LAWRENCE R. NELSON

BBB Elects Ad Executive As Officer

Lawrence R. Nelson, senior vice president of Campbell-Ewald Co., advertising, Detroit, was elected a district governor of the Association of Better Business Bureaus at their 49th annual conference in Colorado Springs, Colo., May 27.

His new district responsibilities cover Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia. Nelson, 3301 Morningview Terrace, Birmingham, is president of the Detroit Better Business Bureau.

DISCUSSING the work of the association, Nelson declared, "The mature responsibility of business self-regulation lies with the Association of Better Business Bureaus. Business must continue to prove that it is grown up enough to impose and enforce the strictest rules of honesty and directness upon its advertising.

"Government regulation must be rendered unnecessary. A strong parental hand, although essential to children, is embarrassing for adults. Through the Better Business Bureaus business is proving its moral adulthood."

Dick Egan, rookie southpaw, appeared as a reliever in 14 of the first 37 games played by the Detroit Tigers in 1963.

SENIOR MEN'S CLUB

On May 27, a group of the men made their monthly visit to the Oakland County Medical Care Facility, on Telegraph Road in Pontiac, where they entertained the patients by visiting and leading them in group singing.

Mrs. Gordon L. Ellsworth very graciously joins the Senior Men on these occasions and her piano playing is most helpful and greatly enjoyed.

The program for next Friday's meeting, June 7, at 10:30 a.m. in The Activities Room of the Community House, will include a movie entitled "Miracle on your door step." This picture was made by the Detroit News and shows the effort and equipment for getting out a newspaper. Mr. Donald McGuire, member of the Senior Men's Club, will act as projectionist.

Elliott Talks To Oakland Republicans

Before the leadership of the Oakland County Republican Party, Arthur G. Elliott, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills, state chairman for the Republican Party, stated that the party must remain in top-notch physical trim over the next few months. Various methods of aiding the Republicans in their physical fitness program were outlined.

JOHN A. (Jack) Gibbs of Royal Oak, executive assistant to Elliott, stated that we must arm our volunteers with information. To accomplish this, the Republican Party will prepare issue papers dealing with national and state issues and make these available to GOP workers.

In addition, a Speakers Bureau is in the process of organization and will be available for group meetings. To aid in the arming of volunteers, an orientation program for new Precinct Captains will be developed for use by Republican directors.

Elliott requested that the county organization prepare a profile of the county. This profile would be made available to Republican candidates. The profile would outline sociological, economic and ethnic characteristics of Oakland County.
