

Romance Continues to Highlight Social Calendar

MRS. HOWSE

MRS. SUNDWALL

MRS. MORTON

MRS. ROSS

MRS. WILLIAMS

MRS. COFLIN

MRS. O'NEILL

MRS. BIRD

MRS. KEATING

MRS. DOMBROWSKI

MRS. HIPSKY

MRS. BORLET

MRS. WOLLGAST

MRS. MARTENS

MRS. SONNENBERG

MRS. GILLEN

HOWSE-McCURRY

At a ceremony solemnized Friday evening in Christ Church Cranbrook, Karel Lee McCurry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. McCurry of Yarmouth Road, Birmingham, became the bride of Robert G. Howse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Howse of Pontiac. Immediately following the double ring service, a reception was given at Oakland Hills Country Club.

A gown of silk organza fashioned with a controlled skirt and detachable chapel-length train was worn by the bride. Swiss lattice lace formed a jacket that covered the fitted bodice, and sculptured lace created a ruffled neckline. Silk blossoms secured the bouffant veil.

MISS McNAB

MRS. STARKEL

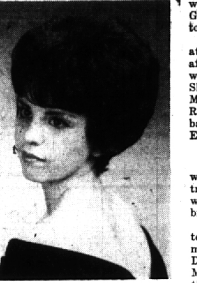

MISS HEWITT

MISS PIAZZA

MISS McNEILL

MISS ELLIOTT

MORTON-STEIN
A caravan of five cars took off from Birmingham Friday morning headed for Peoria, Ill., and the wedding there on Saturday of Melinda Annie Stein and James Alexander Morton III.

Melinda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Stein of Peoria, and Jim is the son of Mrs. John F. McLean, Jr. of Birmingham and the late Dr. James A. Morton.

ROSS-BAIN
Carol Ann Bain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Bain of Waddington Road, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows Saturday to Raymond F. Ross, Jr., son of Mrs. Raymond F. Ross of Muskegon and the late Mr. Ross.

Dr. W. Glen Harris of the First Presbyterian Church officiated at the 6 o'clock service, assisted by James K. Bain, Jr., brother of the bride and a student at Princeton Theological Seminary.

BRIDAL ROBES combined silk linen and Alencon lace, with a veil of sheerest illusion falling from a headdress of matching linen and lace. The bridal bouquet was of white roses.

Mrs. James K. Bain, Jr., of Princeton, N. J., was matron of honor, and Catherine A. Steffek of Ann Arbor and Birmingham, were the only other attendants. Both wore pale pink silk linens with matching headpieces, and carried pink roses.

Following a reception and dinner at Orchard Lake Country Club, the couple left on a wedding trip, after which they will be at home in San Bernardino, Calif.

WILLIAMS-ROSS
Alexander Charles Billson of Lathrup Village was best man, ushera including William E. Mosher III, Jeffrey Howard, a cousin of the bride; Michael Williams, brother of the bridegroom; and Robert M. Brzozowski, Ring bearer was Edward Roberts, Jr.

THE BRIDE wore a taupe de soie gown fashioned with Alencon lace and seed pearls, the gown falling into a chapel train. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of staphanotis, eucharis lilies and ivy.

Mrs. Donald Davies was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Barbara Fortenbacher and the groom's sisters, Mrs. Stephen O. Stubbs and Margaret Bird. They were dressed alike in white linen sheaths, the necklines outlined in daisies and the sashes and hats of matching green ribbon. They carried small bouquets of daisies and ivy.

STEPHEN O. STUBBS, the groom's brother-in-law, served as best man, and ushers included Richard Adams, William Gaster, Edward Arnos and Roger Brax.

After a wedding trip to northern Michigan the couple will make their home in Birmingham.

ATTENDANTS, ALL dressed identically in jonquil yellow, included Terri McCurry, who was her sister's maid of honor; Gayle McCurry, and Barbara Falowere of Birmingham; Linda Hubbard of Skokie, Ill., and Margaret McCurry, a cousin, of Lake Forest, Ill.

Clyde R. Howse of Mt. Pleasant was best man for his brother and seating the guests were Fred Roser, Harry Freeman III, and Bill Pizutti, all of Pontiac; Roger Srigley of Royal Oak and Brant Cotterman of White Plains, N. Y.

Following a wedding trip in Canada, the couple will be at home at Union Lake.

SUNDWALL-CHAPMAN
Linda Ann Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Chapman of Riverside Drive, Birmingham, and d. Harry McKay Sundwall, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry W. Sundwall of Tempe, Ariz., were united in marriage Saturday evening, June 15, in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Bloomfield Hills.

Edwin B. Jones, president of the Detroit Stake, performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Oakland Hills Country Club.

Mr. Chapman gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of silk organza with a fitted bodice, the snout sleeves and skirt fashioned with appliqued hand lace. Her headpiece was a crown of silk organza with a fitted bodice, the snout sleeves and skirt fashioned with appliqued hand lace. She carried a crescent bouquet of staphanotis and Amazon lilies.

