Members of Dance Club Celebrate on Anniversary

By GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

The Village Square Dance Club celebrated its 10th anniversary recently at its final dance of the season. Members, guests and charter members gathered at Northbrook School for dinner, elected new officers and danced. Chairman of the food committee were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pollard. Assisting them were the Del Cadillas, the Sig Cervinskis, the Wendell Boerings, the Charles Russels and the Jim Sipples.

The officers for next year are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ladning, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. John Leaver, co-chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bishop, treasurer; and Mrs. Joe Myzra, membership.

IT WAS NOT ONLY an anniversary celebration but also a charter night. Seven of the original charter members are still members of the group and four of the original members, who are not members at present, came as guests of the club. They were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Offenstin, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Caddell, Dr. and Mrs. Mario Goffari and Dr. and Mrs. George Ritter.

Other guests of the club included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Larry McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Les Morrill. The Al Diehls were the guests of the Robert Andreassens.

IN SPITE OF both kinds of meals being passed around among the four daughters of the Walter Zetzy family, they finally made their trip to Nassau. The family stayed at the Nassau Beach Hotel for 10 days and enjoyed such events as rides on the glass bottomed boats, touring the straw market and the children were fascinated by the fire eaters.

The Zetzy's, with Grace, 6, Donna, 5, and the twins, Madeleine and Marsha, 2, have returned to their Westbrook Parkway home now.

CRANBROOK

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schaefer of Webster entertained in honor of their neighbor, Don Hunt, a dinner party recently. Hunt (Bwana Don) will be leaving soon for an extended trip to Europe and Africa, taking film and collecting material for his television series.

Grass huts, palm trees and posters made up the decor. The guests dined on Hawaiian dishes and were dressed in Hawaiian costumes.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Zetzy, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Tyson, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rottenberg, the Al Bachanens, the Ahy Simmons of Birmingham, the George Cummings and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fuston.

SOUTHFIELD

Birney School PTA had its installation of officers Tuesday in the school gymnasium.

Following the installation, there was a panel discussion on subjects relating to scheduling, student dress, behavior, homework and other related subjects. The panel included Mrs. Dorothy Condon, seventh grade counselor; Carol Branch, eighth grade counselor; Kalman Bartlelepe, ninth grade counselor; and several parents.

Special science projects were on display in the multi-purpose room.

MANY CHILDREN met at Northbrook School on Saturday for a movie afternoon. There were clowns and the full length film, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" was shown. The event was held for the benefit of Cub Pack 1685 of the school.

CRANBROOK

The Cranbrook Golf League has announced plans for the season which is already underway. In charge of this year's scheduling are Mrs. James Russell of Westbrook Parkway and Mrs. Glen Allen of Fall River.

There are six ladies thus far in the beginners group which meets each Friday morning at North Hills Golf Club. The group,

PINE LAKE

At the opening night of the opera in Detroit last week Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hallas of Interlaken Road, with the John P. Henrys, Dan Packard, Bernard A. Chapman and Donald P. Elise, they first had dinner at the Detroit Athletic Club before going to the performance of "Otello."

With her sister, Mrs. John Letz of East Lansing, Mrs. Hallas returned to the Masonic Temple auditorium on May 22 to hear "Die Meistersinger," and again on the 23rd for "Tosca."

Consists of Mrs. William Nau, Mrs. Robert J. O'Grady, Mrs. Dale Hoehr, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt and Mrs. A. Kowak.

The Lathrup Women's Club will conclude the year's activities with a 12:30 luncheon at Forat Lake Country Club on Wednesday. Mrs. Cassius M. Lea, club president, will preside over the business meeting and introduce the officers for the coming year.

They are Mrs. Melvin Humphrey, first vice president; Mrs. Jack Howard, second vice president; Mrs. Joseph Lucas, recording secretary; Mrs. James Heller, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Neil Thurwachter, treasurer. The committee chairman will announce the highlights of next year's activities at that time.

Chairman for the luncheon will be Mrs. Louis Camill. Her hostesses will be Mrs. Rudolph Zabel, Mrs. Lester Childs and Mrs. John Heaton.

BROOKFIELD HIGHLANDS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pierson of Middleton Drive attended a dinner-dance and fashion show at Pined Hollow Golf Club on May 22.

On Saturday with friends from Detroit, they went to see a Philie Diller performance in Detroit.

BIRMINGHAM

On May 6, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bergmann of Barramoor Rd. returned from a visit to Connecticut. In Stamford and Danbury, they renewed acquaintances with old friends who had been stationed with them in Johannesburg, South Africa, when the Bergmanns spent three years there.

The day after their return, Mrs. Bergmann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland McQueen, arrived from Hollywood, Fla., to celebrate their grandson's seventh birthday and Mother's Day. They left on the 13th for their home in Minneapolis.

THIS PAST weekend was a busy one for Mrs. John Gorsuch of Quantico Road. She assisted at one of the concessions at the three-day fair and carnival up on by Detroit County City Day School. Tom, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gorsuch, is in the seventh grade at the school.

Daniel Boone, the baby raccoon from Anna Maria Island, Fla., who accompanied the William A. Hoffman family north after their 14-day vacation here, left the Buchanan's Loch Lomond Drive home and is now entrancing residents of Madison Heights. His new owner is Zera Marcelle who came to the Brass each Friday evening to give dancing lessons to Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan and four other couples.

Boone has a new name as well. He is now called "Bandito."

AT 1871 LOCH LOMOND, it's baby rabbits instead of baby raccoons.

"What's that gray fuzz on the grass?" wondered Jerry Metz as he noticed his lawn last week.

Closer inspection revealed a nest of eight rabbits, only a day or so old.

When the mother rabbit didn't show up for several days, the Metz' brought the babies into the house where five of them are now being fed on the same formula and same schedule as three-month-old Gretchen Anne Metz. Three have already found homes with friends of Mr. and Mrs. Metz.

For scoring five "6's" in the
