Hula Dancing Highlights Luau at Glencoe Estates

By GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-327

the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brooke L. Stanford Jr. of Wing Lake Road, Chalmers Lake.

A chorus line of male beauties did a hula dance as part of the program at the Glencoe Estates luau held recently at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Draper on Long Lake Shores Drive.

Also on the program was Kathy O'Shea, a trained hula dancer, who entertained with several numbers and in addition, showed the group the correct way to do the hula.

Mrs. Ray R. Rice of Blandford Road was general chairman and on her committee were Mrs. Robert Wood and Mrs. Ronald Horwath.

Also assisting were Mrs. Donald Miller and Mrs. Eric Hoagberg. Hal Smurthwaite acted as master of ceremonies.

Forty-seven Glencoe Estates members dressed in Hawaiian costumes attended the affair and watched as the winners were awarded prizes.

Winners of couples league one were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hoagberg, first; the David Millers, second; and the Lawrence Dickelmann, third.

In couples league two the winners were Mr. and Mrs. John Kluck. Second were the Ron Horwaths; and third, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Draper.

Winners of the ladies league were first, Mable Peterson and Virginia Berridge; second, Barbara Kluck and Doris Wood; third, Kay Schaffer and Bonnie Miller.

Chalmers Lake St. Michael's Catholic Church in South Sioux City, Neb., was the scene of the June 22 wedding of Marjorie McQuillen and Airman 2nd class, Mark Andrew Stanford.

Marjorie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McQuillen of South Sioux City and Mark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brooke L. Stanford Jr. of Wing Lake Road, Chalmers Lake.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Stanford will remain in Seattle for two months while Stanford completes an electronics course associated with the Minute Man Missile of Boeing Aircraft Co.

The couple will then make their home in Cheyenne, Wyo.

Westwood Manor Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fess and 14-month-old Scott of Arizona have been the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cumminkey of Westwood Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Fess are the daughter and son-in-law of the Cumminkeys.

Fess received his masters at Arizona State and will be teaching at Bloomfield Hills High School in the fall.

Another daughter of the Cumminkeys is Linda. She is home from Northwestern University (where she will be a junior in the fall) and is teaching swimming at Wing Lake.

Westwood Manor The Westwood Manor beach area of Wing Lake was decorated with tiki lamps. Guests dressed Hawaiian style and wore leis at the luau last Saturday evening.

Twenty-eight couples gathered for the 6:30 p.m. luk affair.

Mrs. E. W. Handman of Westwood Lane was chairman of the event with participation from the entire subdivision.

F. Ward Ouradnik Is Honored At Poolside Party

Community House president Robert A. Thom and Mrs. Thom were hosts at a poolside farewell dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. Ward Ouradnik at the Thom home, 6190 West Surrey, Foxcroft.

Mr. Ouradnik is leaving The Community Home staff on July 15 to join The Birmingham Eccentric.

More than a dozen Community House directors, their wives and husbands, joined the festivities. Lining the pool were tables illuminated by hurricane lamps at which guests dined following dips in the Thom pool.

House Guests House guests in the W. B. Davies home on Birwood Road, Beverly Hills, include their daughter, Mary Jane, of Boulder, Colo., and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davies of La Belle, Fla., who arrived this week with their son, Allen. The visitors will remain for 10 days.

Gesu Unit Tea Is Attended By Local Women

The Gesu Unit of the Jesuit Seminary Association held its annual summertime tea at the home of Mrs. Lawrence V. Nagle on Warrington Ave., Detroit, June 25. Proceeds from the tea will help in the education of Scholastics studying to be Jesuit Priests.

Among Birmingham women assisting at the tea table were Mrs. Don Ahrens, Mrs. James Dean, Mrs. Eugene Simons, Mrs. John C. Owens, Mrs. Harold Mountain, Mrs. Joseph Churches, and Mrs. Aloysius Powers.

Mrs. John Schreiner and Mrs. James J. Byrne greeted guests in their combined roles as unit directors and hostesses for the tea.

Duffield-Binns Announcement is made of the June marriage of Mrs. Marjorie J. Binns and Mark B. Duffield, both of Birmingham. Dr. W. Glen Harris and the Rev. Lewis Gillette officiated at the service in the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham. The couple is at home on Sunnyside Drive, Beverly Hills.

2 Collegians Win Sloan Scholarships Two Birmingham men have been named recipients of 1963-64 Alfred P. Sloan National Scholarship awards to Cornell University.

They are Thomas F. Kennedy, 322 Wibleton, Birmingham and Timothy M. Maker, 2250 W. 14 Mile Road, Birmingham.

French cooks claim that adding a carrot and a pinch of nutmeg or ginger (no salt) to the water in which navy beans are boiled not only adds flavor but improves their digestibility.

BLOOMFIELD WEST

Parade Slated for Fourth

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN Special Writer

Bras Three is hoping for clear skies tomorrow when its first annual Fourth of July parade takes place.

Anyone, adult or child, interested in participating is welcome. Marchers are devising costumes carrying out a patriotic motif. There will be floats and a corps of decorated bicycles.

The parade will assemble at 9:30 a.m. at the "pea pond" located between Bryn Mawr and Ballantree.

It will wind through the streets of the subdivision, returning to the pond where blue ribbons will be awarded for the best decorations, and poppicks will be distributed.

Walnut Lake Another Fourth of July celebration is taking place at the lake-front home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoffman of Putnam Drive. They have invited a dozen relatives and friends to join them.

Among the guests will be Mrs. Hoffman's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Doenges and their two children, and the Jack Coons and Adrian Gebhart families.

Mr. and Mrs. William Corey of Putnam Drive returned on Monday from a short vacation at the Homestead, Hot Springs, Va. Grandmother Offhaus came from Ohio to stay with the four Corey children while their parents were away.

Mrs. Alex Riker, Mrs. Edward Russell and Mrs. Paul Pentecost also attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carey of Raven Court returned on June 22 from a 10-day visit in Princeton, W. Va., with her mother, Mrs. E. L. Kitta. Judy and Lee have stayed on with their grandmother to spend the summer.

The Detroit Horse Show and Hunt Fair at the Bloomfield Open Hunt attracted a delegation from the subdivision.

Attending with their children on last Wednesday were Mrs. William Robbins, Mr. Robert Moorey, Mrs. Harry Houck, Mrs. Edward Puvogel and Mrs. Arthur Healy.

After coffee at Mrs. Earl Workman's home on Ogden Drive last Monday members of the Brookfield Highlands Garden Club drove to Kensington Park for a tour of the park and a picnic.

Kirkwood On June 19, Browne Troop No. 379 enjoyed swimming, boat rides, and a cook-out at Dr. Riker's place on Cass Lake.

They were accompanied by their co-leaders, Mrs. Jack Keller and Mrs. Roger Zatkoff.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pentecost also attended.

Recent guests of the Dale Nofts of Quorton Road were Mr. and Mrs. Don Seigworth and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hanold of Lockingville, Pa.

Jean Tomer and Rose Thomas, both of Kingsmill Drive, came in first in their respective flights in the Newcomers Golf League in the low gross-a-way played on June 18.
