Mr. and Mrs. Larry E. Norton of Westwood Drive, Birmingham, returned from a California vacation last week. Fran Norton reports: "After flying to San Francisco and going to the shops and wonderful restaurants, we drove down the coast along the ocean, stopping at golf courses en route. The most outstanding were Pebble Beach, at Carmel-by-the-Sea and Desi Arnez' Indian Wells in Palm Springs. Larry didn't leave his heart in San Francisco but certainly a part of it in Palm Springs."

IT WAS another Rinehart birthday party, in honor of Mel Monday, May 20. Thirty-two friends and relatives gathered at the Bloomfield Village home of Mary Lee and Jack Rinehart (brother and his wife) for 6:30 p.m. cocktails, followed by a buffet dinner.

Mel had shortened his Florida vacation to attend the party, as did Mr. and Mrs. Maurice A. Clauson and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Braun. Among others present were Mr. and Mrs. William S. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Taber, Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Fry, Dr. and Mrs. Ostra B. Cresco, Mr. and Mrs. William Packer Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. O'Toole, Harvey Ewald (Mrs. Ewald was visiting son Fred at Duke University) and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fuller.

MR. AND MRS. Alan T. Pearce returned to their Linden Ave. home last week from Fort Worth, Tex., where they were house guests of Mrs. Phoebe and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Durkin. The two men were partners in the Crestview Golf Tournament (a member-guest event) held at Fort Worth's River Crest Country Club. Maureen Pearce followed her two favorite contestants, her husband and actor Randolph Scott, neither of whom were winners.

Good news for the Bearcats and for their host of Birmingham friends — Alan's promotion to general sales manager of the Chicago (home office) branch of General Outdoor Advertising will facilitate moving from Birmingham. They have contributed vast interest and energy to local clubs and societies (Maureen's past project is the Birmingham Junior League). They will be missed.

DR. AND MRS. John P. Wood of Bloomfield Hills sailed aboard the Kungsholm May 21. Their son, John Palmer Wood (formerly of Birmingham, now with the National Geographic Society, Washington, D. C.), joined his parents in New York City to see them off. Dr. and Mrs. Wood docked yesterday at Göteborg, Sweden. From there they will motor through Sweden, Norway and Denmark before returning to Bloomfield Hills in July to greet favorite houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolfinger, their daughter and son-in-law, of Evanston, Ill.

MR. AND MRS. Jack L. Mayes have returned to their Bloomfield Hills home from another of their "world-viewing" vacations. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown of Birmingham made it a four-hour trip by plane from Detroit to London, to Athens, Greece and nearby Piraeus, to board the ship Stella Salaria for a week's cruise through the Greek Islands.

Following a visit to Istanbul, Turkey, the group went to Cairo, Egypt. Part of the sight-seeing here was done by camelback. Their itinerary took them to Damascus, Syria; Beirut, Lebanon; Jordan, Israel and Jerusalem, and a return visit to Rome, a favorite city where they enjoyed four wonderful days before returning to Michigan.

Bridal Pair Will Live In California

A reception at the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel followed the noon marriage Sunday of Alta Esther Diem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Diem of Birmingham, and Dr. Richard Alan Kahn, son of Dr. and Mrs. Joel H. Kahn of Midland, Mich.

For the ceremony performed by Rabbi Morris Adler, the bride wore a Bianchi gown of ivory pearly de hose appliqued with beaded Alstom lace. Her bouffant veil of imported illusion was held in place by a softly pleated pill box of matching illusion. She carried white orchids on her Bible.

SHARON HECHT was maid of honor and Susan Kahn, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They both wore sheath gowns designed in tiers of beige linen and white lace and carried sheafs of baby white carnations.

David Kahn was best man for his brother, and setting the guests were Arnold Diem, brother of the bride; Dr. Thomas Schenk, Dr. Bruce Kyburz, Robert Segar and Harry Stulberg.

The couple will make their home in Oakland, Calif.

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS

Mrs. Al Lundy of Sodon Lake Drive was hostess at a get-together luncheon last Thursday afternoon. The honored guests were Mrs. Harry Erdman and Mrs. Al Reilly, both of Sodon Lake Drive. A miniature rose tree with tiny candles decorated the luncheon table.

Mrs. Erdman is new to the Sodon Lake area but not to the Bloomfield Hills area. The Erdmans formerly lived in Knob Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Reilly and son John, 7, moved from Clarendon, N. Y., only six months ago. Reilly is in the research department of Sheller Technical Corp. He attended Williams College and the University of Buffalo. Mrs. Reilly also attended the latter university. MRS. FRED Barnes of Richmond, Va., spent last week as the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Garland Hod, Jr. of Sodon Lake Road.

The Bloomfield Heights branch WNFCA met May 22 at the home of Mrs. William Howard on Tully Road. Co-hostesses for the afternoon meeting were Mrs. George Morton and Mrs. R. A. Winter.

After the business meeting, the members exchanged plants.

THE BRIDGE participants of the Bloomfield Heights branch WNFCA gathered at Pine Lake Country Club Tuesday for luncheon and to award prizes. The 25 ladies stopped at the home of Mrs. Ralph Gibout before continuing on to the club for luncheon. First place went to Mrs. Gladys Gibout; second to Mrs. Dorothy Watson; and consolation to Mrs. Florence Beasley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibout returned home last Thursday after spending the previous weekend visiting friends and Mrs. Gladys Gibout in Milwaukee. Then they spent some time in Chicago where Gibout attended a national restaurant show.
