

Musical Tea Is Planned

Birmingham Musicales announces a musical tea to be given benefitting the "piano fund" on Thursday, June 27, at 1:30 p.m., at the Community House. The affair is planned to retire a small debt still existing in connection with the new grand piano which the Musicales purchased for the Community House last December.

Past president Mrs. John C. Wright, Jr. is chairman of the project. Members of the Musicales appearing on the program will include: Mrs. John H. Schmidt, pianist; Mrs. Robert F. Killen, soprano, accompanied by Mrs. Wendell Holmes, and members of the Musicales string ensemble, with Arthur Stephan, director. Mrs. Clifford Nelson is in charge of the tea table decorations.

Residents of Birmingham and neighboring communities are invited to attend and see the new piano as well as hear the tickets may be obtained at the Community House or by calling Mrs. Wright, Jr.

Glitter Party Is Fund Raiser for Youngsters

MR. AND MRS. ED FLINT (FROM LEFT), THE BEN MILLS AND MRS. KIRK SPITZER

A lot of glitter turned out gold Saturday night—gold in the form of financial aid for youngsters who need help. Proceeds from the annual Carousel Ball, sponsored by the Women's Division, Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children, will go into a placement-scholarship fund, to be used for direct grants, public information and education, the publication of a comprehensive brochure and into research. Mrs. Sidney E. Chapin was chairman of this year's ball, assisted by Mrs. Roy Fruehauf, president of the Women's Division, and Mrs. J. D. Richardson, Jr., program book chairman.

Miss Shirock Graduates in Indiana

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0952

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shirock of S. Cranbrook Road last week home after the graduation of their daughter Sandra from the University of Indiana, where she was a biology major. Accompanying them on the trip were their other children, Susan and Bobby. The Shirocks left on May 31, for Louisville, Ky., their former home, where they were joined by Sandra who spent the next day with them. A graduation dinner was given in Sandra's honor with many Louisville friends invited. On June 2 the family drove up to Bloomington, Ind., and stayed on the university campus with parents of other graduates.

THE SHIROCKS gave another dinner party in Bloomington with several of Sandra's school friends invited. After graduation on June 3 the family returned home. Sandra left on a two-week motor trip to Nova Scotia with eight young women.

Late in August Sandra will report for orientation to a high school for gifted children in Hamilton, Mass., where she will teach biology. While teaching she will be studying for her masters in biology at the University of Boston.

make a three-week canoe trip into northern streams of Minnesota early in July.

THE STRAWBERRY Festival and Band Concert has been rescheduled for June 30. Fita Gebel, of the sponsoring Franklin Community Association will arrange details. Tentatively the plan calls for a gathering on the village green at 3 p.m. when strawberries and ice cream will be served. At 4 p.m. the Franklin Band, under the direction of Dr. Conrad Lam, will render a program of 10 musical numbers.

Band members Ron Nightingale, trumpet, and Douglas Gebel, trombone, can be heard this weekend in the geodesic dome with the orchestra of the Birmingham Arts Festival show, "The High Cost of Loving in Bloomington."

Representing Franklin Village Players in the cast of the Deane Coffin-Isabel Himelhoch musical are the Chet Hards, who wanted to see how they do things in the big city, and did.

Clipped Wings Honors New Members

The air line route from Detroit to Hawaii is approximately 4,000 miles, but on June 12 it was much closer for members of Clipped Wings, United Air Lines Stewardess Alumnae group.

The ex-stewardesses held a Hawaiian theme reception for forty new members. The Kona Maui Aloha (come say hello) punch and dessert was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Schaefer, 19021 Webster, Southfield. Guests were welcomed at the door with an orchid lei presented by Mrs. William Farrell, the club social chairman.

Honored guest was Mrs. James Taggart, vice president of Clipped Wings and newly-elected delegate to the Clipped Wings national convention to be held next month in Hawaii. Mrs. Taggart will represent the Detroit chapter in Honolulu for the five day convention, July 10-15.

ALTHOUGH sociability was the prime factor when Clipped Wings was first organized 10 years ago, the organization now also functions as a philanthropy.

The National Association of Retarded Children has received grants exceeding $100,000. Locally the school at Lapeer benefits from Clipped Wings functions held in the Detroit area.

gown with a jacket trimmed in Alencon lace. The illusion veil was secured by a headpiece of Alencon lace and pearls.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Albert Quorton. Famaea Snyder, Kathryn Newmyer, Jean Uley and Melissa Matthews were bridesmaids. They wore apricot and carried matching roses and carnations with carnation leaves.

James Walker assisted as best man. Robert Rogers, Gerald Root, Robert Forrester and Donald Carter seated guests. Junior ushers were John R. Uley and P. Mark Stefanski.

The ceremony was followed by a garden reception at Michigan Christian College, Rochester.

Sweeney-Keovil

First Methodist Church of Birmingham was the scene of the June 15 wedding of Gloria Diane Keovil and John Edward Sweeney.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Keovil of Bloomfield Hills. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sweeney of Haalett, Mich.

The bride wore a gown of silk organza with a bell skirt and chapel train. A crown of Alencon lace and pearls secured a French illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds, orchids and stephanotis.

JOAN KEVOIL of San Francisco attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kitty Kern of Bloomfield Hills, Nancy Thacker of Bloomfield Hills, Ruth Wilkins of Detroit and Mary Lee Canfield of Ohio.

The groom's cousin, David Isbister, was best man. His brother-in-law, Carl Wilkins, and a cousin of the bride, George Keovil, were ushers.

A reception at the Birmingham Athletic Club followed the ceremony. The bride and bridegroom attend Michigan State University.

Summer Day Camp Begins Sixth Year in Franklin

NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

Summer supplements certainly center around suburban siblings. With about two weeks of delicious nothing-to-do-ness since the school buses stopped collecting them, small fry will be finding their way back to the Franklin School playground and to the Franklin Library.

In its sixth year, the Franklin Summer Day Camp will begin Monday for two three-week periods.

"TREASURE FOR the 'Taking'" will be the theme of the second annual Reading Club, starting now at the Franklin Library, which will also hold a story hour every Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. for eight weeks.

Story-tellers scheduled to weave a magic spell from bookland for children 3 to 5 years old are Mrs. Calvin Brown, Mrs. Robert Evans and Mrs. Carlotta Blum.

Registrations for the Reading Club will start June 24 under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Potemba. Youngsters will strive to read and report on at least 10 books this summer. Maps hanging in the library will chart the progress for this literary adventure.

Library activities for the coming year will continue under the leadership of James P. O'Neill, re-elected president of the library board recently. Mrs. Eugene Kawanishi is vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Kitchen, treasurer; and Mrs. E. C. Paige, secretary.
