Hitchmans Have Thanksgiving in July

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

It was Thanksgiving in July at the T. Norris Hitchman home on Lone Pine Road, Chalmers Lake, recently.

Red, white and blue decorations, balloons, flags and pin-wheels set the scene for the family gathering, which took place in November in previous years. Also joining the group were Mrs. Hitchman's two sisters and their husbands.

They were Mr. and Mrs. David Knox of Huntington Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart A. Murray of Detroit.

Coming from Flint for the occasion were Mrs. Hitchman's two aunts.

EIGHT children and twelve grandchildren attended with the small fry playing games, fishing for prizes and taking pony rides.

LONE PINE ACRES
On Wednesday Mrs. Ray E. Obrecht and her two daughters, Karen and Carole, of Keller Lane will entertain at an evening buffet in honor of Catherine Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Bennett.

The affair will also be a miscellaneous shower for Catherine, who will become the bride of Robert E. Obrecht on July 27. Among those who will attend are Catherine's aunts, Mrs. Cecil Charvin of Dearborn, Mrs. William Hickey of Livonia, Mrs. John Christy of Royal Oak and Mrs. John Hickey Jr. of Port Huron.

OTHERS WILL include Bob's great aunt, Miss Gertrude Girard, his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Earl Huff of Milan, Mich., his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Herbert Obrecht of Detroit and his "95 year young" maternal great grandmother, Mrs. E. Labadie.

Out of two guests who will arrive in time for the wedding will be the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McClummond and daughter Jeannie of Sparta, N. J.

HOUSEGUESTS of the Ray Obrechts will be the groom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Obrecht of Nekoma, Fla. They will be accompanied by their sons Allan, and Ralph who is a marine stationed in North Carolina.

WILLIAMSBURG
Newcomers to Williamsburg, but not newcomers to the area, are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peterson of Spotswood Drive. They are former residents of Westwood Drive, Bloomfield Village. They moved into their new home with their two children, Leslie, 7, and Donny, 5, three months ago.

Peterson is Ford Division Product Planning Manager of Ford Motor Company.

WESTWOOD MANOR
Visiting in the Alex Mair home on Kolly Road this week are Mr. and Mrs. John D. Shaw and family of three from Maryland. Also arriving last week end for a visit were two nieces from Flint.

LONE PINE ACRES
Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Obrecht, with their two daughters, Karen and Carole and son Brian, returned to their Keller Lane home on Tuesday after spending the long holiday week end at their cottage on Strawberry Lake.

MRS. JOHNSON

Miss Nunneley Is Married By Candlelight

Barbara Jean Nunneley, daughter of Mrs. Stewart W. Nunneley of Birmingham spoke her marriage vows June 29 to Gard D. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Johnson of Pontiac. The candlelight service took place in the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, with a reception following at the Detroit Golf Club.

The bride wore a Bianchi gown (fashioned with a controlled semi-sheath skirt and fitted bodice accented by Alencon lace embroidered seed pearls and crystal. A full box of matching ivory tulle and lace secured her veil of French illusion, and she carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

STEWART H. NUNNELEY of Birmingham gave his sister in marriage and Mrs. Nunneley was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Bruce Johnson, Patricia White green organza and lace and carried yellow carnations.

They included Joan S. McColgan of Burlingame, Calif., sister of the bride and the honor attendant; Barbara S. White of Millbrae, another sister; Boni Dake of Burlingame, Calif., and Marcia Luscotoff of San Francisco.

Mr. Machus was his son's best man, and seating the guests were Richard J. McColgan, Peter Hubert and Roger Waud, all of California.

and Mrs. Robert Dietz. Their agricult-colored Oriental sheers were styled with fitted empire bodices and sheath skirts cinched by an obi sash at the back. They wore matching shallow pill boxes with circle veils and carried honeydew-colored pom pom mums and ivy.

Bruce Johnson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and seating the guests were Robert P. Ostrander of East Lansing; Ronald Cornish and Roy Johnson, another brother of the bridegroom.
