

Island Adventure

James and Julie Minnall are well-eyed over a recent trip with their parents to Mackinac Island when they inadvertently hopped into a surry with the fringe on top and found other passengers were Gov. and Mrs. George Romney—as a matter of fact, lack of space made it necessary for Julie to sit on the Governor's lap. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Minnall of Northlawn Drive, Birmingham.

NORTH ADAMS

Farrs Will Vacation On Family Sailboat In Sarnia Waters

By ELIZABETH YATES
Special Writer

It's vacation time in the North Adams area with residents planning trips while others are entertaining houseguests at home. The Robert Farrs of Hickory Heights Drive and children, Becky and Jim, will be spending most of their summer weekends on their 25 foot sailboat "Jinabare" in the waters around the Sarnia Yacht Club.

They have been competing in the Sunday races at the Club and tied for second place in the race last weekend.

The family plans on occupying the month of August at their cottage near St. Clair for swimming and sailing.

MRS. WARREN SIMON of Romney Drive and children, Warren, Jr. and Valerie, will be spending the next two weeks visiting relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa. They will be houseguests of Mrs. Simon's mother, Mrs. Mimi Quinn.

The Bryce Beechers and daughter, Susan, of Vhay Lane are spending this week visiting Mrs. Emma DeLong, Mrs. Beecher's mother, in Chicago.

In July their plans include a tour of Mackinac Island and the Upper Peninsula on their two-week vacation.

The Eugene Waggeners and daughter, Lee, of Beech Road are looking forward to two leisurely weeks of cottage life at Eagle River, Wis., in July. They have been trekking to the same area for the past four years.

Visiting the Waggener family from Bradenton, Fla., for the last two weeks were Mr. and Mrs. William Holt, parents of Mrs. Waggener.

The Thomas Robert, Jr., of South Reading Road are looking forward to a two week visit to Elgin, Ohio, visiting them in July.

THE W. JOHN FOXWELLS of Oakhill Drive are expecting their first guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Butterworth of Romford, Essex, England, July 1. The Butterworths will be arriving on the Queen Mary and plan to tour New York for a few days and visit Washington, D.C. on this first trip to the United States. They will be visiting the Foxwells for a month.

Visiting the H. Joseph Wright family of Whittier Drive for two weeks are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilharm of Elgin, Ill., parents of Mrs. Wright.

Todd Wright will be returning to Elgin with his grandparents next week for a month's vacation.

The Harry Mitchells of Whittier Drive had his parents visiting here for a few days last week. They are the Harry L. Mitchells of Angola, Ind.

RECENTLY THE Harry Mitchells entertained at a farewell buffet supper party for the Robert Bernards of Huntington Woods, who were transferred to New York. Twenty friends and former Huntington Woods neighbors were present to give the departing couple a gift of Silver candle sticks and plate.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hanselman of Square Lake Road were a "very surprised couple" Saturday evening when they entered the Stefan Nowak home on Daleford Drive and learned they were the honored guests at a farewell dinner party.

The group joining the surprise were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. John Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Escho, all of Charnwood subdivision.

The Hanselmans will be moving to Libertyville, Ill. the end of June.

THE RICHARD SPAULDINGS of Pine Hill Drive spent the past four days at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island. They were among a group there attending the state convention of Consumers Power.

Judith Ann Gondek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gondek of Ramsbury Drive, was married to Norman Hines of Detroit in an evening ceremony at Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church on June 8. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Hines of Detroit.

The maid of honor and best man were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Welsh of Birmingham. The attendants were Miss Dorothy Robinson of Auburn Heights, Ronald Murray of East Lansing, Lynn Schemansky and Mark Gondek of Birmingham.

A church reception was held before the couple departed to northern Michigan on their honeymoon.

THE HINES have moved into the Joseph Schumann, Jr., home on Malvern Drive while the Schemansky are in Australia for six months. Charnwood subdivision neighbors gave a dual party welcoming the Hines and bidding the Schemansky a good voyage the first week in June.

Twenty-four Boy Scouts and four leaders returned home on Monday fired but enthusiastic over their four-day camping experience at Camp Nardin.

The two troops, No. 2 and 163, left on Friday for their first trip and test run. Putting the girls through the paces were leaders, Mrs. Hugh Carney of Sugaw Creek, Mrs. John Ziegler of Northwood Drive, Mrs. John L'Hote of Woodside Court and Mrs. James Palmer of South Reading Road.

The troops will become one troop in September with Mrs. John Ziegler as their leader.

St. Stephen's Nursery Term

St. Stephen's Cooperative Nursery, Birmingham, is taking applications for the 1963-64 session to begin in the fall.

Classes for four and five year olds will be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Other classes for three (third birthday before Dec. 1, 1963) and four year olds are scheduled for Tuesday and Thursday at the same hours.

Nursery school will observe the identical holiday schedule as the Bloomfield Public school system.

CLASSES for three year olds will feature a play group, and the older children will be offered pre-kindergarten learning. Teachers are Mrs. Carl Sayers, 883 Madison, Birmingham, and Mrs. Eric Wittshire, 2882 Mascfield Court, Birmingham.

Additional information can be obtained from Mrs. Pat Hart, 4820 N. Adams, Birmingham.
