Recreation Round-Up

CARP CARNIVAL
 All children wishing to participate in the Recreation Board's annual Carp Carnival should report to Quorum Lake, east bank, at 9:45 a.m. Saturday morning. Ball will be furnished, but each child must bring his own fishing pole. This event is held as part of the Michigan Week Youth Day program. Award ribbons will be presented to children catching the largest fish, the greatest number of fish and those using the most unique fishing equipment. The contest will end at noon.

FAMILY SWIMMING

The current series of family swimming sessions will end tonight at the Royal Junior High pool. They will resume on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at Derby and Monday and Wednesday at Seaholm starting the week of June 17.

LIFE SAVING CLASSES

The current series of the Recreation Department life saving classes ended May 22. Another series of classes for both junior and senior life saving will be given at the Eton Park Shelter Building from 1 to 5 p.m. June 4-7.

SUMMER PROGRAM

See in next week's Recreation Round-Up column for detailed information on the following activities to be sponsored by the Recreation Board this summer: children's swimming classes, junior and senior life saving, open swimming, family swimming, teen night swimming, summer teen swim club, adults and teen gym, tennis, children's and adult's lessons, archery, dramatics, day camp, golf lessons, softball and baseball, playground, rifle and music.

SENIOR MEN'S CLUB

The entertainment program for this group of Birmingham retired men will include a talk by James K. Flack, who is a member of this organization. Mr. Flack's subject will be Lincoln and Gettysburg. This program is scheduled for Friday, March 24. The men meet in the Activities Room of the Community House at 10 a.m. A short business meeting is opened at 10:10 and the hour from 11 to noon is devoted to entertainment.

Two Aces Scored At Local Courses

Two holes-in-one were scored by golfers at local courses during the past week—one by a Birmingham woman and the other by a Utica man.
