PTO Sponsors Western Barbecue

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1882

The annual western chicken barbecue will be taking place again on the grounds of the East-over school on June 8.

Sponsored by the PTO, the family fun day will begin at 1:30 p.m. with games and movies for the children. From 5 to 7, a crew of chefs from the men's club of the Big Beaver Methodist Church will serve grilled chicken dinners under a large orange tent. Guests may eat picnic style on the lawn or have an indoor picnic at tables in the gym.

Chairmen of the event are Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Oviatt. Committee members include James F. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armani; serving food, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knickerbocker; ordering food, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montgomery; properties, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sprague; prizes, Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis; tickets, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McConnell; and publicity, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith.

EASTOVER summer day camp will begin on June 24 for all children from kindergarten through sixth grades in the North Adams area. There will be a junior program for present kindergarten, first and second grade children. A senior program for children now in third through sixth grades is being offered.

The day camp will be offered in two sessions for both age groups: the first session, June 24 through July 16 and the second session, July 16-August 2. Children may attend either for both sessions.

Hours for junior children are from 9:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. Senior children attend from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The program will include camping, hikes, cookouts and nature study. There will also be leisure activities and a number of sports including swimming two hours weekly under the supervision of qualified instructors. Trips to nearby places of interest and crafts will round out the program. For additional information, parents may either call the school or the Bloomfield Hills Board of Education.

IT HAS BEEN a busy spring for the William Carys of 22 Square Lake Road. In April, they and Robert Covert and daughters Mary and Kitty of Hickory Heights, traveled to the Upper Peninsula for steelhead fishing and camping. This was a trial camping-run for the Coverts who plan to see the west this summer.

Cary and Covert have just returned from trout fishing on the Ausable while Mrs. Cary traveled to Milwaukee for the Labrador field trials. On Sunday, they joined the Conrad Cliffords of N. Evansdale and other Birmingham-Bloomfield couples, all members of the Wolverine Retriever Club, at Highland Recreation for the American Kennel Club license trials with their Labradors.

Mrs. Cary also managed to sandwich in a Florida trip to visit her mother, Mrs. W. C. Pelman in Miami, for two weeks.

Betrothal

Marilyn J. Kuperus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Kuperus of Flint, is engaged to William B. Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dolos Gilbert of Amherst Ave., Birmingham. The bride-elect will be graduated in June from Michigan State University in the College of Communication Arts and is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. Her fiancé has been graduated from Michigan State School of Accounting and was a member of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity. The couple will be married July 13 in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Flint.

To Be Wed

Mrs. and Mrs. Kenneth Blackburn of Mt. Vernon, Ind., announce the engagement of their daughter, Bonnie, to William H. Koehler, son of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Koehler of Far Hill Drive, Birmingham. Both Miss Blackburn and her fiancé are students at Purdue University, where she is a member of Chi Omega and the sorority's secretary. She is also a member of Gold Peppers, an activities honorary. The bridegroom-elect is a junior cadet first lieutenant in the advanced Air Force ROTC and is affiliated with Delta Chi Fraternity. An Aug. 10 wedding is planned.

Parents chosen were Mr. and Mrs. William Brumbaugh, relatives from St. Louis, and Mrs. George Miller of Far Hill Drive.

It was also a birthday celebration for Mrs. Fisher's mother, Mrs. E. F. Brumbaugh of Birmingham.

Teenagers Hold Forth At Groves

A panel of 10 Wylie Groves high school students presented the teenagers' view point and answered questions from the floor May 16 at the PTA meeting in the Little Theatre at Groves.

Subject discussions included questions uppermost in parents' minds, such as social conduct, parties, smoking and drinking. Also discussed were what planned activities should be provided for recreation in addition to those now available.

Don Grothe, counselor at Seaborn High School and advisor to the Parenteen Committee, served as moderator.

PRESIDENT CAMERON Shafer, retiring after serving two years, presided at the meeting. Gene Logge, past-president of the Birmingham PTA Council, installed the following 1968-69 officers: Harry Kirk, president; W. Mitchell Middleton, father vice-president; Mrs. C. F. Daubell, mother vice-president; Mrs. Joan Kennedy and Richard Schareburg, teacher representatives; Mrs. Robert Winkle, recording secretary; Mrs. Douglas

Coming Home

Mr. and Mrs. James McPhail of Birmingham will leave May 20 to pick up their daughter Sue at Pinebrook for Girls, Leelanau, Sue, who was recently elected to Congress, the school's student council, will spend part of the summer at home and a month at Camp Arbuthnot.

Wood, corresponding secretary and Vernon Nickel, treasurer.

Student panelists for this last PTA meeting of the year included Ted Willard, Tim Knoll, Karen Kalayjian, John Harid, Jan Floyd, Dave Master, Dick McIntyre and Connie Lee.
