

Detroiters with joie de vivre love

Englander's
 Choreographers and chemists . . . geologists and gym teachers . . . stay-at-homes and gadabouts . . . debutantes and dentists . . . Detroiters with interests love us!
 Life is just one gay adventure for connoisseurs who live for forays at Englander's unique Decorating Ateliers (where else such titillating exotics, such tempting objets d'art) . . . for homemakers who adore Englander's talented interior designers (where else such pleasant results, and at no charge to you) . . . for the high fashion with discriminating taste who glory in Englander's exclusive designs (where else furniture couture so haute in surroundings so sublime). How very nice to be precisely your cup of tea . . . and at sensible prices, darling.

Brownie Troop Attends Father-daughter Party

By ELEANOR NELSEN
 Special Writer
 Brownie Troop No. 666 of the Westchester area took part in the Westwind Neighborhood Association when the South Oakland Council of Girl Scouts held their annual father-daughter party of the town on Friday at the Northwood Inn.

Walter's uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. David Schurgin and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schurgin, will give a brunch on Saturday, at the Scotch and Sirloin.

Fried chicken with all the trimmings down to watermelon for dessert was catered for the group. Mrs. Robert Weir of Bradford Drive, leader of troop No. 666, was in charge of games for the day.

Girls from the troop who attended with their dads were Susan O'Neil, Marsha Factor, Bonnie Decker, Karen Weir, Barbara Dufan, Cindy Cole, Maria Garber, Darlene Jacobites, Debra Rentschler, Janet Rogers and Patti Sue Rose.

MARSHA AND her dad, Sidney Factor, won the horseshoe contest while Susan O'Neil and her dad, Francis O'Neil, took first place in the wheelbarrow race.

Jeffery Ruppert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ruppert of Lahser Road, came home on May 29 to spend a two-week leave from the navy with his parents. Jeff, a former Seaholm student enlisted in March and received basic training at San Diego, Calif. He is now taking further instructions at Pensacola, Fla.

While at home he enjoyed golfing and seeing several ball games with his friends.

MR. AND MRS. Leslie Share of Middlebury Lane are the proud parents of Walter, who will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah on Saturday.

Approximately 70 out of town guests are expected to arrive from such places as California, New York, Ohio and Canada. The festivities will take place at the Share home at a formal dinner to be served out-of-doors in a huge tent that will be erected on the Share grounds.

Walter's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ben Schurgin will give a luncheon for the guests

for a quick look at the city and enjoy some of the entertainment it provides is what Mr. and Mrs. Harold Luvich of Knollwood Circle did when they left June 9 and returned June 13.

While in the western city they stayed at the Riviera.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE
 The Cranbrook-Maple Association held a meeting of their officers, block captains and committee chairmen on June 18 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Mooney of South Williamsbury.

A discussion was held concerning deed restrictions and township ordinances.

MR. AND MRS. Nicholas Mitchell of South Cranbrook Cross Road hosted a party on June 15 with the honored guests being Mr. and Mrs. Philip Christl.

Mr. Christl recently returned from a two-week trip to Athens, Greece. He brought to the party records of Greek music and large colored pictures.

Other guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Funtz, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mistoopoulos and Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell.

A little princess has joined the family circle of the Harold Hillier home on South Cranbrook Cross. Elizabeth Ann, who will be called "Beth", was born May 29 at Beaumont Hospital. She weighed six pounds, six and a half ounces.

Mom and Dad aren't the only ones who are proud of her, because her brothers Mike and Jeff think she's cute too.

WHEN WOMEN from different cities who have been friends since the first grade visit, there is never a dull moment in the conversation.

Such was the case when Miss Ellen Marshall of Pittsburgh spent several days at the Charles Richards home on Bassett Place. Miss Marshall drove here, arriving on June 14 and stayed until June 18.
