Music endears itself to most human beings? Why should "concord of sweet sound" have such a profound and worldwide appeal to people? I say to myself: "Why music merely supplies food for one's inner self, just as food supplies energy for the physical body. There is, within most of us, a conscious and a subconscious hunger for the hearing of melodic sound; this must be fed! Man lives not by bread alone."

Bride's Gown Fashioned By Bridegroom's Mother

Cherilla Ann Weight wore a gown of opulent pure silk peonies and soie made by the bridegroom's mother for her marriage to Karl Francis Emmanuel, Jr., Saturday. Brussels lace yoke and edging belonging to her maternal grandmother enhanced the gown. The veil was of Brussels lace and also had been her grandmother's.

HER HUSBAND'S parents are Col. (Ret.) and Mrs. Karl Francis Emmanuel of Union Lake.

Maid of honor was Molly Weight of Syracuse, N.Y., sister of the bride. She was gowned in siltan chiton with a matching head-dress, as was bridesmaid Mrs. William T. Stephenson of Birmingham, cousin of the bridegroom.

J. W. Schoonmaker, Jr., of Birmingham, another cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were William T. Stephenson of Birmingham and William Lee Fall of Troy.

THE BRIDE'S mother was dressed in turquoise brocade with gold embroidery, and the bridegroom's mother wore aqua embroidered with white.

A champagne reception was held at the Rotunda Inn, following the ceremony at Orchard Lake Community Church. The couple is now at home on El Maple after a three-day trip to Windsor, Ont.