WILMA STEIN was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Elizabeth Callif of Rock Island, Ill.; Lucia Scully of Peoria, and Lora Morton of Birmingham. They all wore aqua dresses with overskirts of white organza, the same organza used for the bodices which were embroidered in sprigs of lilies of the valley. They carried nosegays of daisies, ivy and calladium leaves.

Robert Sullivan of San Francisco was best man, and seating the guests were Thomas Martin, brother of the bridegroom; John R. Polk of Chicago and Stuart Dawson of Winetka, Ill.

WILLIAM LACY was best man, and ushers included Francis Dudley, William Pearson, Edward Larchen, Jr. and Gray Larchen. Edward Pead, brother of the bride, was junior usher.

Following a motor trip West, the couple will be at home on Grosse Ile.

MRS. G. LARRY Howell of Metamora was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. Wayne Johnson of Newport Beach, Calif.; Mrs. John Archangeli of Birmingham and Mrs. Gary Bell of Detroit. They all wore full-skirted yellow organza and carried yellow daisies.

Robert L. Swats III of Royal Oak was best man, and seating the guests were John Lehman and

THE BRIDE wore a gown of nylon taffeta fashioned with a bell-shaped bolero jacket and detachable train. Her fingertip veil was secured to a single satin rose, and she carried phalaenopsis orchids with carnellia leaves.

MRS. JIM SEBBRE of Kalamazoo, twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included another sister, Jill, and Mrs. William Purdy of Perdue. They all wore turquoise chiffon and carried matching fugi mums.

Ernest Sewell of Bedford Township was best man, and ushers were Raymond Chubb, and David Moore, both of Detroit.

Following a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains, the couple is at home in Royal Oak.

HIPSKY-HOBBS
At a double ring ceremony solemnized Saturday in Northwestem Baptist Church, and bride- maids included another sister, Jill, and Mrs. William Purdy of Perdue. They all wore turquoise chiffon and carried matching fugi mums.

Ernest Sewell of Bedford Township was best man, and ushers were Raymond Chubb, and David Moore, both of Detroit.

Following a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains, the couple is at home in Royal Oak.

MRS. THOMAS PALUCK of Parsippany, N. J., was the matron of honor. She wore a yellow dress of oriental silk and carried a bouquet of yellow, gold and tangerine carnations.

James Tyson of New Haven, Conn., was best man. The usher was the bride's brother, Lawrence Chapman.

After a wedding trip to Arizona, the couple will live in East Lansing.

COFLIN-FEAD
Wearing a princess style gown of white peau de soie made with a Sabrina neckline, elbow-length sleeves of re-embroidered Alencon lace and a chapel train, Susan Maxwell Fead walked up the aisle of Holy Name Church Saturday to become the bride of Wallace Clarke Coffin.

She is the daughter of Mrs.

COFLIN-FEAD
Wearing a princess style gown of white peau de soie made with a Sabrina neckline, elbow-length sleeves of re-embroidered Alencon lace and a chapel train, Susan Maxwell Fead walked up the aisle of Holy Name Church Saturday to become the bride of Wallace Clarke Coffin.

She is the daughter of Mrs.

O'NEILL-FORSTER
Sally Ann Forster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Forster,

MRS. SCANLON
Richard Harre, both of Chicago, and Louis Schroeder of Hinsdale, Ill.

Following a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will be at home in Chicago.

BIRD-ARNOS
David Cheever Bird, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bird of Birmingham, was married June 22 to Cornelia Jean Arnos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rolland B. Arnos of Toledo, O. The ceremony took place at the First Congregational Church of Toledo with a reception following at the Park Lane Hotel.

Both are graduates of the University of Michigan in 1962, Mr. Bird with a master's degree in Business Administration and Mrs. Bird from the School of Music.

FURSTENBERG-DOBROWSKI
Judith Anne Furstenberg and Francis Dobrowski repeated their nuptial vows June 15 at a double ring ceremony in the Serbian Orthodox Church, Detroit. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Furstenberg of Lathrup Village, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dobrowski of Detroit.

The bride wore a gown of nylon taffeta fashioned with a bell-shaped bolero jacket and detachable train. Her fingertip veil was secured to a single satin rose, and she carried phalaenopsis orchids with carnellia leaves.

worn by Katherine Noreen McGowan for her marriage Saturday to Terrence Edward Keating. The pair repeated their vows at noon in Holy Name Church, after which a garden reception was given in the bride's home. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil J. McGowan of Lahser Road, Birmingham, and her husband's parents are the Thomas Edward Keatings of Detroit.

THE BRIDAL gown was made with a bell skirt and detachable train, and blush pink gliminias were used in the crescent-shaped bridal bouquet.

Connie McGowan was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Brunda Reeber and Deanna Maher of Detroit; Shellia McGibbon of Birmingham and Letitia Kerlig of Mt. Clemens. They all wore sherbert green linen and carried royal blue gliminias.

Maurice Le Fere of Jackson was best man, and seating the guests were Richard Lynch of Arlington, Va., and James Delaney, Joseph Hinsberg and George Reeber, all of Detroit.

Following a trip to Notre Dame and Chicago, the couple will make their home in Detroit.