Couple Wed at Alumni Chapel

Marriage vows were exchanged Friday at the Alumni Memorial Chapel, Michigan State University, by Charles Leta Steffler and George Lampher Farr.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Buford Steffler of Okemos, Mich., and his son-in-law is Mr. and Mrs. Gray Farr of Lone Pine Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Much of honor was Linda Polanski, and the bridesmaid was Linda Heiserman.

THE BRIDE chose a gown fashioned from pure silk organza and a bridal sash. The bouffant veil was held in place by a delicate headpiece made of silk organza and a satin rose with seed pearls.

Bryant Ewing served as best man, and ushers were Alfred M. Butzbaugh and Richard A. Streb. The couple will make their home in Ann Arbor where the bridegroom will attend the University of Michigan next year to obtain a master's degree in business administration.

Hawaii Lures Area Family on Holiday

By ELIZABETH YATES MI 6-1682

Mrs. Earl Sturgis and daughter Mary of Avonhurst Drive will be departing next week for Mrs. Sturgis' home state of Hawaii for six weeks.

The first 10 days will be spent in Honolulu with Mrs. Sturgis' mother and aunt, Mrs. A. E. Holt and Mrs. M. H. Lemon. The family tree dates back seven generations in the islands. When Sturgis arrives about July 1, the family will rent a house on Hawaii and go maki maki fishing. The fish is of the dolphin species. They will be on the Kona Coast where some of the largest fish in the world are caught.

MR. AND MRS. Gerald Switz of Butternut Hill Drive have a very wonderful memories after their six-week vacation in Europe.

Highlighting the entire trip was the Vatican invitation to visit with the Italian President Antonio Segni presenting Pope John with the Balzan Peace prize. The Segnis took place just 10 days after the Pope's death.

The Switzes enjoyed the Italian and French Riviera before touring France, Switzerland, Germany, Luxembourg and London. On their return to New York, they visited relatives and former Birmingham residents, the Paul Taylors.

THE HARRY SIEGELS of Butternut Hill Drive spent the month of May touring Europe. They began their travels in England and then journeyed on to Paris, the Black Forest and the Rhine River areas of Germany. They found the beauty of Lucerne, Switzerland unchanged. While there they had conversations with their traveling neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Switz, but didn't meet them.

The Siegels were intrigued with Venice, Florence and Rome and spent two days on the Isle of DR. AND MRS. Charles Barker of Charing Cross Road and children, Mary, Paul and Charles, are anxiously waiting for June 28 when they will be departing on the S.S. America for a month in Europe.

They will arrive at the picturesque seashore village of Dalkey, Ireland, where they plan to visit relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McNeil, for two weeks. A few days will be spent in London before going to the Italian Riviera for eight days. Paris is also on their itinerary and Cobb, Ireland, where they will board ship for home.

THE DAVID Chutes of Robinson Road will be California-bound in June with their children, Nancy, Beverly and Jim.

Their plans will include a stop in the Vatican to visit relatives. They will be picking up another son, Ronald, who is working in San Francisco and journey through California and visit Yellowstone National Park.

Mrs. Charles Crane of Lenox Road, newly-elected member of the W.P.F.A. Michigan division board and past president of the Ouse Garden Club, joined a group for four days in Boston, Mass., to attend the W.P.F.A. National council meeting.

Those in the Bloomfield Hills group who attended were Mrs. P. Gordon Davis, Mrs. William McCallum, Mrs. George Cutter, Mrs. Frank Chapman and Mrs. Nelson Miles of Rochester. During the meeting, they toured Lexington and Concord, Gardner Museum and the planetarium.

THE CRANES were houseguests of the John Storms in Columbus, O., this week while they attended a horse show there. Houseguests visiting the Cranes during the week of the show at the Bloomfield Open Hunt in late June will be Mrs. and Mrs. James Simons and their daughter, Nancy, and Stephanie Storm of Columbus.

Mrs. Nat Ross of Windrush Road held an "open garden" for 50 friends from the University Presbyterian Church Women's Association and other area groups on Wednesday afternoon. Punch was served under a colorful umbrella table during the tour of the wild flower area and gardens.

THE GROUNDS of Dr. and Mrs. George Yatch of Reuce Circle was the setting of the eighth annual Pine Hill subdivision Memorial Day picnic. Twelve families gathered this year to enjoy the picnic picnic, games for the children and a songfest.
