Wedding Bells Echo in Suburbia

MILWAUKEE, Wis., was her sister's matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Margot Trauten of Rock Island, Ill.; Mrs. Francis E. Miller, Jr. of Greenburg, Pa., sister of the bridegroom; Patricia Heatherson of Birmingham and Mary Brudley Stephenson of Bloomfield Hills, Margaret Annas was her sister's junior bridesmaid.

With the exception of Margaret, who was dressed in all white polished cotton accented by tiny blue buttons, the attendants were all in blue and white imported linen and lace fashioned with square necklines, short sleeves and straight skirts with controlled fullness from the waistline. They carried nosegays of blue delphinium and bachelor buttons.

EMMETT FEELY, JR., of Marquette, Mich., was his brother's best man, and ushers were Anthony J. Rocco, Jr. of Cleveland; Terrence E. Nagel and Thomas J. Roberts, Jr., of Birmingham; Edward Lyons and Richard L. Jannelli, of Detroit; Francis J. Miller, Jr. of Greenburg and Peter W. Platten of Westchester, Ill.

MILLER-BOGAN

Mary Ellen Bogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bogan of Safford Road, Birmingham, became the bride of Charles MacDonald Miller of Chicago on June 22. He is the son of Mrs. L. B. Miller of Milwaukee.

The bride chose a gown of silk organza over tulle with matching overskirts and carried deep blue bachelor buttons.

NANCY BOGAN was maid of honor for her sister, bridesmaids including Mrs. Edwin F. Berrier, Jr. and Nancy Hitch, cousins of the bride from Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. Gray Tombs of Chicago. They were all gowned in powder blue tulle sheaths with matching overskirts and carried deep blue bachelor buttons.

Thomas Sheehan was best man, and seating the guests were Charles Perry, Jack Bogan and Gerald Fowler.

A luncheon and reception at Pine Lake Country Club followed the ceremony after which the couple left on a trip to Hidden Valley. On their return, they will live in Chicago.

MUHLITNER-MacMILLAN

Lillian Terry MacMillan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gaston MacMillan of Bronxville, N. Y., was married Saturday afternoon to David Robert Muhltner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert William Muhltner of Birmingham.

The 4 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Osborne Budd at Saint John's Episcopal Church, Buckhake. A reception at the Sivanoy Country Club, Bronxville, followed the ceremony.

DIANA DUNN, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Nancy Muhltner, sister of the groom; Elliot Bostwick of Shelburne, N.Y. and Cynthia Hann of Bronxville.

Peter C. Wells of Littleton, Colo., was best man. The ushers were Douglas P. MacMillan, brother of the bride; John H. Fitzgibbon, Jr., of Fairfield, Conn.; Michael E. Stimmomon of Rye, N. Y. and R. Leonard Stokes, Jr. of Bronxville.

THE BRIDE is a graduate of Dana Hall and attended Skidmore College. Mr. Muhltner is a graduate of Seaboard High School and Dartmouth College, where he is a member of Bones Gate.

After their wedding trip, the couple will reside in Ann Arbor where Mr. Muhltner will attend the University of Michigan Law School.

PULCIPHER-STAUNTON

At a ceremony solemnized in The First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham Saturday, Joy Saver Staunton became the bride of Robert Stanley Pulcipher.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Saver, daughter of Bloomfield Hills and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. DeWitt Pulcipher of Wynnewood, Pa.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory peau de soie with bateau neckline, molder bodice and elbow length sleeves with inserts of heirloom lace and trimmed with silk rosebuds from her mother's wedding gown. She wore a crown of heirloom Brussels lace with additional finger-length veil of ivory silk illusion and carried a present style bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids adorned with trailing white flowers.

Mrs. Richard T. Staunton, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a floor-length gown of ivory with white organza with eyelid embroidery. She carried a bouquet of cascading blue delphiniums and roses accented with ivy. Her headpiece was ivy accented by sweetheart roses.

The bride's maid gowned correspondingly to the matron of honor, were Alice Bradburn of Birmingham; Hedi Giattelli, Birmingham; Judith Frutig, Gross Pointe; Mary Susan Church, Uica. The flower girl was Caroline Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Clark of Birmingham.

Donald C. Pulcipher of Frankfurt, Germany, and Washington D. C., was his brother's best man. Ushers were Richard T. Staunton, brother of the bride; Robert C. Kline of King of Prussia, Pa.; Stephen J. Roby, Milltown, N. Y.; Eugene Elytr, Birmingham; Albert Caesar, Detroit, and George D. Moffett III, Gross Pointe.

Following the ceremony a garden reception and supper was held at the home of the bride's parents.

THE COUPLE will spend their honeymoon traveling through the Canadian Rockies visiting Banff and Lake Louise and will return to Denver, Colo., about the last of July. They will be at home in Denver the first of August.

Mrs. Pulcipher attended Kingswood School, Cranbrook, where she graduated in 1956. After receiving her degree in Education from Northwestern University, she has been teaching in the Chazy Creek school system, a suburb of Denver. While in college she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.
