

Theater Party Is Scheduled

A gala theatre party on June 16 at the Fisher Theatre is being promoted by the ADPC Detroit Area Council, which includes the Birmingham alumnae group. Mrs. Tom Ward, president of the Birmingham alumnae, and Mrs. William Kammer, ticket sale chairman, announce that they have a large block of choice seats for the June 16 performance of "Mary, Mary" starring Pippa Scott and Bill McGuire.

"This is a marvelous chance for people to get tickets without having to stand at the box office," says Mrs. Kammer, "and it's a good way to celebrate Father's Day, too."

The money raised by the sale of the tickets will be used to benefit the sorority's active chapters in Michigan.

Before the performance, Mrs. James Prich will entertain a group of friends at supper. Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fritze, Kenneth Steward, Robert Leggett, Elbert Elliott, James Schoonmaker, Edward Moore and Allan Hall. Mrs. Theodore Mordant will entertain her theatre party group at coffee after the performance.

Bowlers Schedule Barbecue Dinner To Climax Season

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1882

The Fred Pantillon garden on Rouge Circle Drive will be the scene of the Pine Hill bowling league party on Sunday afternoon. Barbecuing a roast of beef on the patio for the outdoor dinner will be chef Merjett Elliott. Others in the group will take on other duties for the dinner, entertainment and prizes for the high and low scores of the season.

Looking forward to the outing are area residents the George Robbs, Elmer Kestley, Ray Embury, Maxine Meade, Wendell Crisp, Lynn Hudlers, Loren Van Nortwicks, Merritt Elliotts, Mrs. Ann Barkley and the William Boeks. Arriving from Hoyal Oak will be the Robert Shaws and the Jack Dyers.

THE WILLIAM Routes of Robson Lane are looking forward to attending the Indianapolis auto race on the holiday. On their return, they will repack their bags for a five-day stay at the Homestead, Hot Springs, Va. Springtime in Europe was a dream that materialized for the Clifford Coffeys of Tullahoma Drive. They left in March for two months on the continent, picking up a car on their arrival in Hanover, Germany. They traveled through Switzerland and Italy where they visited the Vatican City. Then they went on to France and London, England, for a week.

The Coffeys were fascinated with Denmark and the full-course, three-hour meals of herring and breads. Three days were spent in Stockholm before joining their children, Tina, Ellen Sue and Brien in New York. On their return they learned that Coffey will be transferred to Akron, O., and the family will be moving there soon.

GRADUATION IS a busy time for most parents and their offspring but Dr. and Mrs. Ava East of Far Hill Drive are finding it a real whirl when twins are involved.

Their daughters, Betty and Sally, will be graduating with their class from Seaborn High School on June 13, just two days after their birthdays. On the 10th, the Rushes will deposit their daughters on the campus steps. Sally is entering Michigan State while Betty has chosen Western University at Kalamazoo.

MRS. ROBERT Hamly of Meadowlane Court entertained at a farewell luncheon one afternoon last week for her friend and neighbor, Mrs. John Sennett of Meadowlane Court. Gathering to wish her happiness in her new home on Hillcrest Drive were area neighbors Mrs. Leslie Peters, Mrs. Alexander Ersvanian, Mrs. James Brown, Mrs. Phoinis Snow, Mrs. Nick Nash, Mrs. Russell Fisher and Mrs. Harold Cooper.

The Hamlys also entertained at a bon voyage dinner party for Mrs. Hamly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Radenberg of Lathrup, who have since departed for a three-week cruise through the inland waterways in Alaska. Other guests at the dinner were relatives Mrs. Carl Bartlett of Detroit, Edward Barron of Lathrup and Mrs. P. H. Hamly of Hickory Heights.

MRS. NED RANDAU of Far Hill Drive entertained area residents at a dessert-bridge on Wednesday afternoon. The group have been meeting monthly and include Mrs. Edward Beck, Mrs. James Brien, Mrs. Donald Douglas, Mrs. Fred Burge, Mrs. Dayton Slater, Mrs. John Bryant and Mrs. Robert Boger.

A GROUP OF friends honored Mrs. Donald Weber of Cheswick Drive at a farewell luncheon at McDowell Inn recently. Co-hosting the luncheon were Mrs. Nick Nash, Mrs. John Sennett and Mrs. Francis Shaw of Hickory Heights.

Mrs. Weber and daughter Debby have joined Weber in San Diego where he was transferred, by Burroughs this spring. Mrs. Ray Roberts and sons Larry and Lee of Tullyburg Lane will be moving to Lexington, Ky., to join Roberts in June. He accepted a position there as food center director at the University of Kentucky a few months ago.

KAREN D. SHAW has enrolled in West Liberty College, West Liberty, W. Va., for the fall term, beginning September 8. Karen, the daughter of the Francis Shaws of Meadowlane, will be among those graduating from Seaborn High on June 13. Daniel McCarrige will be home for the summer after his graduation from Stevens College on May 27. Her parents, the William Van Densels of Helton Road, motored to the college town of Columbia, Mo., to attend the exercises. Daniel has enrolled at the University of Michigan for the fall term.

THE HICKORY Heights Tuesday morning cancer group gathered at the Hickory Heights Drive home of Mrs. James Brien for their last work session of the season last week. The group of 20 have had the cancer work "bees" for years and will begin again in the fall. Their completed pads are forwarded to the Berkeley Chapter of the Cancer Society.

MRS. ROBERT KLOOP (KNEELING) AND MRS. CECIE MCDOLE

MRS. J. P. BARNUM (LEFT) AND MRS. ARTHUR G. SWENSON

A French summer garden (for purposes of appetites), a sidewalk cafe for watching the crowds stroll by, colorful topiary trees and tables centered by clusters of beehived violets all created a Parisian setting for the Birmingham Wednesday by women members of the Birmingham Country Club. Mainly responsible for transforming the dining room into a miniature replica of Versailles, and erecting the "Galerie Camille Renault" for an exhibit of paintings, were committee members Mrs. Robert Kloop, chairman; Mrs. J. P. Barnum, Mrs. Henry Fett, Mrs. Cecie McDole and Mrs. M. P. Spurrel. A style show and music were further attractions at this final party of the season which was attended by over 300 women.
