

Church Fetes Choir Director

Members and friends of Community Congregational Church of Lathrup Village will honor Bernard Lesley and his family at a farewell reception Sunday.

Inasmuch as this Sunday marks the beginning of only one church service for the summer months, the reception will follow the 9:30 a. m. service.

Lesley served Community Church as choir director and organist for the last eight years and expanded the choir program to include the juniors, youth, boys, and chancel choir. He has accepted a similar position in the nearby St. David's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Lesley has been a member of the Chancel choir and one of its soloists for eight years.

PLANNING the reception are the members of the Executive and Activities Boards. The choir members will serve as hosts and hostsess.

In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Lesley will be Dr. and Mrs. Harry J. Baker as moderator and president of the choir, respectively; Mrs. Perry D. Miller as associate director of the choir; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nantarrow as choir manager and chairman of the music committee, respectively.

The Jiffers (7th and 8th graders) of the church will have their final outing for the season at the Star Lanes Bowling Alley Saturday.

Afterward they will return to the home of the Fay B. Giffords of 18515 San Jose, Lathrup Village, for a picnic supper. Mr. Giffords is the parent sponsor of the group.

PLANS ARE underway by the Women's Association of Community Congregational Church of Lathrup Village for next fall's card tournament. The single section of the tournament will have both afternoon and evening sessions.

Those wishing to participate or needing information may contact Mrs. Jay Lee in EL 6-5723 or Mrs. Clarence Gildersleeve, EL 6-3745.

Children Will Study Church's Job in World

The church's place in the world will be studied by children attending the summer school at First Baptist Church, 300 Willis.

The school is open to children four years old through sixth grade. It will begin Monday and continue through June 28.

Church of Christ Teen-Agers to Discuss Love

The annual vacation Bible school of the Birmingham Church of Christ has been set for June 17-21, at their new building at 3737 W. Big Beaver Road. Classes will be held daily, Monday through Friday, at 9:30-11:30 a. m., with a special program for 7:30 p. m. Friday.

The theme of the Bible school is "Christ's Way, My Way." Games, projects and films will be included.

A SPECIAL class for teen-agers will be taught by the Rev. Morris M. Womack, minister of the church, and also a member of the faculty of Michigan Christian College at Rochester. The class will consider "Love, Courtship and Marriage." Colored films will be used each day.

An award will be presented to the student who brings the most students during the week of the school.

There will be no cost. Transportation will be provided to all who wish. Children aged 3 to 18 are invited.

St. Stephen's Plans Study For Children

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church's third annual daily vacation church school will begin Monday.

This year's theme, Bible study and stories, is a course in the Christian faith based upon the Bible as it is used in the Prayer Book. The children will also learn to sing a simple musical setting for Evening Prayer.

At 9 a. m. each weekday morning for two weeks the children will attend a short service of worship and talk by the chaplain, the Rev. Carl R. Sayers, pastor of St. Stephen's, located at 5500 N. Adams, Birmingham.

In addition at 9:20 a. m. will be followed by refreshments, and by periods of music training, recreation, and handicrafts. At 11:45 a. m. a friendship circle and blessing will close each morning session.

St. James Church Plans Picnic Sunday at John Ivory Farm

St. James Episcopal Church will hold its annual parish picnic Sunday at the John Ivory Farm after church.

George Schmidt, 1132 Maryland, Birmingham, 6:30 p. m., said games, prizes, free ice cream, and rides will be offered.

The picnic committee includes Ford Kennedy, 222 Wembleton, and Lege at Rochester. The class will consider "Love, Courtship and Marriage." Colored films will be used each day.

An award will be presented to the student who brings the most students during the week of the school.

There will be no cost. Transportation will be provided to all who wish. Children aged 3 to 18 are invited.

Science is but a mere heap of facts, not a gold chain of truths, if we refuse to link it to the throne of God.

Woodland Handymen

Ralph Dawson. The shelter was constructed in memory of the late Dr. Frederick Jeffers. To be known as "Jeffers Outpost," the shelter will be used primarily by the older youngsters in the YMCA camping program.

Here dignified and considerate personal service is a tradition.

Summer School Theme Is Traveling God's Road

The Birmingham Community Church is presenting a daily vacation Bible school program in its building at 2284 W. Maple from June 17 through 28 from 9:30 to 11:30 a. m.

Children aged 3 through 13 are invited.

Mrs. A. J. Brooks, superintendent, will present a Scripture lesson.

Northminster Holds Annual Berry Party

The annual Strawberry Festival of Northminster Presbyterian Church, 3633 West Big Beaver Road, Troy, will be held from 3 to 8 p. m.

Families are invited for refreshments and fellowship in the church and, weather permitting, on the church grounds. Decor and costumes will set an atmosphere of the Gay Nineties era.

Two Lathrup Scouts Earn Eagle Honors

The coveted Eagle Award of Boy Scouting was awarded to Doug Lundberg and Jim Knighdon Tuesday in the Fellowship Hall of Community Congregational Church of Lathrup Village.

Lundberg is the son of the Edward F. Lundbergs of 18755 Cambridge, and Knighdon is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Knighdon of 27486 Lathrup Street. Both families of Lathrup Village.

Films of India To Be Shown To Methodists

Members of the Beverly Hills Methodist Church will see slides of India at 7:30 p. m. Sunday. The pictures were taken by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reasoner, 3234 Mayfair Lane.

Most of the Sunday school classes have already seen them and this evening has been planned for adults.

Reasoner left Christmas Day, 1962 for New Delhi, India, to study India's electrical power needs. The U. S. State Department and Detroit Edison Co. cooperated in this venture. Although the original plan was for a five-week mission, it extended to about three months.

A dessert and coffee hour will follow the presentation.

Breakfast Planned

The men's fellowship of Pilgrim Congregational Church of Birmingham will hold their monthly breakfast Saturday at Uncle John's Pancake House, 1350 S. Woodward, at 7:30 a. m. Sons and friends are welcome.

Doing easily what others find difficult is talent; doing what is impossible for talent is genius.
