Augur Cup Awards Made At Kingswood School

By PEGGY FRANCE
Special Writer
Many of the end-of-the-year awards were announced recently. The Augur Cup and Augur pins are scholastic awards which go to the five seniors with the highest averages in their junior and senior years.

This year the Augur cup was awarded to two girls: Nancy J. Bledsoe and Winifred Burgess. The pins were awarded to those two girls and Beverly Fead, Julia Graham, and Margie Silver. This student council gave out citizenship awards to one girl in each class.
A girl who merits this award is a sincere, earnest, and friendly student. The awards were given to: 12th grade — Ellen Freedman; 11th grade — Lesley Schimpke; 10th grade — Sandra Tolson; ninth grade — Margaret Shopen; eighth grade — Susan Wild; and seventh grade — Mary Gerisch.

THE STUDENT council also announced the new senior committee for the school year 1963-1964. They are: joint activities, Margie Deaton, Deborah Sterritt, and Apple Puchs; welcoming committee — Knudsen, Julie Williams, Fran Fredericks, Anne Clark, Gail Hammonds, and Sue McGraw; senior grade advisors, Alexa Harrison and Leslie Schimpke; assembly planning, Morley Thomas and Nancy Kinosh; store aid and found, Linda Anderson; poster committee — Balette Stocky; and exam procedure, Susan Weger. Kingswood alumnus for the summer at the end of this week. The several weeks leading up to commencement are very busy ones. Last Friday, May 31, the afternoon was devoted to K-Day, the day when sports awards are given out.

FINAL examinations were held from June 3 to June 6. Friday, June 7, is Class Day. On Class Day the seniors put on a skit for the school, and yearbooks are presented by the editor, Nancy McKay. That afternoon a number of the classes have their own parties. Friday evening, at 6:30 p.m. the junior class gives a formal banquet for the school.

The toastmistress of the banquet will be Cookie Goodstein, and the speakers will be Fran Fredericks, Morley Thomas, Diane Buss, Nancy Bledsoe, and Marcia Reitz. At 9 p.m. will be the Kingswood Commencement Formal. On Saturday afternoon, June 8, the commencement exercises are held at Christ Church Cranbrook. The speaker for commencement this year is Mrs. George Romney.

Sacred Heart Lists Last of Social Events

By PATRICIA SHANNON
Special Writer

As the school year drew to a close, many traditional events took place, and preparations were made for next year. During the last full weeks of class, a surprise luncheon was given in honor of those girls who were completing 12 years of convent education.
The veteran seniors were Betsy Bauer, Judy Conklin, Alicia Sealen and Gayle Watts. Later in the week, the new Duchene Mission president, Mary Alice Rowe; treasurer, Susan Burkhardt; recording secretary, Robin Collins; corresponding secretary, Linda Rice and Christmas Chairman, Terry Karitz. The annual May crowning was held on Friday, May 21. A solemn outdoor procession marks this beautiful feast.

The next day, Patricia Shannon and Tona Stein held a tea for the graduating class and their mothers at the Shannon home in Bloomfield Hills.

LAST TUESDAY, June 4, was prize day in the high school. Awards were given for outstanding merit during the school year and final marks were received. In the afternoon, graduation exercises for the senior class were held in the chapel.
Monsignor Vincent Horkan presided and the solemn ceremony was followed by a tea for the graduates and their families. That evening, both Angela Magliola and Alicia Sealen opened their homes to the entire class.
These activities began a week of parties for the graduating seniors. Today, June 6, they will be the guests of the Alumnae Association at Oakland Hills Country Club. The girls and their escorts were feted at dinner. Later in the evening, they were greeted to the Alumnae, parents and guests.

Following the ball, a breakfast will be given by Cynthia Church and Susan Sennett at the Sennett home.
Saturday, June 8, the seniors and their dates will attend a Luncheon party given at Rod Ran Country Club by Cam Ashley, Rosemary Demsey, Kate and Margaret Mahoney, Kathy Martin and Linda Stevenson.

Planning ahead means success on the highway as well as in business, states the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Co. While attentive to the road immediately in front of the car, skilled drivers also constantly evaluate distant traffic patterns, alert for signs that may indicate trouble up ahead.
