FRANKLIN—Preparations for the fourth prelude busting activity in Franklin homes. Lawns get mowed as hostesses brighten corners and mold salads for family get-togethers.

Before adjourning formal programs for the summer, Mrs. D. L. Taylor, newly elected president of the Franklin branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, announced her new committee chairmen.

They will meet early in August to formulate plans for the coming year.

Serving as chairmen are Mrs. E. Ray, civic committee; Mrs. Nell Warren, conversation; Mrs. R. J. Swift, flower show; Mrs. R. J. Rowse, finance; Mrs. L. J. Roberts, historian; and Mrs. P. L. Jaynes, horticulture.

OTHERS ARE Mrs. Thomas Dudson and Mrs. D. Tracy, horticultural therapy; Mrs. G. C. Buchanan, hospitality; Mrs. Melvin Steckley, friendship; Mrs. H. B. Specker, international; Mrs. F. J. Horton, marketing; Mrs. C. Nepper, membership; Mrs. H. W. Shattuck, program.

Concluding the list are Mrs. J. C. Luppel, publicity; Paul Ziegelbauer, photography; Mrs. A. H. Gerhardt, reservations; and Mrs. W. L. Draper, table-of-the-month.

The Stephen Gidley of Seenie got a head start on summer and spent a week at Harbour Springs, before coming home to get daughter Mary ready for summer drama school at Olivet College.

MARY was one of two Groves students awarded a scholarship for this opportunity.

The Franklin Garden Club, (couples who meet nocturnally once a month) have postponed their monthly Thursday night session until July 11, when they will have their summer picnic at the Franklin Road home of Mr. Paul Ziegelbauer.

THE HARRY Bottlers of Tweed Drive made a quick sprint to Dayton, Ohio, Saturday to pick up son Rob, who is 24-hour pass.

Rob, a cadet at the Air Force Academy in Colorado has not been home since his graduation from Groves a year ago.

He is expected to have an extended leave before assignment around the middle of July.

At this time, it is hoped by all his buddies, there will be a chance for several reunions.

Among the campers who left last week are Chris Hampson and John Dozier.

Nyquists Tour Europe And Return with Statue

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0056

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Nyquist of Old Mill Road flew to Europe on a "dream trip" leaving by air on May 28 and returning three weeks later.

They visited Sweden, Denmark, France, Austria, Switzerland and Italy.

The site they enjoyed most was a town called Chamoni at the corners of France, Italy and Switzerland. They hope some day to return there.

Their trip overseas ended at the Riviera to their leaving they had a house guest, Mrs. J. P. Gilbert, Mrs. Dalglish's mother, who had flown up here for a short visit with her son-in-law, daughter and family. She returned with them to her home in Nashville.

ON MAY 23, Mrs. Charles Dalglish of Greenwich Drive left to drive to Nashville, Tenn., to attend the funeral of her cousin, Carolyn Maxwell. Accompanying her were her children Sara, Chuck and Elizabeth.

Prior to their leaving they had a house guest, Mrs. J. P. Gilbert, Mrs. Dalglish's mother, who had flown up here for a short visit with her son-in-law, daughter and family. She returned with them to her home in Nashville.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ostrow of South Gleanery has indeed been a busy one for some time now.

Their youngest daughter, Sharon, received a 1963 honorable mention award from the Ford Future Scientists of America conducted by the National Science Teachers Association sponsored by the Ford Motor Co.

Sharon was one of five Derby students to receive such an award. Daughter Margaret, who was married on Saturday, received awards from Delta Lambda chapter of Sigma Kappa at Wayne State University, where she is a senior, for scholarship and activities.

MARGARET was elected vice president of this organization in June.

Mary Majesky, another Birmingham resident, is president of the sorority.

Mr. Ostrow was definitely brought into the picture when he was chosen to attend an Air Force Conference at Orlando, Fla., recently.

Ostrow is in the reserves and is director of communications for the 5th Air Force Region which covers 13 states.

The family accompanied him on the trip south and visited Cape Canaveral among other points of interest.

On their return trip they stopped at St. Petersburg to pick up Mrs. Ostrow's mother, Mrs. Crystal, who resides with them.

HAIR HORMONE

Preparation from England

CAPREX, a product that has kept English hair beautiful and scalps healthy for years, has hopped the Atlantic and made its debut here... CAPREX is the discovery of F. V. Wells, one of the founders of the British Society of Cosmetic Chemists. The formula containing hormones helps condition and protect healthy hair and scalp. Checks dryness and attacks dandruff problems. Women users also have found CAPREX good for hair that needs help because of excessive use of bleaches, permanent waves, teasing and tight rolling. It was familiar to American travelers in England, but until now was unobtainable here. CAPREX... priced at $3.00 per bottle plus tax.
