Localites to Attend DAC Double Header

The Detroit Athletic Club will have two festive "Cleopatra" theater parties: The first on July 10 for 500 members and guests, and a second for the same number to take place on July 15.

When the DAC announced to members it had taken 500 tickets for the July 10 presentation and would have a special dinner beforehand and bus transportation to and from the theater, the 500 places were snapped up in nothing flat.

Not only that—there was a huge overflow of requests for dinner and ticket reservations. Arrangements were made, therefore, for a repeat performance. The SRO sign went up in two days for this second dinner-theater fete.

Son is Born

A FEW OF THOSE who are Birmingham with reservations for the tenth are the Norman J. Fredricksons, the E. O. Georges, Mrs. Fred E. Bigelow, the Earl S. Holts

Entertaining 175 youngsters takes a lot of doing, but Mr. and Mrs. William E. Miller of Bristol Lane, Birmingham Farms, didn't flinch when daughter Jacqueline—better known as "Jackie"—handed them her guest list for a party marking her graduation from Holy Name School.

The party took place on the Miller property (of which there's plenty) from 1 to 5 p.m., during which time a dozen grills were kept fired, hot dogs and hamburgers roasted, buckets of pop consumed and lots of dancing done to the strains of strolling musicians.

Additional adult chaperones included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lyons, the Richard Ruess; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Keating, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ivory, the Frank Quails, the Frank Murphys, Mr. and Mrs. William Cutting, Mrs. Dorothy Thompson and Mrs. Theresa Kreuz.

Lathrup Boy Is Married In South Bend

Gloria Ann Porter, daughter of Mr. Harold O. Porter of South Bend, Ind., and the late Mr. Porter, spoke her marriage vows June 22 to David Grover Nolt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Nolt of Lathrup Village.

Both the ceremony and reception which followed took place in Grace Methodist Church, South Bend.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her uncle, Merlin A. Porter of LaPorte, Ind., the bride wore a gown of silk organza designed with a basque bodice, sculptured portrait neckline edged in Chantilly lace, a bouffant skirt and chapel train. Her veil of imported silk tulle fell from a pillbox of lace and bead pearls, and she carried a short cascade arrangement of leguminous foliage with white roses and stephanotis.

Attendants, all of whom were gowned in open blue and white, included Janice Ariene Porter of Boston, Mass., sister of the bride and maid of honor; Mrs. Donald L. Porter of LaPorte; Mrs. William Appelgarth of Michigan City, Ind.; and Kathleen Gaylor of Mishawaka, Ind. Susan Nolt, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

EARL R. NOLT of Rochester, Mich., was his brother's best man, and ushers were Harry Westphal, Jr., of Michigan City; John Gilbert Puse of Fortiada, Lawrence Backus of Owosso and James A. Hoxall Jr. of Detroit.

The rehearsal dinner given June 21 at the Innua Club in South Bend by the bridegroom's parents included the bridal party, close friends and out-of-town guests.

The couple will make their home in South Bend.

Local Women Will Attend Convention

Mrs. Donald L. Weldon of Bloomfield Hills will attend the thirty-fifth national convention of Kappa Delta Sorority to be held at the Roosevelt Hotel in New Orleans, La., July 1-July 5.

Mrs. Weldon is Lambda Province President of Kappa Delta. In this capacity she has supervision over college chapters of the sorority in Michigan.

Accompanying their mother will be daughters Mike and Tracy, who will stop over in Louisville, Ky., to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owen Ketchak, while their mother attends the convention.

Mrs. John W. Clark, 1346 Henrietta St., will leave June 30 by plane to attend the convention. Mrs. Clark, who plans to remain for a short visit in New Orleans, after the convention, is Province Alumnae Officer, Province 4, of Kappa Delta. In this capacity she supervises the activities of alumnae associations in Michigan and Ohio.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cheatham, former residents of West Dearborn, who moved into their new home at 6850 Candlewood Trail on April 7? Cheatham is a supervisor in the employment department of General Motors. Residing with them is Mrs. Cheatham's mother. They have a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chandler who live in St. Clair Shores. At the moment their hobby is preparing the grounds surrounding their home for future gardening.

Secretaries Hold Final Meeting

The Golden Gavel Room at Jeri's Restaurant in Detroit was the setting on June 18 for the year's final dinner meeting of the South Oakland Chapter of the National Secretaries Association, International.

Highlight of this occasion was the installation of new officers for the 1963-64 fiscal year in a candlelight ceremony. The six new officers are Gladys H. Storch, president; Norma G. McIntosh, first vice president; Helen R. Gunn, second vice president; Maxine H. Threm, recording secretary; Vera A. Brannan, corresponding secretary, and Lois M. Russell, treasurer.

THE SOUTH Oakland Chapter Scholarship Award, presented yearly to a worthy high school or college student, was this year granted to Sandra Mary Thomsen, 18, of 63 West Brickley, Hazel Park. On the basis of the SOC Scholarship Award, she will attend Oakland University, Rochester, during the winter term.

Another high spot of the dinner was the presentation of the chapter's Merit Award to Lois K. Gaigalas, 60 Maywood, Birmingham, and past president of the chapter. This award is based on the total points accrued by the member by participation in certain projects or programs and attendance at various functions both in and out of chapter during the past fiscal year.
