Area Resident Hostess to Old Friend

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Mrs. Richard Raymann of Lasher Road and her guest and old friend, Sr. Martin Jerome of Japan, put in a full and happy day together last week. Sr. Jerome has been in Japan for the past 10 years and will return for another visit in the United States.

Mrs. Raymann met Sr. Jerome at the Shrine of the Little Flower in the morning and their first stop was at St. Regis School. At the school Sr. Jerome talked to the children who were the "pen-pals" of some of her students in Japan. She delighted the children with Japanese songs, tunes on her harmonica (she also plays the ukulele and accordion) and also taught them how to write and speak a few words in Japanese.

THE LADIES stopped at Marian High School for a visit with the older students and then dined at the Raymann home. Following dinner, ladies from Holy Name arrived at the Raymann home to attend an informal talk by Sr. Jerome.

Couple Takes Trip South After Rites

MRS. W. W. CREEK

St. Hugo of the Hills was the setting for the Saturday marriage of Alexandra Jean Suroka, daughter of John C. Suroka, of Birmingham and Wallace W. Creek, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Creek of Kankakee, Ill.

The bride chose a Cahill gown in belted skirt of silk peau de soie with a Sabrina neckline of re-embroidered Alencon lace. A matching crown of Alencon lace, crystal, and pearls held her bouffant veil of imported French tulle. She carried a cascade of Amazon lilies and stephanotis.

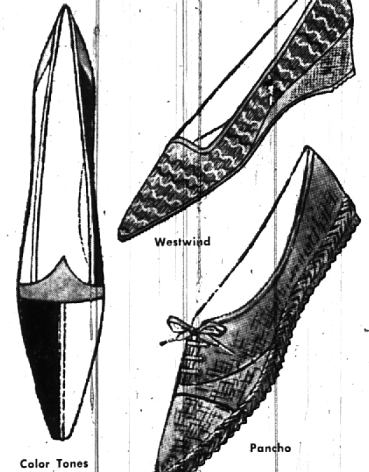

ATTENDING the bride was Karen Smith as maid of honor in a floor-length bell skirt of silk organza over taffeta in mint green with matching head piece. In identical frocks were Toni Solaro, in pink, and Charlene Schmitter in mauve. They carried cascades of white daisy-type mums with the center of their bouquets matching their dresses.

Robert Creek was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were John C. Suroka and Robert Dunn.
