CAPREX FOR HAIR OR SCALP

HAIR-HORMONE Preparation from England

CAPREX, a formula developed in England, is now in America to help make midday's coiffure more elegant. It works to encourage lustrous, vibrant and healthier looking hair. The discovery of F. V. Wells, one of the founders of the famous British Society of Cosmetic Chemists, now CAPREX can make your hair look lovely and glamorous . . . begging to be caressed and admired. CAPREX formula contains hormones to help condition and protect healthy hair and scalp, check dryness and attack dandruff problems. Women have found CAPREX good for the hair that needs help because of excessive use of bleaches, permanent waves, teasing and tight rolling. It was familiar to American travelers in England but until now was unobtainable here.

Officers' Club Scene Of Bridal Reception

By ELEANOR NELSON MI 7-0656

MRS. LO CICERO

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Pair

At a double ring ceremony solemnized June 15 in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church, Mrs. Alice Thurber, daughter of Mrs. John Livingston Thurber of Emmons Ave., Birmingham, and the late Mr. Thurber, became the bride of Thomas Vincent Lo Cicero, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vincent Lo Cicero of Grosse Pointe.

The Rev. Fr. John F. Galloway, O.S.A., principal of St. Austin High School, Detroit, and a long time friend of the bridegroom, officiated at the service which was followed by a reception at the Detroit Yacht Club given by the bridegroom's parents.

JOHN ALEXANDER Thurber gave his sister in marriage. She wore for the occasion a gown she had designed herself. It was fashioned of pure silk imported peau de soie, the A-line skirt accented by front and back panels applied in hand-beaded medallions of Belgian linen. The back panel extended into a cathedral train, and her veil of English silk illusion fell from a tiny cap of beaded lace. She carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis, lilies of the valley and ivy.

The attendants, all dressed in madonna blue organza over taffeta and carrying blue and white delphinium, included Mrs. John A. Thurber, matron of honor; Maria Lo Cicero of Detroit, aunt of the bridegroom, and Lois Kolber of Chicago, a former roommate of the bride's at the University of Michigan. Jeanne Thurber was her sister's junior bridesmaid.

VINCENT LO CICERO was his brother's best man, and seating the guests were Lt. Patrick Frank of Annapolis and Orchard Lake; Richard Delamelleure of Grosse Pointe; Don Drescher of Ann Arbor and Thomas D'Oro of Hazel Park, a cousin of the bride.

Both the bride and her husband are graduates of the University of Michigan, and she is a granddaughter of the late Mrs. Thomas L. Thurber (Alice Hageman Thurber), nationally known artist. The couple will make their home in Ann Arbor and Birmingham.

At a ceremony solemnized June 29 in the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham, Margaret Moran Ostrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ostrow of S. Giengarry Road, Birmingham, became the bride of M. Christian Uppliger, H. son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Uppliger of Birmingham.

Following the double ring 2 o'clock ceremony performed by Dr. W. Glen Harris, a reception was held in the Gold Room of the Officers' Club at Selfridge Air Force Base.

THE BRIDE wore a gown of Alencon lace and silk organza over taffeta which she designed and made herself. It had a bolice of the lace embroidered in seed pearls.

The chapel train was enhanced by Dior roses as well as the skirt, which was caught up with the roses at the front. The dress had a satrina neckline and long sleeves of lace tapering to a point. Her shouldered-length butterfly veil was of French silk illusion and she carried a cascade of white baby orchids and white roses with lilies of the valley.

Sets Date

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Craig of Lathrup Village announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Robert Bach Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Thompson of Ann Arbor. The bride-elect, a 1960 graduate of Southfield High School, attended Hillsdale College for two years where she was affiliated with Pi Beta Phi. At present she is in her senior year at Michigan State University majoring in social science. Her fiancé received his B.S. in civil engineering from Purdue and is continuing his studies in forest products at Michigan State. The couple plans to be married Aug. 24 and resume their studies in the fall.

Chantilly Lace Highlights Bridal Gown

A gown of Chantilly lace and taffeta was worn by Linda Anne Boileau for her marriage to Frederic Louis Dupre on July 4. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. I. Boileau of Hamilton Road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Dupre of Worcester, Mass.

Her gown was floor-length with an apron of lace in the back. She wore a matching headpiece of lace with an edging of seed pearls and carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy.

MRS. DAVID HAMIL of Utah was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jon Floria of Chicago; Laela Miller, Marcelle Dupre, and Paula Dupre. They were gowned in pale sea foam silk organza floor-length gowns with sapphire blue velvet accenting empire waists. They carried blue bachelor buttons.

Allen P. Horrigan was best man. Seating the guests were William Bach, Andrew Gellinas and Richard Loranger.

Following a garden reception at the bride's home, the newlyweds left for a Bermuda honeymoon. They will make their new home in Auburn, Mass.
