

Light Talk on Men, Women To Be Presented by Author

A light and merry treatment with but a thread of serious intent will be Ardis Whitman's theme as she discusses "Men, Women and the Consequences" at 8 p. m. tonight at Community Congregational Church of Lathrup Village.

She will delve into the topic of why men and women have really never managed to get along together, what gets them into trouble, the basic differences in the way they look at things, and 10 things men, which women wouldn't do—and vice versa.

Miss Whitman also will be the guest speaker at 8:45 p. m. tomorrow at a joint dinner meeting of Community and North churches at North Congregational Church at Southfield.

Unforgettable Woman" in the May "Reader's Digest." "Children of Interfaith Marriage" in June "Redbook" and "Are You an Honorary Thinker?" in last March's "Woman's Day."

THE JHERS (7th and 8th graders) of the church will have their final meeting Saturday in the form of a swim at Southfield High School followed by a picnic at the home of Fay E. Gifford, 18515 San Jose, Lathrup Village.

The TIPS (senior high) will have their final meeting Sunday, a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bockenuehl, 4800 N. Harward, Bloomfield Hills.

Young people's activities also include a session of the Youth Confirmation Class from 7 to 8:30 p. m. Monday. Graduation exercises will take place.

The Board of Deacons and Deaconesses will present church membership certificates, and a copy of the class picture will be given to each member.

The Men's Fellowship will give its monthly meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the church.

The Rev. Robert D. Dewey will be guest at this reunion.

Annual Meeting Is Set By Congregationalists

Annual meeting of The Congregational Church of Birmingham will be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday at the church.

The schedule will include election of officers and annual reports of all boards and committee activities during the last year. Important issues will be voted upon.

In addition to regular business, the meeting will offer a report by the congregation by the Design Information Committee on the status of plans of the Building Commission.

THE BOARD of Deacons and Deaconesses will head a reception for the Confirmation Class and their parents at 4 p. m. Sunday.

Members of the class will be presented to the Deacons and Deaconesses for their approval and welcome. The class will be received into church membership Sunday, June 2, at the 11 a. m. service.

The Men's Fellowship will give its monthly meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the church.

guest speaker. His topic is "Laymen's Rights." Rev. Dewey is in town May 26-31 to attend the Institute of Advanced Pastoral Studies, Cranbrook.

Also on the program will be the novel "Michigan's Water Wonder."

2 Organists Will Play in Joint Recital

Two graduating seniors in the high school class and members of First Presbyterian Church will present a joint organ recital at Birmingham's First Presbyterian Church at 4 p. m. Sunday.

Marilyn Mitchell, daughter of the John A. Mitchell's Longmeadow Drive, and James Hohmeyer, son of the William Hohmeyer's of Hillcrest Blvd., will be sponsored by the Music Department of the church in this recital.

Both young organists have been active in the music program of the church and have played a number of services.

THEY ARE very active in musical activities in the Birmingham and Detroit area. Miss Mitchell is going to Europe this summer as a member of the 75-vocalist choir.

Chorale sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches. Hohmeyer will be spending summer as a member at the National Music Camp at Interlochen.

She will play a program including works of Bach, Franck, Purvitz, Beethoven and Beethoven. He will play works of Bach, Franck, Clementi, Dupre and Bonnet. They are both organ students of L. Robert Slusser, M. Mus., AAGIO, minister of music of the church.

A reception for those who will greet the performers will follow the program in the church school.

Pilgrim Sets Sermon about Memorial Day

Memorial Day will be the theme of the sermon at Pilgrim Congregational Church at 11 a. m. Sunday at the home of Howard E. Bull.

New committee chairmen have been elected for the coming church year and include Keith R. Petherick as chairman of the Board of Trustees and Mr. Howard C. Tuttle chairing the Board of Deacons.

JAMES K. FLACK, Jr., will lead the Christian Education Committee, while Mrs. Marjrin L. Kornhauser will be chairman of the Christian Service (Missionary) Committee.

Other officers of the church are: Mrs. Howard W. Haines, moderator; Frank Hillman, treasurer; Marvin Kornhauser, assistant treasurer; and Mrs. Joan W. Kinsey, church clerk.

Preacher and Soloist Slated To Be Guests

Dr. Harry Denman of Nashville, Tenn., known as "Mr. Methodist," will be guest preacher at First Methodist Church, Birmingham, Sunday morning.

Guest soloist and song leader for all services will be Homer Zaner of Ottawa, Ont., Canada, interpreter of gospel songs.

Dr. Denman will also preach Sunday and Monday evenings, with a final appearance at the Methodist Men's Ladies' Night on Tuesday.

HE IS EXECUTIVE secretary of the General Board of Evangelism of the Methodist Church. Dr. Denman has just returned from a mission to the Philippines and in the last year has conducted missions in Africa and Korea.

His visit to Birmingham comes at anniversary time of the Alabama experience of Methodistism founder John Wesley.

A breakfast for members of the Commission on Membership and Evangelism and Visitors will be held at 7 a. m. Monday, and breakfast for young people at 7 a. m. Tuesday.

Confirmation is one of the great festive services in the Episcopal Church and of significant meaning.

Bishop Emrich came to the Diocese of Michigan in 1946 as suffragan bishop and in 1948 became the diocesan bishop. During these years he has not only been the spiritual head of the diocese but has served also on various national, state and city boards and committees both for the church and the community.

HE IS THE AUTHOR of numerous articles and pamphlets. One of his most important writing duties is a Sunday newspaper column.

Born in Mardin, Turkey, of missionary parents, he attended Phillips Andover Academy, Brown University, the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Mass., and Union Theological Seminary in New York City. Later he attended the University of Marburg, Germany, receiving the degree of doctor of philosophy.

The interests of childhood and youth are the interests of mankind.

To Ordain Resident As Catholic Priest

The Rev. Thomas R. Grady, a member of Holy Name Parish, Birmingham, will be ordained to the Catholic priesthood by the Most Rev. John P. Dearson, archbishop of Detroit, at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral on June 1.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Grady, 875 Lakewood, Birmingham, active members of their parish since 1926. He has two sisters, Rosemary, and Mrs. William Maher, 1650 Fairfax, Birmingham.

AN FR. GRADY, he will offer his first Solemn High Mass in Holy Name Church at 10 a. m., June 2. Assistant priests will be his pastor, Msgr. Eugene Padlock; Canon, Fr. Robert Bugogoches; and subdeacon, Frank A. Grady, S. J., the newly ordained priest's older brother.

Fr. Jacob A. Hebert, pastor of Queen of Martyrs Parish, Birmingham, will deliver the sermon at the Mass.

There will be Solemn Benediction in the church at 4 p. m. and a reception (and Fr. Grady's first priestly blessing in the Holy Name Church auditorium from 4:30 to 7:30 p. m.). Parishioners and friends of the newly ordained, or his family, are invited.

REV. THOMAS R. GRADY signed from the Navy to enter Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit, in the fall of 1942. He has been studying theology and receiving priestly formation under the direction of priests at St. John's Provincial Seminary in Plymouth.
