Judith Grant Is Married In St. Hugo

MRS. T. P. FONTAINE

At a ceremony solemnized June 1 in St. Hugo of the Hills Church, Bloomfield Hills, Judith A. Grant exchanged marriage vows. Judith Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Grant of Bloomfield Hills and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Fontaine of Birmingham.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza fashioned with a chapel train. The Sabrina neckline of re-embroidered lace was highlighted with pearls and sequins. Amonon lace edged the overskirt, and she wore a clipped veil of silk illusion secured to a crown of pearls and orange blossoms.

BRIDAL ATTENDANTS included Diane Grant, sister of the bride (as maid of honor); Anne Fontaine, sister of the bridegroom; Lynn Pisani and Carol Evans of Birmingham. They all wore powder blue gowns with overtones of white crepe.

John C. Fontaine was best man, ushers including Edward Fontaine, Terrence Priestap and Warren Risk.

Following a reception at Kingsley Inn, the couple left on a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains.

Miss Fitzpatrick To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Fitzpatrick of Bloomfield Hills have announced the engagement of their daughter, Laura Ann to Stephen E. Galster, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Galster of Indianapolis, Ind.

Laura Ann and her fiancé will be graduated this month from Marian College in Indianapolis. An October wedding is planned.
