

June Bride

Bonnie Jean Baugh and Clifford Harter will be married June 15 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Baugh of Hazelton, Birmingham. Miss Baugh is a graduate of Leelanau and presently attends Ferris Institute. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orley Harter of Carson City, Mich. He is a graduate of Ferris Institute and will study at Michigan State this fall. He is affiliated with Alpha Phi Omega fraternity and is specializing in electronics.

Newlywed

St. Veronica Roman Catholic Church was the setting May 14 for the marriage of Judith Marie Wiar, daughter of Mrs. Joseph C. Wiar and the late Mr. Wiar, and James A. Fuhrman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonius G. Fuhrman of Saxon Drive, Birmingham. The bride chose a floor-length gown of white peau de soie. It featured a simple scoop neckline and a ruffled draped cummerbund. She wore a pillbox of white peau de soie, trimmed with matching Almon lace. Attached was her bouffant veil of French illusion. Following a reception at the Park Shelton, the couple left for Miami, Fla. where they will make their home.
