BERNARD C. BROWN (right), special agent in charge of the Detroit office of the FBI, and Assistant United States Attorney Gary Kasco of Bloomfield Township. Kasco is charged with printing and selling the fake ID's to area teens.

THIS IS PART of the equipment allegedly used by Gary Kasco to make fake identification cards. Birmingham police found more than 1,000 false Selective Service cards among Kasco's belongings. Authorities said the youth charged from $2 to $10 for the cards. The identification cards were used by teen-agers to buy alcoholic beverages and attend nightclubs, police said.

Area Residents Named To Plan Torch Drive

Seven Birmingham and Blochfield Hills advertising executives have been named by Thomas B. Adams, 831 W. Harborside, Blochfield Hills, Torch Drive chairman for General Promotion and Marketing Programs, to top posts in the annual "give once for all" fundraising campaign.

Richard T. O'Reilly, 2276 Pine, Birmingham, vice president and general manager, N. W. Ayer and Co., was chosen to head the special events department.

quint of the Birmingham police said his department had been investigating the case since January.

In April, Kasco was taken into Federal Court on a similar charge but was not prosecuted. At that time he was placed on probation and released.

Brown said his agents and the Birmingham police are continuing a search for persons who bought the phony documents because there was little doubt that numerous other under-aged youngsters were driving cars and obtaining liquor illegally through the use of false identification.

He warned teens that possession of a false Selective Service card is punishable by up to five years imprisonment and up to a $10,000 fine.

Judge Lifts S'field Tax Injunction

Circuit Court Judge Arthur E. Moore has lifted an injunction obtained by a group of taxpayers against the City of Southfield, to enable the city to collect its taxes.

The Southfield Federation of Civic Associations had requested the injunction. The group is suing the city charging that assessment cuts on commercial land have been made at the expense of residential property owners.

THE INJUNCTION was signed June 13 by Circuit Judge William J. Beer. The collection ban was lifted by Judge Moore who stated that tax rebates can be made if the plaintiffs win their suit.

Judge Moore ruled that part of the tax money collected on some 100 disputed assessments be placed temporarily in a special bank account.
