Lester Drakes At Home In Ann Arbor

Mr. and Mrs. Lester James Drake are making their home in Ann Arbor following their marriage April 29 in Ogden, Utah.

The bride, formerly Elizabeth Ann Pierce, and Mr. Drake, both previously of Ann Arbor, were married in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Pierce of Ogden, formerly of Birmingham.

The new Mrs. Drake attended Baldwin High School and finished at the Tokyo-American School, Japan. She attended Smith College and received her B.S. from the University of Michigan, College of Architecture and Design.

SHE ALSO studied at the Chelsea Pottery, London, England, and at Oxford University, England, where she received an M.A. She is currently doing graduate work at U. of M.

Mr. Drake received an A.B. in history from the University of Michigan and was graduated from Law School at the university. Currently he is practicing in Ann Arbor. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Winfield Drake of Mt. Clemens.

Following their marriage, the couple toured the mountain country of southern Utah, planning to complete their wedding trip in July and August when they will spend six weeks in Europe.

Kappas Cap Year's Program At Bridge Players' Luncheon

Oakland Hills Country Club was a busy place the afternoon of May 21 when nearly 300 Kappas and their guests gathered for cocktails and luncheon.

The luncheon climaxed the year's activities for all those who have played in the 1962-63 Kappa Kappa Gamma Bridge Tournament.

A check for $1,750 was given to the Foundation for Emotionally Disturbed Children at Psychiatric Hospital, Mrs. Gordon C. Boling of Westwood Court, Birmingham, president of the N. Woodward Alumnae of Kappa Kappa Gamma, presented the check to Mrs. Louis J. Colombo, Jr., 3635 Lahser Road, Bloomfield Hills, president of the foundation.

MRS. JOHN C. Siegmund, Jr., of Hupp Cross Road, Birmingham, chairman of this year's Bridge Tournament, announced the first place teams in each of the 28 leagues. Second and third place winners were notified by mail.

Mrs. William E. Ludwig of Warwick Court, Bloomfield Hills, was chairman of the Golden Key Luncheon, and her co-chairman, Mrs. James E. Goldsmith of Tootmooor Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Ten Kappas modeled the summer-interval collection of elegant, hand-drawn, cashmere sweaters, knit suits and dresses by Irene Brown.

Mrs. Frank Carlson of Fox Run, Birmingham, headed one of the busiest tables of the day. She is chairman of the 1963 Kappa Kappa Gamma Bridge Tournament.

Double Celebration Spells Out Gaiety

By MARTY CAHN MI 6-2890

"Double your pleasure and double your fun" spells out wedding, which describes the double celebration which took place in the Arlington Drive home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Boyd Stockmeyer Sunday. The occasion marked the fifth wedding anniversary of Mrs. Stockmeyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Tibbitts, plus being a graduation party for the Stockmeyer sons, Chris and Steve, who were celebrating their graduation from the University of Michigan. Chris achieved a master's degree from the Business School and Steve received his A.B. degree from the University of Michigan.

Co-hosting the afternoon open house were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wagner (Mrs. Stockmeyer's sister and brother-in-law) of Farmington. Among the 100 guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hal Lang, broke of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Harry O'Toole of Detroit, sisters of Mrs. Tibbitts who witnessed the marriage fifty years ago. Mrs. Ethel Holton came from Port Meyers Fla. and Mr. and Mrs. George Calkins were there from Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Wallenberg of Birmingham entertained 30 guests at home May 23 with a cocktail and supper party for Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Shaw of Martel Drive, Bloomfield Hills. The Shaws are leaving Michigan to make their home in Tucson, Ariz.

The Wallenbergs picked up daughter Cathy at the University of Michigan on Friday to transport her to Boulder, Colo., where she is enrolled at the University for the summer session before entering her junior year at U. of M. next fall.

Joan Roberts, of St. Dunstan's Guild, reports an exciting, forthcoming guild events and parties. Preceding tomorrow night's opening performance of "The Devil's Advocate" (staged at the outdoor Greek Theatre) are to be dinner ment and was securing entries for next year's affair.

Once again, all proceeds from this Tournament will be given to the Foundation for Emotionally Disturbed Children.

Sarah Mott Weds Ralph Gellatly

Announcement is made of the marriage on April 6 of Sarah Marie Mott and Ralph George Gellatly. The couple repeated their vows at a double wedding ceremony in the First Methodist Church of Birmingham, after which they left on a trip south.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Mott of Southfield Road, Beverly Hills, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gellatly of Bay City.

The newly-weds are now at home on Crooks Road, Royal Oak.

Double Celebration Spells Out Gaiety

parties and more dinner parties. Among those entertaining are Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Darragh, Mr. and Mrs. David Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Jervis B. McMechan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Pace and Mr. and Mrs. Darrall C. Roberts.

Following the final performance on June 15 (other show dates are June 7, 8 and 14), Mrs. Marjorie White is entertaining at the cast party.

Betty (Mrs. Albert J.) Jehle, Jr. of Avon Lane had an excellent excuse for arriving late on Friday for a golf match. She had spent early morning searching for a bed to accommodate baby nephew Steve, who was arriving with his sister, Julie, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Scheidau (Betty's sister and brother-in-law) from Cleveland, Betty and Al departed Wednesday for a Memorial Day holiday at Grand Haven. The family, along with five Grasso family couples, have made the annual outing known as "mother's vacation" for eighteen years. The group stays at a cottage, plays golf at the Spring Lake Country Club, have lots of fun and (best of all) the men do all the work such as shopping, cooking and cleaning up.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Saefkow and children, Susan and Bill, of Westwood Drive were in the receiving line on Sunday at a reception to honor the sixtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Saefkow given at East Cleveland's Baptist Church, where the honored couple have been members for fifty years. Three hundred guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne C. Hampton entertained at their Beverly Hills home May 30 with a cocktail and dinner party in honor of Mrs. Harry B. Stillman and Laurence J. Carolin. The honored couple are being married today.

The Hamptons' other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Asbaugh of Dearborn and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Koella, Jr. of Sylvan Lake.

Have You Met... Memorial Services Are Observed

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Wilson who are now at home at 1075 Wembleton, Birmingham? They and daughter Ann, 12, moved here in April from Hamilton, O. Mr. Wilson is sales service manager for Champion Papers, Detroit district sales office. Mr. Wilson is a member of the Optimist Club of Hamilton, a member of F & AM Masons Washington Lodge No. 17 in Hamilton and both he and Mrs. Wilson are interested in youth activities. In Hamilton, he was superintendent of the junior high Sunday school in the Presbyterian Church.

Pythian Sisters Temple No. 94 held their annual memorial services Wednesday in the Community House, with Mrs. Forrest Moyer, program chairman, assisted by Mrs. John Smetz, Mrs. C. B. Griffin and Mrs. Daisy Gowans.

Final meeting of the year will take place June 19. Regular sessions will be resumed September 4.
