Couple Honored at Surprise Party

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

The Frank Fehr of Whittier Drive had the surprise of their lives as a bus loaded with friends, food and gifts pulled up in front of their new home on Sunday afternoon for a "housewarming party." Stretched the length of the bus was a banner that read "Fehr's Fiendish Frolicading Friends."

In the group were the Richard Mangrums, Kenneth Conns, R. T. Collins, Lyman Fishburns, William Holmes, J. D. Coulter, Leon Hart, Dale O. Millers, Jr. and J. Siegemunds, Jr., all from Birmingham.

The Fehrs moved from Beverly Hills. They have four children, 15, John, 12, Frank, 9 and Linda 5. Fehr is a division manager at the J. L. Hudson Co. Their interests include fishing and traveling.

THE DEXTER Kennedys of Pontiac have moved into their new home on N. Westview Court. They have three children, Jim, 15, Dexter, 9, and Bobby, 2. Kennedy is in sales at Pontiac Retail and Mrs. Kennedy is a physical education teacher at Cerveny School, Detroit.

Newcomers to Bolingbroke Drive are the Donald Macfarlane family, formerly of Pontiac. Their children include Linda 7, Sandra, 6, David, 4, Pat, 3 and Nancy 1. Macfarlane is an engineer at the General Motors Corp.

The Harlan Woods and son Stephen are new residents on Reek Spring Road. Their move was from New York but they have recently been residing at Green Lake where Stephen, 15, is finishing out the school term. Wood's sales manager with the General Electric Co. The family are golf enthusiasts.

A GROUP of North Adams area families formed a caravan Sunday morning and departed for the Hill and Dale Ranch at Kingston for "roundup time." The group will be attending the western-style camp in July and August in an afternoon of hay rides, horse back riding and a barbecue feast. In the group were the James Glasgow's of Eastway Drive, the H. Joseph Wrights of Whittier Drive, the Alan Yateses of Masfeld Drive, the James Vances of Tutbury and the Andrew Parks of Sussex.

FOREST LAKE Country Club will be the luncheon destination of Kern Lake Garden Club members and friends on Tuesday afternoon. The group of 30 will gather in the north dining room overlooking the pool where they will also hold a business meeting and election of officers.

Planning the social event and final meeting of the season is the club's calling committee chairman, Mrs. A. Ward Stoddard of S. Westview Court.

AN OSAGE GARDEN Club picnic in honor of the Edward Gorlewski home on Lenox Road on Monday afternoon. The club invited members of the new Chapel Hills Estates Garden Club to be their guests at this last meeting of the season.

Included in the afternoon was a tour of the Beardslee gardens. Mrs. Francis Shaw will open her home and garden on Meadowlane for a salad luncheon and garden party on Saturday. The 25 guests are all women of the Stout College alumnae.

Accent of blue and white, the ellipse colors, will be carried out on the luncheon table, umbrella tables and patio. The afternoon gathering will include an election of officers for the coming year. Honoring the event are Mrs. Donald Branvold of Farmington and Mrs. John Gatic of Franklin.

TAU ALPHA Epsilon held its annual meeting and election of officers at the Village Woman's Club last week. The sorority's annual fund-raising proceeds benefit the Baptist Children's Homes.

Officers elected for the coming year are president, Mrs. Robert

A. Radtke of Bloomfield Hills; vice president, Mrs. Robert D. Meek of Birmingham; treasurer, Mrs. Willard J. Musson of Southfield; recording secretary, Mrs. Lyman C. Wetherby of Detroit; junior interest, Mrs. Richard Mabee of Royal Oak and board of directors member, Mrs. Frank Egan of Franklin.

On Wednesday, the officers met at the home of Mrs. Radtke for their first meeting and to complete plans for the mother and daughter luncheon to be held before college begins in September.

THE DAN CASSINOS of Masfeld Drive entertained at a Memorial Day picnic. Their guests were the William Coopers and the five little Coopers of Jackson.

The Ray Emburys of Bouce Circle Drive have just returned home after a month on the west coast and Hawaii. They spent the first four days of their vacation sight seeing in San Francisco before flying to Honolulu to visit friends. Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Kong Wille in Hawaii, they visited plantations and beaches and went island hopping to the islands of Kauai, Maui and Hilo.

After their stay in the islands, they flew to Los Angeles and visited friends the Francis Hinkleys.

modeling their own original hat creations for the city hat contest.

There will be a golf contest with obstacles placed on the greens to complicate the game. Chairmen of the day are Mrs. Archie Simpson of Royal Oak and Mrs. Vernon Butler of Birmingham.
