Recreation Round-Up

SLOW-PITCH SOFTBALL
 The men's slow-pitch softball league sponsored by the Birmingham Recreation Board began league play last week with six teams scheduled in the double round robin tournament.

In the first game the "PYADS" (Presbyterian Young Adults) defeated the Birmingham Jaycees 10 to 5 and in the second game the First Methodist lost to Biffs by four runs (14 to 10). The third game was rained out and will be rescheduled this week.

SENIOR MEN'S CLUB
 The program for Friday, will include a talk by William Brownfield, who is Birmingham city planner.

In view of the fact that his audience will be a group of men who "Knew Birmingham When" Brownfield's talk will be of special interest and Mayor William H. Burgum will be in attendance to introduce the speaker.

Pipe Lake Tournament Opens Friday

One of the area's traditional golf classics—the Pipe Lake Country Club Invitational Golf Tournament—will get underway tomorrow.

Among the top entries for the 14th annual affair at the Orchard Lake course are Bill Tron, 1962 New York State amateur champ; Jill Callahan, Cleveland district champion; Bob Babbish of the Detroit Golf Club and Ray West of Okland Hills.

GENE EYLER and Jim Kraus lead the Pine Lake contingent in the field of 96 teams.

It will be an alternate shot tournament in which each player on a team drives—the drive he wishes in picked—and then the team takes turns making shots until the hole is completed.

Named Top Athlete

At the annual athletic awards dinner at New York Military Academy Cadet Captain Walter Otto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudrick Otto of 1250 Redding Road, Birmingham, was named as the outstanding athlete for 1962-63. A three letter man, Cadet Otto received the team Captain's Award in football, hockey and lacrosse and the special coaches award trophy in lacrosse. He is shown holding the Lathlow Athletic Award which he received for being the outstanding athlete and with him holding his other trophies are football coach John Beake and Major Anthony Castellano, Assistant Commandant of Cadets.
