Wells College Club Adopts Constitution

The Wells College Club held its annual luncheon meeting recently at the Fox and Hounds. A new constitution and by-laws were adopted, and officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. George W. Clarke will be president, and other officers are vice president, Jane Kohring; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Peter Hilder; recording secretary, Mrs. Marshall Durston; and treasurer, Mrs. M. R. Liles. Mrs. John S. Rodewig continues as enrollment chairman.

AT THE MEETING, ground-work was laid for expanding enrollment work and alumnae activities in the western part of the state. Mrs. Talburt and Mrs. Hilder went to Grand Rapids June 5 to discuss the possibility of starting an alumnae club there or in Kalamazoo. Members present in addition to the officers were Mrs. Glenn R. Green, Mrs. Bryant L. Ruhman, Mrs. Gerald W. Massey and Mrs. Frederick L. Robinson.

It's a First At Oakland

For the first time, two young occupants of Girls' Ranch at Camp Oakland have been graduated from high school. Sunday, June 9, members of the Women's Committee for the Oxford, Mich., camp held open house at the attractive four-year-old home for girls who are wards of Oakland County Probate Court. On hand with their husbands to help graduates Eve Van Hertenryck and Diana Black welcome their friends were Mrs. Robert W. Chambers, Mrs. J. W. Shenefield and Women's Committee Chairman Mrs. Ben D. Mills, all of Bloomfield Hills. A special friend of Diana's, Bloomfield Hills resident Mrs. F. C. Reth, attended to help and offer best wishes.

THE GIRLS graduated from Oxford High School, along with 17-year-old Harold Howell, who has been a resident of Boys' Ranch at Camp Oakland since he was eight years old. Special guests, invited by the hostesses and the three graduates were Oakland County's two probate judges, Norman B. Barnard and Donald F. Adams and their wives, along with Circuit Judge and Mrs. Arthur E. Moore, Camp Oakland President and Mrs. Walter Gehrke and Mr. and Mrs. James O. Hunt were among the well-wishers. As plans were made for the first graduation open house at Girls' Ranch, Eve and Diana chose to have their "little sisters" at the Ranch attend. So 18 little girls also shared in the excitement, the punch, cake and cookies.

EVE, AN HONOR student, will attend Wayne State University to study in the field of decorating under a Royal Oak-Ford-Zonta Club scholarship. Diana has been accepted by Harper Hospital under a scholarship of the Women's Auxiliary of Pontiac General Hospital.

A number of women's clubs in Oakland County have contributed to the Girls' Ranch scholarship fund. Harold, a talented drummer, will enter the U. S. Navy, where he hopes to be accepted into the Navy Band. Recalling the days when Harold first came to Camp Oakland nine years ago, Camp Director William J. Matus said, "I used to hold him on my knee."
