committee were Mrs. H. S. McFarland, Mrs. R. A. Taggart, Mrs. E. Robert Leeder and Mrs. Stuart Gastren.

Cranbrook Marks Founding

This Sunday, May 19, marks the 50th anniversary of the founding of Cranbrook by Mr. and Mrs. George G. Booth.

It was back in 1917 that Mr. and Mrs. Booth inaugurated the custom—which has continued since—of setting aside a Sunday in May to honor the graduates of Cranbrook's four schools.

Abiding by custom the day will begin with a service of rededication at 11:35 a.m. in Christ Church Cranbrook, opening with a procession of directors, vestrymen, members of the advisory board and institutional heads, who march behind flags of the six institutions. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Robert P. Patterson, associate rector of Christ Church.

MR. AND MRS. Harold A. Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Booth will host the reception from 3 to 6 p.m. in Cranbrook House. Mr. Fitzgerald is vice chairman of The Cranbrook Foundation and Mr. Warren Booth, one of the sons of the founders, is treasurer of the Foundation.

Among the tea table hostesses is Mrs. Henry M. Hogan Jr. Others are: Mrs. T. H. Michael Nesbitt (wife of the assistant minister at Christ Church); Mrs. Norman B. Weston (wife of a Brookside School Cranbrook director); Mrs. Edward H. Lerchen (wife of a Cranbrook Foundation trustee); Mrs. Robert H. Flint (wife of a Kingswood School Cranbrook director); Mrs. Warren L. Wittry (wife of the assistant director of Cranbrook Institute of Science).

Mrs. John W. Blanchard (wife of the chairman of the board of trustees of Cranbrook Academy of Art); Mrs. Robert E. Kenny (wife of a Cranbrook School faculty member); Mrs. Ronald M. Kasperzak (a Brookside School Cranbrook director); Miss Nancy Kusrow (a Kingswood School Cranbrook faculty member); Mrs. George Russell (a trustee of Cranbrook Academy of Art) and Mrs. William Schultz Jr. (wife of a Cranbrook School faculty member).

It wasn't exactly a scoop that another fashion show and luncheon went on one day a week ago, but it WAS news that such activity was taking place at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

It's been a long time, according to our reasonably trained memory, since a party of this type has been given at the club; but with the recent appointment by Gene Rollins (club manager) of a Women's Social Committee, things are beginning to hum.

AND HUMMING they certainly were on this particular occasion, the club lounge and dining room jam packed with well-known Birmingham-Bloomfield faces—so many that Photographer Bill Thom was hard put to relinquish his camera long enough to enjoy lunch.

The fashion show was by Gami, club members doing the modeling.

MRS. ERNST KERN

Rotary Anns

Mrs. Stella Edgar, a volunteer under the supervision of the Michigan Eye Bank of Ann Arbor, will speak on "The Gift of Sight" when the Birmingham Rotary Ann meet for 1 o'clock luncheon on Monday, May 20, at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Lake, 553 Linden.

On the luncheon committee are Mrs. Edwin Kirtlet, Mrs. F. Earle Steele, Mrs. R. C. Nordstrom and Mrs. Leon Townsend.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Spanier of 323 S. Cranbrook Cross who moved into their new home in April from Birmingham. They have one son, Harris, who is a senior at Seaholm High School. Spanier is operations manager with Credited Services and is president of the Oakland chapter of the American Association for United Nations. Mrs. Spanier is an active member of the League of Women Voters. Both the Spaniers are interested in gardening.

They'll Sing for a Purpose

Paul Hostetter (from left), Delores Magyari and Wally Kanak won't be singing for their supper next Thursday evening. Rather, it'll be scholarships to interlegen they'll be caroling for. The three are among members of the Senior Choir at Groves High School which will give its annual concert, May 27. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from any choir member.
