'Firsts' Make Life Lively for Peggy

By MARTY CAHN
MI 6-2850

"Firsts" for pretty Peggy (Mrs. John W. Appleford) are occurring frequently these days. Her husband's first position (associated with Joslyn, Joslyn and Dean), since recent graduation from Law School at the University of Michigan, brought the couple back to Birmingham where they had both grown up.

Two months ago Peggy, John and their two baby daughters moved into their first house, one of the oldest in Birmingham, located at Hurstfield and Townsend. But the rented old house is "simply dreamy" to the young family, for prior to this home they had been campus apartment dwellers during their four years of married life in Dartmouth and three years in Ann Arbor.

ON WEDNESDAY, May 15, Peggy was teacher for the first time, at Oakland Hills Country Club, where her parents, Mr. and

Early Deadlines For Next Issue

The Eccentric will publish on Wednesday, May 20, instead of Thursday, May 19, in order that our employees may observe the Memorial Day holiday.

All deadlines make up one day. Advertisers and news contributors are requested to bring their copy to our offices at 1225 E. Bowers, Birmingham, as early as possible.

Mrs. Fred B. Sheldon, Jr. and John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Appleford, have been members for many years. Husband John has held a junior membership for three years, urged by Peggy, however, who has always been a guest.

The club party Wednesday was at New Orleans branch and fashion show. Mrs. Sheldon was a model and giving her moral support was daughter Peggy and guests including sister Pat (Mrs. Louis A. Berrie), sister-in-law Molly (Mrs. Robert W. Appleford), Jill (Mrs. Wayne D.) Goggin, Sharon (Mrs. Richard) Phillips, Norma (Mrs. Larry) Mitchell, Honnie (Mrs. Richard) McClear and Grace (Mrs. James) Henry.

MR. AND MRS. Jesse P. Judd of Glangarry Road toured Spain, revisited their favorite European cities and had the good fortune of joining Birmingham friends during their recent vacation abroad.

Following a five-day stay at the Ritz Hotel, Lisbon, Portugal, they flew to Madrid and were greeted at the airport by Senor Eduardo Costano (who has many friends in the Detroit area), and son Eduardo.

Madrid city officials (Friends of Costano's) committed the privilege to accord red-carpet treatment to the Palace Hotel, where the Judds stayed a week. During that time they were honored at three parties in the Madrid home of Senor and Senora Costano, last of which was a champagne farewell celebration.

A week's tour (via chauffeur-driven car) of southern Spain took them to Cordoba, Seville, (See "FIRSTS" 3-C)

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN SECTION CC

You wonder why some people welcome the drift of the United States into the environment of the Welfare-Socialistic State? You wouldn't, if you stopped to recall that it is the hope of millions that "Mother Government" look after them, thus freeing them from responsibility for their momentary security. The historical fact that Welfare-Socialism always has eventuated in a nation's insolvency doesn't bother them.
