

Young Fry Keep Family in Uproar

The Merton J. Bell family of 2140 Yarnmouth Road are ready to settle down for a "breather" following weeks of exciting events. First of all, daughter Cindy arrived home from her freshman year at the University of Arizona with tall plans for the summer and tall stacks of usual college gear. Daughter Donna is taking drivers' training along with an eight week course at the Cranbrook Summer Theater, and son Larry completed his junior year at Seaholm and was among those chosen to spend a week at Wolverine Boy's State, East Lansing, which he did, returning home today.

FRIDAY, LARRY, PARENTS, sisters and Jose Jaime (he is an American Field Service Program exchange student from Zaragoza, Spain) left for a week-end visit to Niagara Falls.

It was a special farewell excursion in honor of Jose, who has lived with the Bell family since August while attending Seaholm School, from where he recently was graduated. Jose returned to his home and family yesterday. He will attend City College of Zaragoza a year before entering the University of Madrid. More about Larry Bell. He departed from Detroit Monday as a Michigan Council of Churches exchange student. He will be in Lubek, Germany, for eight weeks.

MRS. RICHARD SCHMID of Bloomfield entertained at a luncheon Thursday, June 13, in honor of Mrs. Alan T. Pearce (the Peaces are moving to Chicago) and Mrs. Williams Sutherland (the Sutherlands are moving to New York). The hostess and her ten guests came up with a clever idea for farewell presents for the honored guests. They presented each with a needle point canvas to be finished and made into a purse. The thought which prompted giving needle point was to insure being remembered during the waving time and for the many years of using the completed art work.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan T. Pearce are making their headquarters at the Edgewater beach Hotel, Chicago, while shopping for a house to accommodate their family by Aug. 1 (moving date). Prior to the Chicago trip, Maureen Pearce was honored at a farewell luncheon given by Mrs. Charles Planting at her Bloomfield Hills home June 20.

ATTENDING THE TERRACE buffet luncheon were Mesdames Andrew J. Shepard, William Mullen, David Bird, Albert J. Jehle Jr., Mark Nielson, Robert Messinger, James Jamieson, Lawrence M. Carino, James Chase, Richard Weir, Thomas Mitchell, Bruce Smith, Robert Baxter, Richard Schmidt, James Goldsmith, Marvin Gielow, Charles Grissom and Lawrence Finn, all of Birmingham and Bloomfield. Mrs. Richard Stein, Maureen's mother, arrived from Elizabeth, N. J., to attend the party in honor of her daughter.

COLOR Mrs. Robert G. Howse "happy!" Karel Lee McCurry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McCurry, became the bride of Robert G. Howse at a 7:30 p.m. wedding ceremony Friday at Christ Church Cranbrook. Previous to her marriage Karel was honored at innumerable parties. Color them "pretty!" On June 15 a pin and white bridal shower and luncheon was given by Mrs. Dale Christman, Mrs. A. V. Witbeck (both of North Cranbrook), and Mrs. James E. Boyle at the latter's Tilbury Road residence. A colorful patio was the setting for the practical kitchen shower, where the honoree received a favorite receipt from each guest. Mrs. Clyde G. Howse, mother of the groom, was among the twenty-four present.

ON TUESDAY, June 18, Mrs. Read Jenkins entertained for Karel at her Bloomfield Hills home. Color scheme for the round-the-clock shower was yellow and white. Among the twenty guests were Barb Falconer, Diane Ryan, Judy Ewald, Hope Hymans (former classmates of the bride), Mrs. Vincent Van Fleet, Mrs. Henry T. Schlachter and Mrs. Harvey W. Ewald.

Mrs. David B. Falconer entered at the spinster dinner on Wednesday, June 19, at Oakland Hill Country Club, and on Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Howse, parents of the groom, gave the rehearsal dinner at Devon Gables.

FRIENDS OF JIM MOSBY, son of Mrs. Robert B. Mosby of Shingle Drive and the late Mr. Mosby, and of Maggie McNish of Rochester, Minn., traveled far and wide to witness the marriage of the two on June 15 in Rochester.

Peter, Paul and Mary of New York were among the celebrities to honor the popular couple. Noel Paul Stooke, formerly of Lincoln Road and Birmingham High School classmate of Jim's, is Paul of the famous trio. Fans of Mazy Travers may be interested to know that for the occasion she borrowed a hat under which she concealed all of that long hair. Also from New York was Jim's best man, Tom Halsted, another Birmingham High School classmate.

BIRMINGHAM AND Bloomfield friends returning last week from the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halsted, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Colbert, Charles (Pete) Kaas Jr. (he was in San Francisco on a business trip); Jamie Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barnes, and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Weitz, and son, Peter, who were house-guests of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Faulconer. Dr. Faulconer is chief of staff at Mayo Clinic.

Graduation Parties
Mrs. Herbert Woolson and her daughter, Margie, of 566 Lahser Road, Birmingham, were co-hostesses at a tea recently for Seaholm classmates of Margie's who graduated with her on June 13. Kathy Allison of Burning Bush Road, Birmingham, gave a similar party for the same group.
