Suellen Stone Is Married In St. Owen's

By ELEANOR OWEN
MI 7-9856

Suellen Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. S. Beaumont Stone, Jr., 6850 White Pine Drive, Birmingham, became the bride of Thomas Michael Beldyga, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael John Beldyga, of Hamtramck, in a double ring ceremony Saturday, May 18. The 10 o'clock nuptial mass was celebrated at Saint Owen's Church in Birmingham by the Rev. Father Edward T. Walling.

The bride wore Chantilly-like French lace in a bell-skirted dress with a scalloped Sabrina neckline. The long-sleeved gown had a deftly draped back skirt brief train. The headpiece was of matching lace in a Dior bow with a meringue veil. Her only jewelry was a star ruby set in a gold heart as a pendant, a gift of the groom. She carried white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath in a crescent shaped bouquet with white ribbons.

SALLIE J. STONE, sister of the bride was maid of honor, while Mrs. James T. Staskowski, and Sally T. White were bridesmaids. They wore short pale blue apricot dresses with elbow-length sleeves. Headpieces were matching Dior bows and they carried tulle bouquets.

Serving as best man was Ronald B. Manczyk. Ushers included Kenneth E. Kopek, Thaddeus (Ted) Lojek, David F. Boyer, and William J. Piazzi.

Mrs. Stone wore pale aqua blue silk for the wedding, while Mrs. Beldyga was in turquoise linen. Both wore orchid corsages.

The reception was held at the Polish American Citizens Club. Following the party Mr. and Mrs. Beldyga left for Kansas City, Mo. On their return they will reside in Warren.

The Pembroke Manor Branch of the WNWGA will hold its monthly meeting on June 6 at the home of Mrs. Paul Faubel, 2238 Pembroke. The program will be "Working with Pressed Materials" with John C. Calhoun as guest speaker.
