

'Sweet Sixteen Tea' Honors Daughter

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

Mrs. Richard Spaulding, of Pine Hill Drive entertained at a Sweet Sixteen Tea for her daughter, Sue Ellen, on June 14.

The tea table flower arrangement of pink cluster carnations was centered on a white net acquired "sweet sixteen" bordered cloth over pink and lavender. The tiny tea cakes, each decorated in an original flower design created by Mrs. Joseph M. Clifford of Flint, made a decided hit with the 30 classmates and friends from Seaholm High.

Out of town guests attending the tea were Cindy and Heidi Gauthier, cousins from Flint, Libeth Hunter of Grand Blanc and Mrs. George E. Spaulding, Sue's grandmother from Flint.

THE STANLEY Wilsons of Tewksbury Drive entertained at a dinner and theatre party honoring their twin daughters, Diane and Karyle, on their sixteenth birthdays last week.

The party began with dinner at Vandell's with guests, Carol Finlay, Ann Ford, Helen Todd, Linda Harris of Birmingham and Bloomfield. The party group departed after dinner for "How the West was Won."

The Roger Blackwoods of Charmwood Drive entertained at a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Blackwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cavan of Amherstburg, Ont., on their 40th wedding anniversary June 12.

Joining in the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. John Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Knight of Amherstburg and Mrs. Fred Blackwood, Sr. of Royal Oak.

THE L. J. KEELERS of Orchard Hill Drive will be bidding area friends and relatives goodbye next month when they depart for a week of vacationing in Hawaii before beginning their three years overseas duty with General Motors.

They will arrive in Wellington, New Zealand August 5, where they will spend eight weeks. The Keelers will be spending this fall in all principal Australian cities before their stay in Port Elizabeth, South Africa. They will be making three round trips of the countries before their return in the summer of 1964.

Moving into the Keeler home will be their son and family, the John Keelers and children, Kerry Sue, 5, and Kevin, 3 of Birmingham.

While in Australia the Keelers are planning to meet area neighbors, the Joseph Schemansky, Jr. of Mattison Drive, who will be there for six months.

MISS MARTY BURNS and her aunt, Mrs. Ethel Rhodes of Parkman Drive, hosted an area "coffee" for their neighbor and friend, Mrs. Philip Duff of Parkman Drive.

The Duff family left for Chicago where they will make their home.

The Adrian Hoopengardner family of Lenox Road will be leaving for Chicago soon. Mr. Hoopengardner has accepted a position there.

The Harry Bixby of Mansfield Drive had Mr. Bixby's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Dixon of Fort Dodge, Iowa, for a 10 day visit recently. Visiting the Bixbys are their granddaughters, Terri and Kelli Mohoghan of Fort Dodge. The John Mohoghan will be joining their daughters here on July 8 and will stay on for a 10 day vacation.

MRS. ROBERT RUGG of Rayburn Drive, area chairman of the United Foundation Drive, held a "coffee" on Friday to make plans for the fall drive with the area district chairmen.

Attending the coffee were divisional chairman, Mrs. John Mitchell of Longmeadow Drive, district chairman, Mrs. Frederick Burge of Far Hill Drive, Mrs. Samuel Vetraino of Bloomcrest Drive, Mrs. Gordon Doherty of Lenox Road and Mrs. James Brown of Romey Road.

Alice Heaton and Sally Blackwood, seven year old daughters of the William Heaton and the Roger Blackwoods of Charmwood Drive, were among the performers in the ballet recital Friday evening at Baldwin School, Birmingham.

Looking forward to a month of summer camp are Doug and Steve Hagerman, sons of the Marc Hagermans, of Butternut Hill Drive. Doug will be departing for Camp Hopo-Want-Ha in August and Steve has chosen Camp Niasokone.

Blustery winds and leaden skies were no deterrent to the picnic given last week by Delta Gamma Birmingham alums honoring their collegiate members home for the summer. The group simply moved indoors, from spacious grounds to the equally spacious rooms of Mrs. Karl Wipking's home on

Committee Holds Coffee For Workers

A coffee for workers on the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area Bennett College campaign committee was held June 20 at the home of Mrs. Morgan D Douglas, Jr., 31805 Evergreen Road, Birmingham.

Mrs. Douglas, an alumna of the Millbrook, N. Y. college, is chairman of the fund-raising committee. Guests were members of the local campaign committee and their husbands.

At the meeting President Donald A. Eldridge of Bennett outlined the needs of the college.

IN ITS NATIONWIDE campaign Bennett is seeking $2,000,000 this year, an additional $1,000,000 by the time of its 75th anniversary in 1967 and a total of $5,000,000 over the next 10 years. The funds will be used for support of faculty salaries and construction of several new buildings.

Approximately 25 Bennett alumnae and parents of past and present students live in the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area. In the next several weeks their support of the college will be sought in personal visits made by members of the campaign committee.

Classmate Visits With Miss Scott
