

College News

SENIORS HONORED

Two Alton College seniors from the local area have received honors recently. Terry Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Corwin C. Clark of Bungalow, Lathrup, has been voted class president for the 1962-63 year. Bill Goudie, editor of the campus newspaper, the "Picard," was cited for honorable mention for an editorial in the 1962-63 newspaper contest of the Michigan Collegiate Press Association. He also received honorable mention for a picture story done in conjunction with another student. He is the son of Mrs. Frances Goudie of Birmingham.

COLLEGE BOUND

Three Birmingham girls will enter William Woods College, Fulton, Mo., in the fall. They are Carol Haneline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Drew C. Haneline of Broadway Blvd.; Leslie Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Hawkins of White Oaks Trail; and Katherine Torrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. William Torrence of Lake Park. Miss Haneline is a senior at Bloomfield Country Day School. Miss Hawkins is in her senior year at Wayles E. Grove High School and Miss Torrence at Seaholm High School.

MORTAR BOARD MEMBER

Freddie Harris, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Granville, O., has been tapped for membership in Mortar Board, senior women's leadership honorary. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert G. Harris of West 14 Mile Road, Beverly Hills.

PUBLISHER

Judith Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Gilbert Clark of Safford, Birmingham, will have charge of literary publicity for the Smith College year book next year. She is a member of the club. The college is located at Northampton, Mass.

CHAIRMAN

Chris Hewlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hewlett of Twigg Oaks Lane, Birmingham, has been appointed chairman of the Pines (the campus social houses) at Randolph - Macdonald Women's College for 1962-63. Chris is a junior at the college at Lynchburg, Va.

ART STUDENT

Julia Snelham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Snelham of Lake Park, Birmingham, is among 75 art students whose work was selected for the May exhibition at the Watson Gallery, Elmira College, N. Y. She is a sophomore at the college. The exhibit will include 400 pieces of art work.

SECRETARY-TO-BE

Nancy Jane Walls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Walls of Hupp Cross, Birmingham, has been elected secretary of the Private Secretarial School for Girls in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. She will begin her training Sept. 2.

TREASURER

Sue Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil E. Johnson of Harrow Circle, Birmingham, has been elected treasurer of the nursing council at the University of Michigan, where she is a junior in the college of nursing. Sue is a 1960 Seaholm graduate, is a member of the Collegiate Sorosis Sorority on the Michigan campus.

SINGER

Henry Schlachter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schlachter of N. Springfield Road, Bloomfield Township, participated in a spring concert at St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind., on Monday. The concert was given by the "Ave Maria Chorus," composed of the combined glee clubs of the college and University of Notre Dame freshmen. Schlachter is a student at the university.

MOTHER'S AWARD

Following the annual Mother's Day parade May 12 by the corps of cadets of the New York Military Academy, Mrs. Rudrick Otto of Redding Ave., Birmingham, was named honor mother of Company "E" which her son, Cadet Captain Walter E. Otto, commands.

WINS DEGREE

John O. Bauck of Riverchase, Birmingham, has received a master's degree in business administration at the University of Pennsylvania. The commencement was held Monday.

CAMPUS BOUND

Meta Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reynolds of Aspen Avenue, Birmingham, has been accepted as a member of the 1963 entering class of Keuka College, Keuka Park, N. Y. Miss Reynolds is currently studying at Monmouth College in Illinois. At Keuka, she is anticipating working toward a bachelor of science degree with a major in elementary education.

USHERETTE

Carol Yamasaki, Carlton College student, from Bloomfield Hills, has been elected as one of 20 sopomores to serve as ushers and usherettes for the annual junior-senior prom on Saturday. Each year, sopomores are elected by their class to the honorary posts of ushers for the formal dinner-dance. Miss Yamasaki is the daughter of Mrs. Teruko H. Yamasaki of W. Hickory Grove, Bloomfield Hills, and of Minoru Yamasaki of Troy. The college is located at Northfield, Minn.

INITIATES

Five Birmingham men are among the charter members who were initiated in the Iota Psi chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha at Ferris Institute Saturday. The initiates are Dale Ashcraft, Russ Jabert, Ron Fix, Chuck Sarlund and Marc Oberschulte.

