

O'Connor Hurls A Three-Hitter

Kevin O'Connor recorded 16 strikeouts and recorded a three-hitter last week as he pitched his Longhorns to a 6-2 victory over the Stagers in Pony League action.

The triumph enabled the winners to maintain their leading pace in the league with an 8-3 record. The Pintos (tied for second with the Rams at 6-4) were edged 6-4 by the Wildcats on the basis of Bob Larkins' 10 m. r. with two mates aboard. The 'Cats also downed the Mustangs, 7-1, as Allen Gagsterer blasted one out with a man on. In this contest Larkins, working on the mound, gave up only two hits.

IN THE COLT LEAGUE, Pete Ruff of the Braves played important roles in his team's two victories.

His 300-foot home run over the right field fence was the decisive blow in the first game as the Braves nipped the Orioles, 12-11, on Wednesday. On Saturday, Larkins came back and pitched a two-hitter as his team defeated the Cubs, 6-1.

The Giants remain way out in front in the league with a fine 9-1 record. Three teams—the Braves, Tigers and Orioles—are tied for second at 5-4.
