EDWARDS-MIDDLETON

Wearing a floor-length sheath gown of white silk organza over taffeta, Sharon Ann Middleton walked up the aisle of All Saints Episcopal Church in Detroit Saturday evening to become the bride of John Clarke Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Edwards of Midland, Ont.

Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Coats Middleton of N. Woodward Ave., Birmingham, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Edwards of Midland, Ont.

THE BRIDAL robes were further distinguished by a shallow scoop neckline yoked in sheer organza, three-quarter sleeves and an overskirt of silk embroidered with miniature silken floss motifs. Her flowers were white sweetheart, rose, stephanotis and ivy.

Axaxie Bemjan of Detroit was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. Robert Middleton of Troy; Mrs. Richard Middleton of Royal Oak (sister-in-law of the bride) and Jane Edwards, sister of the bridegroom. Three nieces of the bride, Debbie, Laurie and Kimberly Middleton, were flower girls.

Gowns of powder blue silk organza over taffeta, with powder blue satin trim accenting the bodice and skirt, were worn by the bridesmaids, who carried baskets of white daisies, pink sweetheart rosebuds and ivy. The same blue and white color scheme was carried out in the dresses of the honor maid and flower girls.

BRYSON McQUIRTER, Jr. of Midland, was best man, and seating the guests were Robert and Richard Middleton, Bernie Deroces and Douglas McMillan, all of Midland.

Following a reception at the Women's City Club, Detroit, the couple left on a wedding trip to Stowe, Vt., after which they will make their home in Midland.

SMITH-AYLWARD

Pamela Ann Aylward became the bride of Michael Kline Smith at an 11 o'clock ceremony Saturday morning, June 15, at St. Mary's Church in Marshall, Mich. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Aylward of Marshall gave the reception at Holiday Inn in Battle Creek.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Birmingham. His brother Gary served as best man, and ushers included Thomas J. Aylward IV, brother of the bride; Robert Culp, Robert McDonald and Donald Morrison, all of Indianapolis, Ind.; Robert Schultz of Kalamazoo and Frederick Carr of East Lansing.

MRS. GARY SMITH, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Ann Tomson of Geneva, Ill., cousin of the bride; Susan Althaus of Wyoming, O.; Susan Cook of Grandville, Mich.; Mrs. Dan Pallick of East Lansing; Susan Overman of Euclid, O.; Catherine and Elizabeth Aylward were their sister's junior bridesmaids.

After a wedding trip in Michigan, the couple will be at home in E. Lansing, where both are students at Michigan State University.

BUESSER-GUEST

Pale ivory peau de soie accented by a panel of pearl-encrusted lace fashioned the bridal gown of Julia Forsyth Guest for her marriage Friday evening to Frederick Gustavus Buesser III.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Andrew Guest of Covington Road, Birmingham, and her husband's parents are the Frederick G. Buessers, Jr., of Broadway Blvd., Birmingham.

The couple repeated their vows in the Church of the Holy City, after which a reception was given at Oakland Hills Country Club.

ANNE BUESSER, sister of the bridegroom, and Margo Mensing, both of Birmingham, were bridesmaids, and Mrs. C. Elder, also of Birmingham, was matron of honor. They were dressed in turquoise sheaths and carried pale yellow carnations.

Men in the wedding party, all of Birmingham, included Robert Lovell, Jr., James A. Guest, Jr., James E. Griffin and Edward Busch.

Following a wedding trip to Montreal, the couple will be at home in Ann Arbor.

FEELY-ANNAS

Sally Elizabeth Annas and Thomas Joseph Feely repeated their nuptial vows Saturday at noon in Holy Name Church, immediately after which a breakfast and reception were given at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Annas of Red Oaks, Covington Road, Birmingham, and the bridegroom is the son of Emmett P. Feely of Overhill Road, Birmingham, and the late Mrs. Feely.

IVORY SILK peau de soie with a high bateau neckline and three-quarter sleeves fashioned the bridal robes. From a bowed front narrow a self belt, wide pleats molded a graceful, controlled skirt which extended into a traditional chapel train. Attached to her sash was a double tiered waist-length veil of ivory illusion. She carried Eucharist lilies and ivy on a white miasal.