GOING ABROAD

Karen Domes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Domes of Kirkshire, Beverly Hills, will fly to Europe on June 11 for 45 days in 10 different countries. Twenty-eight students from Central Michigan University are making the trip as a comparative education travel study course conducted by Dr. Leslie O. Carlin. Miss Domes is a Birmingham High School graduate and sophomore biology major recently initiated into Beta Beta Beta, biology honorary.

HEADS COMMITTEE

Dona Lee Scott, a Seaholm graduate of June, 1962, now attending Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., has been elected chairman of the standards committee for the fall and winter term of 1962-63. This committee functions in the area of ethics, rules, regulations and disciplines of the student body. Dona is the daughter of Mrs. Rosalene Scott of Forest Lane, Birmingham.

TO BE COMMISSIONED

Cadet Edward M. Lee Jr., son of Lt. Col. (USA, ret.) and Mrs. Edward M. Lee of Tuckahoe Road, Birmingham, is scheduled to be graduated from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., June 6. Cadet Lee will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the corps of engineers and will receive a bachelor of science degree. He was a member of the varsity soccer team, on the class committee in the English literature seminar, the German language club and ski club. He was a cadet battalion commander during his senior year.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

Andrew J. Snively, Jr. of Kirkway Drive, Bloomfield Hills, a junior at the University of Michigan college of engineering, was for the second time accorded special recognition at the recent annual honors convocation. He was one of the 64 undergraduates to be named James B. Angell scholars, denoting an all-A scholastic record. During the past year Snively has been elected to Tau Beta Pi, and for the past two years has held the office of treasurer of ULLR, the university ski club.

BEST ACTRESS

Cheryl Hindle of Bloomfield Hills, a freshman at Adrian College, was presented the Theta Alpha Phi (national honorary dramatic society) award for best actress in a play. The presentation was made public at the college's annual senior investiture and awards assembly. Cheryl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Hindle of Colonial Way. She is majoring in speech and physical education and starred in "The Diary of Anne Frank."

ROBERT SNEED

A Birmingham student has been named to an Ohio State University men's service organization. Robert Sneed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sneed of Madison Avenue has been named a member of Ohio Staters, Inc. Membership in the organization is limited to 45 selected students and faculty members interested in devoting extra time and energy to the benefit of the university community. Sneed is a sophomore in the college of engineering.

SCHOLAR

William J. Massey of Birmingham was among the 299 Michigan Tech students honored for scholastic achievement Monday morning at Tech's 11th annual honors convocation. Massey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Massey of Chesterfield, was honored as a new member of Sigma Gamma Epsilon honorary society for students majoring in one of the earth sciences and received the Kemnecott Copper Corp. scholarship.

HEADED FOR OKLAHOMA

Julia C. Walter of Red Maple Lane, Birmingham, has been accepted for enrollment for the 1963-64 school year by Oklahoma College for Women, Chickasha, Okla., pending successful completion of her spring semester college courses. Miss Walter will be a senior.

(More College News in Section C)

Mrs. Garvin Bowden, Jr. of Birmingham photographed at Christ Church Cranbrook in a paisley-patterned pure silk Italian knit fashionist for

Davidson's

• OF BIRMINGHAM

F. J. Mulholland Co.
has the brand you know—
Brookfield
ADVERTISED IN THE PLAYBOY
LOOK SPORTS
POUNCE

DACRON/COTTON TROPICAL $22.98
SPORT COATS

Cool is only half of it, when you wear this sport coat. The better half is the way it looks all summer long, from the first crack of a bat to the final forward pass. Come in, see the new colors and patterns. And see how much more you get for your money, from your friendly store and Brookfield, the world's largest maker of popular-price clothes.

We Deliver
Charge Accounts Invited

Attend The Fashion Show
Shain's Park
2 P.M. Saturday, May 23

F. J. Mulholland Co.
Men's and Boy's Store
BIRMINGHAM
Open Thursday & Friday Evenings
233 North Woodward MU 4-9111

1963...the great light year

The amazing speed of light has never been better demonstrated than in this Summer's menswear. Rustling through: lighter, brighter suitings in all of the season's best worsteds and blends.

SUITS $75.00
From

Short Sleeve Dress Shirts From $3.95
Pure Silk Neckwear From $2.50

Higgins and Frank of Birmingham, Michigan
268 W. Maple Rd
Visit Our Boys' Department, Lower Level
Open Friday Evenings Park Free In Rear Of Store

BIRMINGHAM FOUNTAIN OF FASHION